CASH IN 'TRANSIT' ROBBERY CLAIMS A LIFE

Rustenburg – Just before 07h00 on Friday 15 September, SBV personnel were about to reload the ATM machines at the Standard Bank branch in Nelson Mandela Drive when all hell broke loose.

Four suspects armed with rifles appeared, opening fire on the SBV personnel. This triggered a shoot-out between the suspects and the cash in transit staff. An unsuspecting 55-year old female motorist was struck in the neck by a stray bullet.

The injured motorist was taken to a nearby hospital, where she succumbed to her injuries only a short while later. The Police were on the scene and an investigation is underway. "The suspects fled in a black Mercedes Benz with an undisclosed amount of cash," sergeant Ofentse Mokgadi, police spokesperson, said.

We extend our heartfelt condolences to the family and friends of the deceased.
