

PUBLIC MEETING

Rustenburg – The Democratic Alliance (DA) will host a public meeting at the WA van Zyl Hall on Tuesday, 5 December at 18h00.

"We will be discussing the possibility of developing the area from Kremetart Street, Protea Park to the Cultural Centre with various stakeholders. The area would be perfect for a park run and a safe specialised cycling route," says Cheryll Phillips, ward councillor. "We invite members of the community to attend this meeting, all ideas and proposals will be discussed."

MASKED MERRIMENT

Rustenburg – On Saturday, 18 November, High Quality Sound Productions together with Bondesio Couture hosted a fundraising masquerade ball at the Rustenburg Civic Centre. Funds raised were donated to the Ample Gospel Ministry Band.

A night of glitz and glamour was enjoyed by all. Guests were invited to take part in a murder mystery game. Mr and Mrs Bunco were announced; prizes for the best dressed couple and best decorated table were up for grabs. Guests were entertained with a dance number by Michelle and her husband Stephen of Michelle School of Dance.

Mystery and more... From left: Pierre Nel Jnr and Naomi Nel

The organisers would like to extend a warm thank you to everyone who had a hand in making this night a success.

Masked mystery... From left: Sarie Nel and Pierre Nel

ORBIT TVET COLLEGE NOTICE TO ALL SUPPLIERS

ORBIT TVET College is committed to increasing the degree of compliance with Supply Chain Management prescripts and ensuring that persons conducting or intending to conduct business with the College are afforded no scope to abuse the Supply Chain Management system.

It is therefore essential to ensure that persons conducting business with the College are tax compliant at the awarding of price quotations or competitive bids as no price quotations or competitive bids may be awarded to persons who are not tax compliant.

The South African Revenue Service introduced an enhanced tax compliance status system on eFiling aimed at improving tax compliance and making it easier for tax payers to manage their tax affairs.

The South African Revenue Service no longer issues tax clearance certificates.

As from the 1st of January 2018, the College will request a supplier to provide tax compliance status Pin for the College to utilize in order to verify the supplier/bidder's tax compliance status. The tax compliance status screen shot or letter with the result of the bidder/supplier's status at the date and time of verification will be printed and filed with the bidder/supplier's documents for audit purposes.

Should you need further clarity, please contact the Supply Chain Manager on 014 597 5515 or Senior Supply Chain Officer on 014 597 5524.

Ladies of mystery... From left: Gussie Cilliers, Mariëtte van Zyl and Ansie van Zyl.

Nes jou ma se liefde,
so ook hoef jy nie te betaal
om jou gemeenskapsnuus te lees nie.

Just like mom's love, you don't have to pay for your community news.

Platinum Weekly koerant/ newspaper

PLATINUM
Weekblad/ Weekly