BREAK THE SILENCE!

Rustenburg – The 16 Days of Activism for No Violence Against Women and Children campaign runs annually from 25 November to 10 December. To show their support for the campaign, the South African Police Service (SAPS) arranged a march through the streets of Rustenburg on Wednesday 27 November. Concerned citizens gathered at the Rustenburg Taxi Rank to where the march commenced, showing their commitment to break the cycle of violence. Activists chanted: “Men need to know that no means no... every time!” as they walked the route past the Rustenburg Local Municipality and back to the taxi rank. Phokeng Trauma Centre sponsored t-shirts saying Eish... Am I next?
