

OH FLOCK!

COP ARRESTED FOR STOLEN SHEEP

Brits – A 35-year-old police officer appeared before the Brits Magistrates' Court on Thursday 12 September following her arrest two days earlier in connection with allegations of stock theft.

Beatrice Mopai, who was nabbed after four sheep believed to have been stolen were found in her possession, is out on R1,000 bail.

It is alleged that members of the Sonop community near Brits spotted the sheep inside Beatrice's kraal and alerted the police, who were investigating a case of stock theft. "She failed to explain how she acquired the livestock and was arrested," police spokesperson lieutenant colonel Amanda Funani said. The suspect will make her second court appearance on Friday 4 October.
