BLIND RIDERS EXCITED TO CONQUER THE MONSTER

ATKV Buffelspoort – Two eager mountain bikers, Dan Manders and Morne Swanepoel will not allow their competitive spirit to be dampened by their inability to see. A true inspiration, both riders will attempt to conquer the revered 70km FNB Magalies Monster Mountain Bike Classic on Saturday, 3 June 2017. The 70km, 35km and 15km options are available.

Manders and Swanepoel met in Worcester at a school for the blind. Manders was born blind, while Swanepoel lost his sight at the age of three due to glaucoma. Both riders first started road cycling before switching to mountain biking.

“I started mountain biking with a friend, Theo Coetzee, about three years ago,” says Manders. “I love every minute of it! I love challenges, the unknown factor. You don’t know what is waiting beyond the next turn. The adrenalin really starts to flow when you hit the downhill. My first Monster was my second or third race when Theo and I first started mountain biking. Together it took us about seven hours to finish the 70km route. I’d like to see how we have improved. I’m really looking forward to the long downhill after the Monster climb. I cannot describe what it feels like to hear the cheers when you cross the finish line.”

Morne Swanepoel will take on the Monster with friend and work colleague, Marius van Lill. According to Swanepoel, he’s been involved in tandem road cycling for several years. “Marius was a solo road cyclist. We started riding tandem road races together. One morning on our way to work the topic of mountain bike tandem racing was discussed. The rest is history.”
