MANDELA MONTH – MAKE A DIFFERENCE!

Rustenburg – Grace Help Centre wishes to extend their heartfelt appreciation to each and every person who was part of Mandela Day 2019 at Grace Help Centre. “Your act of kindness made a lasting positive difference in the lives of each little one in our care,” said Rina van der Berg. There are still a few pressing needs, that Grace Help Centre would truly appreciate – school uniforms and stationery for the children. They also need baby essentials donations that include nappies sizes three to five, lactogen one and two as well as fresh fruit and vegetables. For any enquiries regarding employee volunteer days or corporate social investments in the center, contact Rina van der Berg on 072 348 6526 or gracecentre@gmail.com.

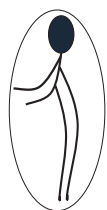

PAVING THE WAY TO CHRIST CRISIS CENTRE

Swartruggens – Pastor Venessa Janse van Rensburg is deeply inspired to better the lives of abused women and children. Through the efforts of a company based in Holland, called SHIB, they will build a centre in Swartruggens – the Christ Crisis Centre. The centre will be a safe haven for abused and neglected kids and women. Counselling, food and shelter will be provided to the victims that takes refuge at the centre. Venessa describes this centre as a safety net that catches abused individuals and give them a place to live while they start the healing process, both physically and emotionally. “I believe the Lord put me here to help guide people,” Venessa said in an interview with Platinum Weekly. SHIB volunteers will arrive in South Africa on 2 August to pave the way forward. “We heavily rely on donations. If you can assist in any way – we would be most grateful,” said Venessa. For more information contact pastor Venessa on 071 841 4656.
