AfriForum Rustenburg's REST IN PEACE campaign

Rustenburg – Rustenburg is rich in its heritage. Our Rustenburg is seated at the foot of the Magaliesberg mountain range and was established in 1851 when Andries Pretorius dubbed his destination Rustenburg, meaning a place of rest. Since then many souls have passed on and rest in cemeteries.

Renowned artist Bill McGill from Rustenburg saw it fit to create an artwork and present it to AfriForum Rustenburg, thanking them for their selfless act. On Wednesday, 25 October, McGill presented them with a canvas of the very same chapel in the cemetery – in its glorious historical form – as a reminder of Rustenburg's heritage.
