

Vehicles worth more than R 1 million recovered

Rustenburg – The fight against property related crimes is in overdrive. From 24 July to 31 July, eight motor vehicles and a tractor, all to the value of R1 150 950.00 were recovered by the Vehicle Crime Investigation Units (VCIU) in the North West province. Of the recovered vehicles, four were confiscated in Rustenburg with two suspects arrested; three in Klerksdorp with five arrests, two vehicles and a tractor in Mahikeng and Zeerust with four arrests, and one arrest was made in Lehurutshe. The 12 arrested suspects' ages range between 20 and 40 years and were charged with the possession of suspected stolen property. Lieutenant General Baile Motswenyane, the North West provincial commissioner praised members for their efforts which resulted in the recoveries and apprehension of suspects.

"The new Task Team and Flying Squad vehicles will be utilized for investigation as well as proactive patrols along the N4, N12, N14, N18 and other provincial roads in order to improve security and reduce trio crimes such as truck and car hijackings as well as other serious crimes," brigadier Sabata Mokgwabone, police spokesperson, said.

As part of proactively addressing car hijackings and crimes committed along all major roads of the province, the Police have handed over eight new high performance vehicles to various Trio Task Teams and Flying Squad Units.

The cruelty of stock theft...

Live goats, crammed like sardines.

Rustenburg/ Phokeng – A vigilant member of the Community Policing Forum (CPF) noticed a suspicious looking vehicle in the vicinity of Boshoeck near Phokeng on Sunday, 6 Aug.

The Rustenburg Flying Squad was summoned and resulted in the arrest of two suspects, aged 28 and 35 respectively. On closer inspection of the Isuzu bakkie with a closed canopy, the police found the bakkie crammed with 16 live goats, to the value of R 20 000.00. "The livestock was positively identified by the owner residing in Moruleng Village," captain Elsabé Augoustides, police spokesperson, said.

These suspects are thought to be linked to other cases of stock theft. Both suspects appeared briefly before the Bafokeng Magistrates' Court in Tlhabane on Monday, 7 August.
