Plaasaanval te Koster

Koster/ Derby – “Roedolf van Wyk (69) is oorrompel deur drie plaasaanvallers omstreeks middernag Saterdagand/ Sondagoggend, 5 November,” aldus kaptein Elsabé Augoustides, polisiewoordvoerder.

Hy het gesit en televisie kyk toe hy stemme buite hoor. Kort voor lank was die aanvallers in Van Wyk se sitkamer. Hy is sleg aangerand en twee keer geskiet, in sy regterhand en linkerarm soos hy probeer het om die aanvallers af te weer.

Van Wyk sterk aan in die hospitaal.

Die verdagtes het 'n 40-duim televisie, vleis en kruideniersware gebuit asook Van Wyk se silwer Nissan Navara bakkie (registrasie plate: JTV 804 NW).

Die aanval het plaasgevind by Vlakhoek, in die Koster stasiewyk naby Derby.

Die Polisie is tans opsoek na die drie aanvallers.

Fuel more expensive in November

Across-the-board losses from the exchange rate are set to hit fuel consumers. This is according to the Automobile Association (AA), commenting on unaudited month-end fuel price data released by the Central Energy Fund (CEF).

“The landed price of petrol actually dropped by around 18 cents a litre in October, while the landed price of diesel showed a slight increase of five cents,” the AA said. “But the Rand slipped around 22 cents to the US dollar, meaning all grades of fuel will be more expensive in November.”

Petrol will rise a modest four cents a litre, but diesel users will pay up to 26 cents more, with illuminating paraffin set to rise by 18 cents.

“Fuel prices have not yet felt the full effect of the Rand’s weakening in the wake of finance minister Malusi Gigaba’s medium term budget policy statement,” the AA comments.

“We expect that impact to immediately start feeding into calculations, meaning South Africans should prepare for further fuel price hikes before Christmas,” the Association concludes.
