

BEHIND THE LENS WITH ALBERT FRONEMAN

Rustenburg – Bird and wildlife photography enthusiasts flocked together during BirdLife Rustenburg's monthly meeting on Monday 15 July.

Albert Froneman shared some bird photography tips and tricks. For the past 30 years, Albert has mastered the art of bird photography and is acknowledged as one of the leading bird photographers in southern Africa. Beautiful images of birds play a vital role in creating awareness for various bird conservation projects and in this spirit, Albert works closely with BirdLife South Africa.

During the talk, Albert shared interesting facts about the birds, their conservation status and also provided some tips, tricks and field techniques used to capture the images. Albert is based in Johannesburg and when not behind the camera, he works as a specialist environmental consultant assessing the impacts of various developments on birds. Feel free to contact BirdLife Rustenburg's chairperson, Shaun McGillewie, on 083 702 1462. If you need help with the identification of a bird, please send a picture!
