

UNATHI CROWNED MRS AFRICA GLOBAL UNITED 2019

Hartbeespoort – A mother of two boys, Unathi Nare is a beauty with a heart of gold from Kanana village.

She was crowned Mrs Africa Global United 2019, on 1 December at Buffelspoort Lodge in Hartbeespoort. She is set to take to the stage in the USA in July 2019 during the Mrs Global United beauty pageant. Africa Global United pageants are made to uplift, empower and inspire women to reach their full potential and do things to the best of their abilities within their communities.

When asked about her experience, she responded: "Throughout this journey I am privileged to have met so many great people and no matter where life takes me, I will always live by the following words: No one stands alone!"

AN EXCITING YEAR AHEAD FOR COLLEGE LEADERSHIP

Rustenburg – To conclude the 2018 academic year, the acting regional manager of the North West and Mpumalanga region, together with college council chairpersons and principals from the technical and vocational education and training (TVET) and common entrance test (CET) college sector, held a meeting on 6 December in Standerton. The purpose of the meeting was to reflect on the achievements and progress made in 2018 while also mapping out plans for 2019. A state-of-readiness report was presented by the acting regional manager for Mpumalanga and North West acting regional manager, Nick Balkrishen, who emphasised that the priorities for 2019 will include student access and students' performance. He also highlighted the critical importance of building partnerships with potential stakeholders for the success of colleges.
