Six killed, four critical in N4 Rustenburg collision

Photo: ER24

Rustenburg – Six people have been killed, and four others sustained critical injuries, when a cement truck and a 26-seater minibus collided on the N4 near Rustenburg on Thursday evening, 16 March 2017.

Paramedics from ER24 and local rescue services arrived on the scene at approximately 5.30pm where they found several people scattered across the scene. Six people were found with fatal injuries.

Four people, including a child believed to be approximately eight years old, sustained critical injuries. Several people were found trapped inside the minibus. The local fire and rescue services had to use jaws of life to free some of the trapped victims inside the vehicle.

It is believed that approximately 25 people were involved in the collision.

The exact circumstances of the collision are not yet known. However, it appears as if the cement truck collided into the side of the minibus.

Local authorities attended the scene and investigations continue.

Pilot survived crash

Hekpoort – On Tuesday afternoon, 21 March 2017, Netcare 911 paramedics responded to a light aircraft crash on the Oestermoed Farm in Hekpoort. Reports from the scene indicate that the in training pilot went on a solo flight in a Cessna aircraft when according to him, he experienced engine problems.

A training pilot went on a solo flight and experienced engine problems.

The light aircraft crash-landed on the Oestermoed farm; fortunately, the Oestermoed protection officers were at hand and pulled the pilot from the wreckage before it burst into flames. "This heroic action definitely saved the pilot, a man in his twenties from fatal injuries," Chris Botha, Netcare 911 spokesperson, said.

Paramedics arrived at the scene and after examining the patient, it was found that he sustained moderate injuries. The patient was treated at the scene before medics transported him to a nearby hospital for the care that he required.

Shooting at ABSA CBD

Rustenburg – An armed robbery occurred at ABSA, c/o Beyers Naude and Nelson Mandela drives, on Friday afternoon, 17 March 2017.

A local businessman, about to deposit a large amount of cash, was on his way to the bank, when three men overpowered him and held him at gunpoint. The man and his colleague were forced to lay on the ground.

According to eye witnesses, the cash was stolen and the three men fired a shot and took off. The bullet hit the car of the businessman. The three armed men took off with a silver BMW with unknown registration plates.

Anyone with information should please contact Detective Constable Tebogo Chidi on 071-619 2240 or 074-590 4258.

No one was injured after a shooting at ABSA CBD.
