

287 YEARS FOR SERIAL RAPIST

Rustenburg/ Thabazimbi – The North West Provincial Police welcomed the life and 287 years imprisonment sentence handed to 44-year old Joseph Ngobeni for 29 charges of rape, another 29 charges of robbery and one of kidnapping. According to Brigadier Sabata Mokgwabone, police spokesperson, Ngobeni was sentenced on Thursday, 30 March 2017, by the North West High Court sitting in Rustenburg. The sentencing emanated from the offences Ngobeni committed between 13 May 2007 and 23 June 2012. Ngobeni did not work alone. An unknown number of suspects joined his rampage in committing crimes ranging from rape, kidnapping and robberies. In almost all incidents, Ngobeni used a knife or firearm to threaten his victims. His modus operandi was to target unsuspecting and hitch-hiking women in the Moses Kotane, Rustenburg and Madibeng areas. After offering his victims a lift, he would drive into the veld where he would rape and rob them. The long arm of justice finally caught up with Ngobeni when he was arrested in Thabazimbi in 2013. He has been in detention until his recent sentencing. The North West Provincial Commissioner, Lieutenant General

Baile Motswenyane thanked the investigation team and everyone involved in the case, who ensured that the accused is convicted.
