Rustenburg – Ford Rustenburg hosted a Driver Skills for Life (DSFL) course at the Rustenburg Airfield on Saturday, 14 October.

Ford presents this course for newly-licensed drivers to enhance the skills of inexperienced drivers. Instructors covered many instances that a new driver might find themselves faced with... vehicle handling, hazard recognition, avoidance of distractions and sensory impairment. Participants received certificates at the end of the course.

Says Divan Vosloo, marketing manager at Leon's Rustenburg: "We had no less than 96 participants on the day. The DSFL is held on a regular basis and the next course will be held early in the New Year."

Says Sherry Dwyer, parent and participant of DSFL: "This event is essential and beneficial to the youth. I am thrilled that my daughter, Hannah, attended this well-organised event. Thank you to Divan and the team!"
