New King James Version (NKJV)

I Peter 1:6-7

Wherein ye greatly rejoice, though now for a season, if need be, ye are in heaviness through manifold temptations: that the trial of your faith, being much more precious than gold that perisheth, though it be tried with fire, might be found unto praise and honour and glory at the appearing of Jesus Christ

HIP-HOP HUSTLE

Taking Hip-Hop higher: Tshepo "Mr Sky" Kgengwe.

Rustenburg/Mahikeng – The 3rd Bokone Bophirima Entertainment awards announced their nominations and the North West University's campus radio NWU fm 105.5 boasts with two nominations.

Out of 21 categories, Tshepo "Mr Sky" Kgengwe was nominated in two categories namely, best radio producer and best hustler for his show, Hip-hop Corner. These categories were open to public voting.

Kgengwe always dreamed of making a name for himself in the entertainment industry. Dedication and hard work have led him this far. Being nominated for such a prestigious event is no small feat. Said Kgengwe, producer, on NWU fm 105.5: "These nominations mean a lot to me, it proves I am doing something right. I strive to be the best in what I do."

Theunis, a man on a mission

Theunis Peens repainting road signs in the streets of Rustenburg.

Rustenburg – "Our once-beautiful town has faded," but one person determined to make a visible difference, is Rustenburg's own Theunis Peens.

It's not unusual to spot Theunis around town on the weekends. He has taken the initiative to improve our safety and to attend to those annoying problems, potholes, street signs, water and electrical problems. Out of his own pocket or with help from a handful of sponsors Theunis gets things done.

As citizens of Rustenburg we should step up and follow the example set by Theunis. If we all just took the time and trouble of keeping our area clean and safe, Rustenburg might very well bloom once again. This is our town, let's be proud and make Rustenburg the jewel it once was.
