The end of TKO journey for Dikwena

Rustenburg/ Phokeng – Bloemfontein Celtic secured their spot in the Telkom Knockout semi-finals, after defeating Dikwena 2-1 on Saturday afternoon, 4 November at Royal Bafokeng Stadium. Platinum Stars experienced a loss in the Telkom Knockout quarterfinals when they lost to Bloemfontein Celtics playing at home. With the advantage of scoring first in the 29th minute of the first half through phenomenal striker Bonginkosi Ntuli, Stars was unable to hang on to the lead and pressure from Celtics as Phalane levelled them just ten minutes into the second half with a super strike from a direct free-kick on the edge of the box.

The crowd support at the Royal Bafokeng Stadium was not that appealing, both for the home team and visitors, but the visitors kept on putting pressure up until the 80th minute of the game when Tshegofatso Mabaso gave Jelusic's troops a winning goal from a good flowing attack that was initiated by Kabelo Mahlasela.

Dikwena face Bloemfontein Celtics again in the Absa Premiership on 21 November. This will give them enough time to relook their strategy and point out mistakes.

Let's show support to our home team, Platinum Stars!

[Letter to the Editor]

Rustenburg/ Phokeng – Platinum Stars recorded their first victory of the season after Vuyo Mere's solitary goal sunk Ajax Cape Town on 1 November, ever since the PSL season for 2017/2018 began. The team is not doing well in the league, but the concern is its lack of support. Even when playing at home at the Royal Bafokeng Stadium in Moruleng, the chairs are empty in the stadium... As a proud member of the Platinum Stars, the only team that represent the North West Province in the South African Premier Soccer League, I urge people especially in Rustenburg and surrounding areas... Let us go to the stadium to show our support to Dikwena.

This will motivate our players. I am concerned that the team might be relegated at the end of the season 2017/2018, but with our support, I believe the guys will do better. Dikwena will take Bloemfontein Celtics on in a home match at the Royal Bafokeng Stadium on 21 November. I will be there, and hope you will be too. Irrespective of the big teams you support, Platinum Stars is the son of our soil. Let's give it that support and encouragement – especially in home matches. Proud Platinum Stars supporter
