

Rustenburg, drugs and gun bust

Rustenburg – The Rustenburg Police successfully busted two alleged drug dealers and a person for the possession of an unlicensed firearm.

"The Police's cluster crime combating unit (CCU) arrested two suspects in the Bokamoso informal settlement near Bleskop," says sergeant Ofentse Mokgadi, police spokesperson. A 28-year old man was arrested for selling small bags filled with dagga ("bankies"), and a 32-year old woman, who was found in the possession of 13kg worth of dagga at her house.

The Police followed the information trail, which led them to Mfidikoe village where they arrested a 33-year old Ethiopian national shopkeeper for the possession of an unlicensed firearm and four live rounds.

The suspects appeared before the Rustenburg Magistrates' Court on Friday, 17 November. The Rustenburg cluster commander general Arthur Adams commended the Police members for their swift reaction.

Five girls, aged 12 to 21 years, rescued from brothels in Rustenburg

Rustenburg – A 17-year old girl was rescued from a brothel in Rustenburg on Friday, 17 November.

Members of the Rustenburg Local Municipality (RLM) in cooperation with the Police and other departments removed the girl and returned her to her family.

"We must continue to raise awareness about human trafficking and drug abuse in our city," says councillor Mpho Khunou, mayor of Rustenburg. "Brothels presented as guest houses are mushrooming in Rustenburg. We will not stop until we have eradicated human trafficking and drug abuse in Rustenburg. We have issued notices and two of the buildings will be demolished."

In the joint special operation in Rustenburg East on 17 November, another four girls were rescued (three black girls aged between 18-21, and one white girl, aged 12 years).
