

MAN ACCUSED OF SEXUALLY ASSAULTING 15 BOYS

Brits – On Monday 11 November, a 55-year old man appeared before the Brits Magistrates' Court to answer to 15 counts of sexual assault. The man was arrested in Bethanie near Brits on Friday 8 November after one of the boys he had assaulted made a report to community policing forum (CPF) authorities during a school safety session. Investigations later revealed the man had allegedly sexually assaulted young boys with ages ranging from 7 to 11 years.

Police spokesperson brigadier Sabata Mokgwabone said: "It is alleged that as part of committing these hideous acts, the accused lured the victims to his place and offered them money."

The suspect is due to make his second court appearance on Wednesday 20 November. Police are still carrying out further investigations.

Lieutenant general Baile Motswenyane, the provincial police commissioner for North West, condemned the incident. She also thanked the CPF members for exposing and apprehending the suspect.

FOUR LIONS POISONED

Hartbeespoortdam – On Wednesday 6 November, employees at a local lion park made a gruesome discovery. Four of their lions were poisoned during the night and died.

According to police spokesperson lieutenant colonel Amanda Funani, no arrests have been made. The police are investigating a case of animal cruelty and damage to property.

57 of the National Environmental Management Biodiversity Act 10/2004.

Police spokesperson sergeant Ofentse Mokgadi said the suspects were apprehended during an intelligence-driven operation that involved personnel from the North West Parks Board, Black Rhino Game Reserve and African Pangolin Working Group. "The suspects were arrested near the mall on the R24," he added.

Meanwhile, police are investigating a case in which a rhino bull was dehorned and killed by poachers. The dehorned carcass of the animal was discovered by rangers at Pilanesberg Game Reserve on Saturday 9 November. "We appeal to members of the community who may have information relating to this incident, to please come forward," Ofenste said.

If you have any information, you are requested to call the police crime stop number 08600 10111.

This pangolin was rescued by the police.

FOUR ARRESTED FOR PANGOLIN POSSESSION

Rustenburg – Four suspects were arrested by the police for the illegal possession of a pangolin on Sunday 10 November as they were attempting to sell the endangered animal to a prospective buyer. The suspects, aged 30 to 53, appeared before the Rustenburg Magistrates' Court.
