Phokeng SAPS' 67 minutes

Rustenburg/ Phokeng – Members of the Phokeng Police joined hands with the department of Public Safety, Fire Fighters, the Phokeng Trauma Centre, Famsa, Blue Ribbon, Makuketso Elderly and the Serenity Rehabilitation and Development Home in celebrating Mandela Day on 18 July.

The members spent a day with pensioners at the Otshepeng old age home in Tlaseng. The centre looks after pensioners who need care and support. Caregivers from Tlaseng and nearby villages selflessly give their time and efforts to look after pensioners without being remunerated.

"All stakeholders served the pensioners with bread and soup for breakfast. We dedicated our time to elderly people to symbolise our love for them. This undertaking by the police will not only last 67 minutes, but all year long," sergeant Gabaaphiwe Kgatlha, police spokesperson, said.
