

SSR STILL STANDING STRONG

Rustenburg – Staam Saam Rustenburg Community Watch started as a normal neighbourhood watch. After the strikes in 2012, the need for the community to stand together was greater than ever before. Since then, Staam Saam Rustenburg (SSR) grew to what it is known as today. Naomi Pasino, the driving force behind SSR sadly passed away in 2019, but her amazing team is still carrying on her legacy by helping those in need. SSR focuses on their immediate environment, Rustenburg. They ensure a safer and better place by means of patrols done in neighbourhoods and to aid families in the form of food and clothing. The organisation currently cares for about 3,000 people with food parcels and clothes on a monthly basis. They also recently ‘adopted’ 10 elderly residents of Gerrie Rus. These residents are aged 73 to 83 and SSR ensures that they are well taken care off by providing the necessities like food and sometimes just good company.

The famous Staam Saam Huis is never quiet and there is a constant flow of people that need help. SSR relies solely on donations. Items that cannot be given to those in need are sold to make money to pay the rent for the Staam Saam Huis or to buy more food. For more information contact Juanita Pasino Louw on 083 444 6391 or Cathy Swanepoel on 065 534 7996. You can also visit the Staam Saam Huis at 80 Bethlehem Drive, Rustenburg.
