Eldunique crowned LITTLE MISS UNIVERSE

Eldunique du Plessis, learner at Lebone II, School of the Royal Bafokeng

Rustenburg/ Buffelpoort – Eldunique Du Plessis, a learner at Lebone II, School of the Royal Bafokeng just outside Rustenburg, represented South Africa at the World League of Beauty and Fashion event, held from 5-15 May 2017 in Turkey.

The girls were judged on a video presentation showcasing themselves and South Africa, and their talents. The ability to interact with contestants from 26 other countries competing was also part of the judging criteria. Additional judging was done in national costumes, casual wear as well as formal wear.

Eldunique was crowned Little Miss Universe and selected by Mr Ashot Khachatryan, owner and organizer of the event, for the Miss Sympathy title.

As a resident of Buffelpoort, Eldunique made her parents, supporters and her modelling school, Pascall Model Management, very proud.

Next on Eldunique's agenda is to get more involved with community projects. She has the world at her feet and has been modelling since the age of three. Eldunique wants to take this opportunity to thank everyone who supported her in her journey – especially WOW Car Sales, her main sponsor.

Rustenburg – Despite the ever approaching winter, the Waterfall Mall's Seaside Baby Pageant held on Saturday morning, 20 May 2017, warmed the hearts of the entire crowd that gathered. The adorable smiles gave us one last glimpse of summer!

Over the course of four weeks, moms and dads brought their babies and toddlers to the Waterfall Mall's Centre Court to have their photos taken by Crystal Pix Photography, to enter the Seaside Baby Competition.

One of each of the contestants' photos was then uploaded to Waterfall Mall's Facebook page, where the voting took place. The three contestants with the most likes in each category were invited to the event on Saturday, where the panel of judges voted for first, second and third place in the three categories.

The Seaside Baby judges were Mrs Rustenburg 2016, Elrize van der Merwe; Myrtle Brough from the Platinum Weekly and Tsholofelo Sikwe from Old Mutual.

The judges scored the contestants' points based on the photos taken. Points were scored on facial expressions, dress code and the overall feeling portrayed by the photo.

R10 from each entry into the Seaside Baby photo competition was collected and nappies and formula were donated to a local orphanage in need through the Rotary Club of Rustenburg.

While the judges made their final decision, the Huppelhoeke pompom girls entertained the crowd.

"Congratulations to the nine finalists for making it to the Waterfall Mall's Seaside Baby Pageant. Thank you to the moms and dads who worked very hard on gaining likes in order to be here today. Congratulations!" said Liezel Pieters, MC for the Seaside Baby pageant.

The first place winners were awarded a R5000.00 Old Mutual start-up education policy, a R2000.00 Waterfall Mall voucher, a family photo shoot with Crystal Pix Photography to the value of R1000.00, a vouchers from Studio Collection to the value of R2000.00, as well as vouchers from Baby Boom and GML Models. Second place winners were awarded a R1500.00 Waterfall Mall voucher, as well as vouchers from Baby Boom and GML Models. Third place winners were awarded a R750 Waterfall Mall voucher, as well as vouchers from Baby Boom and GML Models.
