A BUSY FEBRUARY FOR LOCAL CYCLISTS

Rustenburg – The month of February is turning out to be a very busy one for Rustenburg Cycling Club (RCC) members, who always enjoy good exercise and pitting their strength and endurance against other competitors. RCC was well represented during the South African National Road Championships, held from Wednesday 5 to Sunday 9 February at the Swadini, A Forever Resort in Mpumalanga. Andries Scheepers did exceptionally well and put the RCC in the limelight by finishing first in his category. Hennie Fourie, another RCC member, managed a commendable sixth position. Special mention goes to RCC chairman Gregg Taylor for driving all the way to Swadini to support our local cyclists. Young local cyclists were also in Mpumalanga on 15 February to take part in the SA XCO mountain bike race. The RCC juniors who travelled all the way to Mankle for the race enjoyed themselves and performed very well. Caitlin Thompson emerged as the winner in the female juniors, while Antonie Lit finished 12th in the male juniors. Henrique Vos also put in a commendable effort to finish 17th in the male juniors category. Linel Engebrecht and Geane Engelbrecht finished second and third respectively in the female juniors section. On 16 February, RCC members were at the Boksburg Stadium in Gauteng to compete in the Dischem Ride For Sight Road Challenge. Gerrie Koekemoer, Benita Koekemoer, Johan Hattingh and Phillip Steyn were up to the task of taking part in the gruelling 116km race.
