

UGLY SCENES OF MOB VIOLENCE

Rustenburg – The ugly face of mob justice reared its head in Rustenburg with the burning of a Nigerian national on Saturday, 21 April.

According to police, the Nigerian national was chased by a mob, caught and burnt alive following skirmishes in Bethlehem Street in the central business district. Police spokesperson lieutenant Ofentse Mokgadi said that, allegedly, the mob wanted to forcefully enter a tavern owned by foreign nationals but were blocked by security. "During this process they burnt a car near the tavern that is alleged to belong to a foreign national. Luckily there was no one in the car. When the mob could not enter the tavern, they moved on to a bottle store belonging to another foreign national near the tavern," lieutenant Mokgadi said.

"The mob looted the shop and tried to burn it down but did not succeed. The owner ran away and met two police men who tried to help him fight off the mob.

However, they were outnumbered and in the process the owner who tried to run away was caught by the mob and burnt alive," Mokgadi said. No arrests have been made and a case of murder and public violence is being investigated.

One of the vehicles torched.

DOORNHOEK ROBBERY

Koster/ Swartruggens – On Monday 21 April, three suspects invaded a smallholding in Doornpoort, between Koster and Swartruggens under the pretext of wanting to buy a cow.

According to captain Elsabé Augoustides, police spokesperson, one of the suspects approached a domestic worker who was busy with the laundry. Two more suspects appeared at the scene. They claimed they wanted to buy a cow and then overpowered the women, tied her up and ransacked the house. Among other things, the suspects stole electrical appliances and fled the scene. Police are investigating a case of robbery.

BOSHOEK FARM ATTACK

In the early hours of Monday morning, on 21 April, the family of Johannes Scheepers was attacked on their farm near Boshhoek by three robbers, of whom one had a firearm.

The Scheepers family was tied with socks and their 15-year old teenager was forced to open a safe containing weapons.

Two rifles, jewellery, cell phones and cash were taken by the robbers.

Police are investigating the farm attack.
