‘We fight crime step by step!’

Rustenburg – “I thank each and every partner who joined us on Saturday, 14 October, for the foot patrol in the CBD. We fight crime step by step!” says Johan de Klerk, head of safety at AfriForum Neighbourhood Watch. The participants included: the AfriForum Neighbourhood Watch, the Rustenburg Crime Combating Forum (RCCF), ADT Rustenburg and the Department of Public Safety. “We again made an impact on crime and on illegal activities in the CBD. We worked together and made a difference. This is an awesome team with dedication and commitment. ADT came in mass to support us. A special thanks go out to the ADT guys who sponsored the cold drinks and water for the day,” De Klerk added.

24/7 Security at Paul Bodenstein Park

Rustenburg – The Paul Bodenstein Park, or affectionately called the ‘Voëltjie Park’ by Rustenburg community members old enough to remember, is in a state.

In an interview with the Platinum Weekly newspaper early October, Thapelo Matebesi, communications manager at Rustenburg Local Municipality (RLM) said: “We will attend to the situation and are amidst a process to hire a security company to monitor and guard the park 24/7. We believe this will help keep the park clean and keep unwanted elements at bay.”

The park is regularly vandalised. About three weeks ago, many palisades were removed by vandals leaving the park open.
