Meintjes 8th in Tour de France

Louis Meintjes Tour Down Under 2017

Rustenburg/ Paris – From Saturday, 1-23 July, the 104th Tour de France saw Rustenburg's very own Louis Meintjes compete. Meintjes hopes that his 8th place finish at the Tour de France will serve as an inspiration to become the first South African to ever win the race.

Meintjes finished the tour in 86 hours, 29 minutes and 15 seconds, a mere 8 minutes and 20 seconds later than the winner of this year's Tour De France overall winner, Christopher Froome.

The 25-year old Meintjes, riding for Team UAE, said that the goal in his mind is very clear.

"Winning is the dream, but giving my best is the goal. I dream of winning the Tour de France and I'm trying to take small steps to get there," says Meintjes. "South Africa has really arrived in world cycling. Together with Dimension Data, Daryl Impey and I, as well as other riders, are real contenders and are important competitors in races."

Louis became a sporting legend when he finished this grand tour in overall 8th position with a time of 89h11'46" last year. You can be sure that the entire Rustenburg cheered him on every gruelling leg of the 21 stage, 3 450km race.

In an interview with the Platinum Weekly newspaper, Christo van Staden, chairman of the Rustenburg Cycling Club (RCC) said, "Louis is not just a great athlete – he's also a great guy! Louis often joins us on club rides when he's visiting his family and friends here in Rustenburg. He even takes time out to mentor some of the younger riders and give advice. We are overjoyed by his 8th position in this year's race."

Louis hails from Rustenburg and is an honorary member of the RCC.
