

RHS WEN GOUD!

Rustenburg – Die Hoërskool Rustenburg het deelgeneem aan NASP (National Archery in the Schools Programme) se nasionale kampioenskappe vanaf 5-6 Oktober. Hierdie kampioenskappe het in Uitenhage plaasgevind en 42 skuts van die Hoërskool Rustenburg is verantwoordelik vir die goue toekennings vir die Bulls-eye, 3D- en die Geesbeker-kompetisie wat nou teen die hange van Magalies pronk. Baie geluk aan al die skuts wat deelgeneem het. Baie dankie aan die ouers vir hul bydrae en borge om die toer moontlik te maak vir die skuts. Op 4 Oktober het 10 van Hoërskool Rustenburg se skuts ook deelgeneem in die interprovinsiale span wat die Bulls-eye kompetisie gewen het.

SJ Nel van Hoërskool Rustenburg het die NASP SA-toekenning ontvang vir die skut wat die meeste gedoen het vir NASP SA in 2017.

Hoërskool Rustenburg se A-span wen die trofee vir die beste senior span in die Bulls-eye afdeling. Platinum Stars bounce back Rustenburg/Phokeng – Platinum Stars managed to secure a 1-1 draw against Orlando Pirates on Wednesday, 18 October at Orlando Stadium in Soweto. Dikwena's improvement is remarkable despite their winless run in the Absa Premiership. The Pirates lead lasted only two minutes as striker Bonginkosi Ntuli on loan from Sundown's levelled matters for Dikwena with a fine strike inside the box. Platinum Stars face Free State Stars away from home on Saturday, 21 October at Goble Park Stadium. Says Roger De Sa, Platinum Stars coach: "It was good to see the guys bounce back. We cannot as a team be happy with a draw. We need a win."

Enter Leon's Motors Kettle Cup

Wining Under 23's; the under 23 winning team from Gauteng North.

Wheelchair Basketball winners

North West Province – The North West Province is proud to boast of the Women's and Senior men's Wheelchair Basketball team's accomplishments at the South African Wheelchair Basketball Challenge held at the Vodacom Indoor Sports Centre in Bezuidenhout Valley on Saturday, 14 October. The finals were the culmination of another thrilling season of domestic wheelchair basketball. The closely contested men's final saw the North West lead the first quarter by only 3 points. A strong second quarter from Gauteng North saw the team's level at 18-all at halftime. The third quarter proved decisive as the North West opened up a 15 point lead. Gauteng fought back in the final quarter but left them with four point's short, ending with a score of 48-44 to win the R100 000 prize money. Gauteng North's comeback saw Daniel Mhaka named as man of the match. The women's final, Kwan-Zulu Natal's Dude

Gaza did her best to keep her team in contention, but ultimately it was the better work of the North West that gave them the edge, with a score of 29-14 to win the prize money of R50 000. The u/23 title was won by Gauteng as they beat Kwan-Zulu Natal 32-24, with Gauteng's Kwanza Kahoka one of the standout performers as he guided his team to the R50 000 first place cheque. Says Michelle van Eden, executive head for Vodacom sponsorship: "Vodacom has been a proud sponsor of Wheelchair Basketball for the past 18 years. Supporting the development of sport codes such as wheelchair basketball in the country remains our priority." Says Charles Saunders, CEO of Wheelchair Basketball South Africa: "We are delighted with the commitment shown by Vodacom in support of wheelchair basketball in the country. We could not have asked for a better partner for our sport."

The winning teams: North West ladies and North West Senior men's South African Wheelchair Basketball teams.

Curriebeker 2017

Blou Bulle vs Pumas
Op Fort Loftus speel die Bulle puik ruggas met Warrick Gelant op sy stukke. Die Bulle wen gemaklik 52-32 en dring so dan deur na die semi-finaal teen die WP op Nuweland. Daar is 'n duidelik teken van verandering in die Bloues se spel onder leiding van John Mitchell.

Sharks vs WP
In die Haaitenk verloor die Haaie 31-20 teen die WP en duisende Haaie ondersteuners moes baie teleurgesteld huiswaarts keer. Die enigste troos is darem dat die Haaie alreeds vir 'n semi-finaal tuis gekwalifiseer het en draf teen die omgekrapte Blou Bulle uit. Die Haaie se ondergang was die puik spel van die losskakel Robert du Preez, seun van die Haaie se coach, wat 21 van die WP se punte aanteken het.

Goue Leeus vs Cheetahs
In Jo'burg brul die Leeu weer hard en die 2016 Curriebeker kampioen word uit die kompetisie gestamp. Die Leeus het puik rugby opgedis en wen 44-17. Met die Bokke terug in die Leeukamp is die Leeus weer 'n baie gevaarlike span wat teen die WP Saterdag in die een semi-finaal gaan uitdraf op Nuweland. Die half afgewaterde Curriebeker het skielik weer 'n opwindende met die semi-finale ou grote. Nou is dit reg of weg!

Nag ou grote...
