Police catch Hijackers

WITH VICTIMS STILL IN CAR

Rustenburg/ Phokeng – “The Rustenburg community service centre (CSC) and Phokeng Highway Patrol members apprehended hijack suspects on Saturday evening, 17 June 2017 at about 23h30,” Captain Elsabé Augoustides, police spokesperson, said. Just as a couple, aged 25 and 27, arrived home in their charcoal Volkswagen Golf 7 in Thlabane, they were held at gunpoint. A relative saw this happening and immediately phoned the Thlabane Police. Information regarding this call was circulated and reached Brigadier Gertrude Modise, who was on duty in the control room at the time. She proceeded to skilfully guide members of the CSC and Highway Patrol as they closed in on suspects, who headed for the N4 Highway.

A high-speed chase ensued and the suspects lost control of their vehicle just before the N4 Kroondal off-ramp.

Brigadier Modise warned the Police not to shoot, as the victims were still trapped in the boot of the vehicle. The suspects tried to flee, but were both apprehended by the Police.

Both the male and female victims were injured and traumatised.

An illegal firearm was discovered in the vehicle and the Police were on scene up to about 03h00 the following morning collecting evidence.

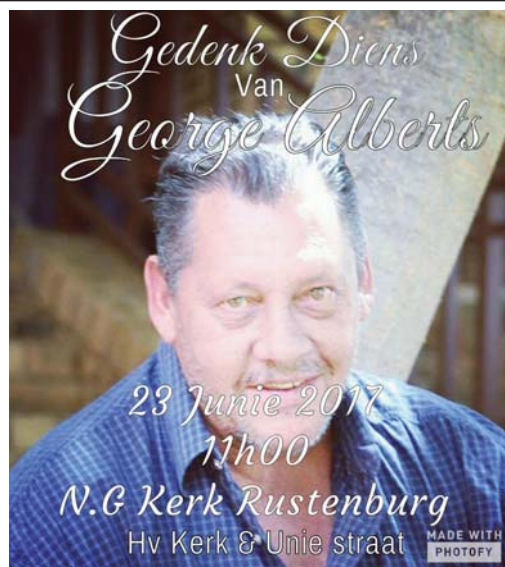

The confiscated illegal firearm.

The hijacked vehicle: a charcoal VW Golf.

Another vehicle stolen by the same suspects, a Nissan NP200.
