

Police seizes 24,000 rounds of ammunition

Reloader equipment.

Ammunition found at the suspect's home.

A wide variety of ammunition in die suspect's possession.

Brits – On Thursday 7 February at about 11:00, the Brits Trio Task Team arrested a 52-year old suspect for the illegal possession of firearms and ammunition. According to police spokesperson Colonel Adèle Myburgh, the police acted on a tip-off and searched the suspect's rented house on a smallholding in Mamogalieskraal outside Brits. During the search at the suspect's house, the police found and seized close to 24,000 rounds ammunition of various calibres, five firearms of which three were unlicensed, and four self-made firearms. Investigations led the police to a secondary location, a flat owned by the suspect in Silverton, Pretoria, where the following items were confiscated: re-loader equipment, different calibre bullet heads, 400 rounds of ammunition, 1000 empty cartridges and gun powder. The suspect appeared before the Brits Magistrates' Court on Friday 8 February for the illegal possession of firearms and ammunition. He will re-appear before the same court soon, but remains in custody.
