

Sgt Gift Kelehe, 3rd in the Comrades Marathon

Pretoria – A member of the Police, Sergeant Gift Kelehe, originally from the North West province, attained 3rd place in the 92nd Comrades Marathon on Sunday 4 June 2017 in Kwazulu-Natal. Sergeant Kelehe, 35, was previously posted at the Tactical Response Team in Rustenburg. He is currently working at the Police Service Tshwane Academy under the Division: Human Resource Development. He has served the South African community diligently for the past 13 years. This North West local was born and grew up at Sekhing Village, Taung in the North West Province. Sergeant Kelehe is a sports fanatic who started running the Comrades Marathon in 2007 at the age of 25, when he crossed the finish-line in 40th place. The motivated and disciplined sergeant continued to train and participate in this and other races. In 2015 Kelehe, then a Constable, won the prestigious Comrades marathon, after coming third in 2014. "We are exceptionally proud of Sergeant Kelehe and congratulate him on yet another fine achievement in his athletics career," Acting National Commissioner, Lieutenant General Lesetje Mothiba, said. "We are indeed proud to have members of Sergeant Kelehe's calibre among our ranks and hope this will encourage other members to continue to represent the SAPS in different sporting codes." All other police employees who participated in the Comrades Marathon 2017 are commended on their discipline and commitment. This is the second year running in which

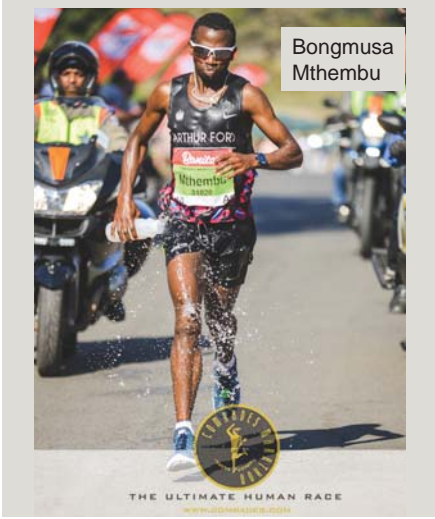

Former Rustenburg local police officer places 3rd in the Comrades Marathon

North West locals have placed in the top spots at the Comrades. Last year, Rustenburg local David Gatebe won the 91st Comrades Marathon. From our side, the Platinum Weekly would like to offer our congratulations to Sergeant Kelehe!

COMRADES CELEBRATIONS!

Bongmusa Mthembu

The Comrades Marathon Association (CMA) together with their major co-sponsor, Old Mutual, hosted the 2017 Old Mutual prize giving breakfast on Monday, 5 June 2017. The celebratory occasion saw the nation's and the world's elite ultra-athletes, including the 2017 Comrades Marathon champions, joining CMA sponsors, and road-running dignitaries at the Southern Sun Maharani Hotel in Durban. The 92nd Comrades Marathon on Sunday, 4 June 2017, saw Arthur Ford Athletic Club's Bongmusa Mthembu (RSA) claiming the winning position in the Men's Race with a time of 5:35:34, while Nedbank Running Club's Camille Herron from the USA won the Women's Race with a winning time of 6:27:35. The 2017 Comrades Marathon had 17 031 starters and 13 852 finishers.

FREEZE FOR FASHION!

LET ADRENALINE RACE THROUGH YOUR VEINS THIS SATURDAY

Rustenburg – Let the smell of petrol fill your nostrils, let the roar of engines fill your ears and let the dust fly everywhere, as oval track racing is back with an exhilarating event. Due to the Rustenburg Show taking place at the showgrounds, the next oval event will be hosted this Saturday, 10 June 2017. Expect delicious food stalls – if you don't want to pack your barbeque – and lots of action as the racers compete for the top spots. "We invite all to come enjoy this fun-filled evening with us as you support your favourite driver," Wendy Kinneer, one of the organisers of the event, said. Gates will open at 10h00 and racing commences at 17h00. For additional details or stalls, contact Kinneer on 071 638 2470/ 082 438 1920.

Grenville IN BOJANALA LEAGUE

Rustenburg – Grenville High School's u/14 netball team has been placed in 2nd position of the Bojanala League. We wish them best of luck for the provincial playoffs on 16 June 2017!

Good luck to the Rustenburg Police Cluster netball team (winners of the Sanlam inter-cluster tournament) and Cluster Commander, Maj Gen Adams, in the netball season this year. With captain Tshepiso Sefanyetso (coach) and constable Ntesang Mankheli (captain) in steer, they are hard at work.
