SOULFOOD
New King James Version (NKJV)

Wisdom has built her house; she has set up its seven pillars. She has prepared her meat also set her table. She has sent out her servants, and she calls from the highest point of the city, 'Let all who are simple come to my house!' To those who have no sense she says, 'Come, eat my food and drink the wine I have mixed.'

Proverbs 9:1-5

Women together in prayer

Rustenburg – On national Women's Day, 9 August, as part of celebrating national women's month a special prayer event was hosted by the Interdenominational Women's Prayer Tlhabane and Cluster group at the Tlhabane Community Hall.

The prayer meeting was led by Reverend SL Njuza who prayed for the protection of mothers, daughters, fathers, sons, the youth and the elderly. "A woman is the backbone of the family and therefore needs protection," Germina R Pilane, chairperson of the Interdenominational Women's Prayer Tlhabane and Cluster group said.

In attendance was cllr. Mpho Khunou, executive mayor of the Rustenburg Local Municipality (RLM) who said: "No person is above the law, if you harm women or children, the long arm of the law will catch up to you."

In support of women, from left, cllr. Mpho Khunou, executive mayor of RLM and Glodina Phetoe of Uniting Reform Church of SA.

United in prayer, from left, Clara Sekgothe, Innocentia Molefe, Bertha Toute, Constance Njuza and Emily Khumalo of the Interdenominational Prayer Women's Choir League.
