FARM ATTACK IN SWARTRUGGENS

Swartruggens – In yet another farm attack, this time at the farm Twee Riviere in Swartruggens, an aged man was overpowered in his house on Saturday, 2 December.

Three suspects gained entry into the house of EJK Goetsch (83) at around 22h00. Goetsch was tied up and held at gunpoint.

The suspects demanded valuables and got away with a great number of household items, a cell phone and a white double cab Colt bakkie, registration number, FGY 620 NW. Says sergeant Kelebogile Moleko, police spokesperson: "Thus far, no suspects have been arrested and the investigation is on-going."

Elderly couple mugged in midtown

Rustenburg – Just after attending a church service on Sunday, 3 December, an elderly couple from Rustenburg's East End stopped at the Post Office in the central business district (CBD).

When Rudess Pretorius (aged 70) parked their vehicle, Gerhard Pretorius (her husband, 77) was getting out of the vehicle, and was overpowered by no less than three unknown men. Beating the old man in an effort to rid him of his belongings, another group of assailants opened the driver side door and went on to rip the jewellery off of Pretorius's neck and arms, escaping with her handbag and other belongings. The couple sustained a number of injuries and were left traumatised. The incident has been reported to the Police.

Says Gerhard Pretorius: "I would urge the aged and elderly to avoid the CBD at all costs, the aged are an easy target for these criminals. Be aware of your surroundings at all times."
