

PEACEFUL MINING MARCH

Rustenburg – The Greater Local Mining Communities Business Forum organised a peaceful march through the streets of Rustenburg on Wednesday, 7 June 2017. The purpose of the march was to get the Department of Mineral Resources (DMR) to intervene with the procurement of jobs and services to local companies. The Forum includes mining communities from Amandelbult, Brits and Rustenburg.

The march started at the Rustenburg Local Municipality and concluded at the DMR offices in Beyers Naude street. "The local mines are unwilling to transform. Yesterday we were in Johannesburg at the Chamber of Mines. Today we march in Rustenburg to get the DMR to engage purposefully with the local mines," Sabelo Mdangai, spokesperson for the community forum, said in an interview with the Platinum Weekly newspaper. "We know certain members of the DMR are corrupt. They double as both workers and business people. That is why they threaten the mines with section 54s," Mdangai added. "But the time has come for them to also commit to our cause. That is why we handed over a Memorandum today." Even though the march was both legal and peaceful, community members were worried and buzzing on social media. "We are very peaceful because we want to engage. We don't know whether the DMR and the Chamber of Mines will respond positively, but our people have been very obedient and principled. Our march was very well organized and we are working well with the cops," Mdangai added.

About 1500 peaceful protesters gathered outside the Rustenburg DMR offices on Wednesday, 7 June 2017.
