

COMRADES!
TONIGHT
WE DINE IN HELL...
WELL, ACTUALLY DURBAN.

MY UNCLE'S
BUNNY CHOW
BURNS LIKE HELL.

BUT COMRADE,
THE CAR IS BROKEN, HOW ARE WE GOING TO GET THERE?

THEN WE RUN.
LAST ONE THERE IS A VROT PAMPOEN.

AND THAT KIDS IS HOW I INVENTED THE COMRADES MARATHON.

RUSTENBURG, GRUESOME TORTURE FOR KEYS

Rustenburg – "In broad daylight, on Tuesday, 6 June 2017, a house robbery turned into a gruesome crime scene," Captain Elsabé Augoustides, police spokesperson, said.

A 40-year old African woman was watering the garden where she is employed in Waterfall East, Rustenburg. Two African males, driving a white Volkswagen Jetta, approached her and asked her where her employer was. She replied that she didn't know and before she knew it, they pulled a firearm on her.

She was assaulted, her life threatened and she was forced into one of the bedrooms of the house. When the assailants entered the house, the employer, Martin Smit – unaware of the situation at that stage – was overpowered and assaulted. The two attackers tied his feet and hands with cable ties, and tortured Smit with boiling water. Another two attackers entered the house and continued to assault both the employee and employer, demanding the keys to his vehicle and safe.

The gang of four men fled the scene with Smit's white Toyota Land Cruiser, a Beretta firearm, cash, two laptops, two garage remotes, an ID, bank and other cards. "Their plunder is estimated well over R 800 000.00," Augoustides confirmed. A house robbery case was opened and investigations continue.

If you have any information on this case, please contact your nearest Police station.

"We urge the Rustenburg community to be vigilant at all times," Augoustides said.
