VTSD Programme in Rustenburg

Kanana/ Rustenburg – In a bid to moving the province forward, the Premier of Bokone Bophirima province, Honourable Supra Obakeng Ramoetsi Mahumapelo brought the provincial government's programme of villages, towns and small dorpiess (VTSD) to Rustenburg.

Held on Friday, 21 April 2017 in Kanana village, just outside Rustenburg; the event focused on exploring the rural investment opportunities and trading partnerships that will benefit the entrepreneurs in VTSD areas and potentially address triples challenges of poverty, unemployment and inequalities.

North West Provincial Government bringing their Villages, Towns and Small Dorpiess programme closer to people.

ELECTRICITY OUTAGE ON FRIDAY, RTB

Rustenburg – According to Thapelo Matebesi, Rustenburg Local Municipality spokesperson, "Eskom Distribution has requested an emergency outage at the Voltaire Substation on Friday, 28 April 2017, from 12h00 to perform repairs on the 88kV feeder.

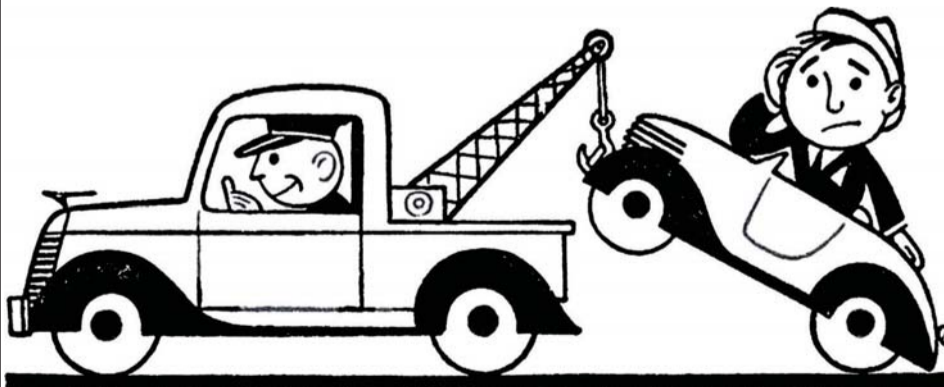

HV conductors were stolen during an act of vandalism and Eskom had to make a temporary installation to restore supply to the affected areas. The scope of work for the outage is to string new conductors to normalize the feeder. The estimated time of the outage is 5 hours.

The affected areas will be Sunrise Park; Boitekong Mall; Boitekong Extensions; Paardekraal; Sunrise View; Ramochana Communal and the Correctional Services.

"We apologise for any inconvenience caused," Matebesi says.

CHALLENGES AT THE TRAFFIC LICENSING AND TESTING OFFICE CONTINUE

Rustenburg – "Challenges at Rustenburg's traffic licensing and testing office continue, due to the contractual disputes between the two national systems of Tazima and RTMC," Thapelo Matebesi, Rustenburg Local Municipality spokesperson said in a media statement released on 25 April 2017.

"Driving licence testing is suspended until further notice, due to the slow pace in the issuing of learner licences and motor vehicle registration.

The Rustenburg Local Municipality apologises sincerely for this inconvenience caused as we endeavour to resolve the situation with all parties concerned," Matebesi added.
