DARREN ARCHER DOES IT AGAIN!

Darren Archer

Rustenburg – Our very own Darren Archer entered the Mr Deaf South Africa (MDSA) pageant for a third time.

The 2019 pageant week was held at Hartbeespoort and Pretoria and the gala evening was held on 31 August at Lyric theatre at Gold Reef City, Johannesburg. He walked away as the second runner up for Mr Deaf South Africa 2019 and took the title of best public choice and best social media marketing for tourism.

“I am so proud to have won the social media award because I was the first winner in MDSA History to receive this award and beat the other 27 finalists. I was surprised when my name was announced, and it was unexpected. I felt honored to do it for Tourism Friendly,” Darren said in an interview with Platinum Weekly.

WANTED: VOLUNTEERS

Rustenburg – Hospice Rustenburg is urgently looking for volunteers to assist with their rags-project at 4 Boshoff street.

A SMALL GIFT FOR CHRISTMAS

Rustenburg – The Rustenburg East End Christmas team gives surprise packets to the children of East End every Christmas.

Last year they doubled the number of gifts given and it still wasn't enough for every child. This year they hope to give a present to every child.

To make a complete packet they will need small presents for either a boy or a girl, sweets and a small packet of chips. Handmade presents are also welcome. Please do not wrap the gifts as members of the team will supply the gift-wrapping paper so that all presents can be colour coded by gender. You are welcome to add a personalised message to the gifts for the children.

Santa Clause will deliver the gifts on 23 December in East End.

All contributions can be dropped off at 27A Joubert street. For more information contact Democratic Alliance (DA) councillor for ward 18 Martha Lerm on 079 110 2087.
