HEALTHY...

TEACHING - FARMING - EATING

Rustenburg - It's been almost a year since Mrs Lamar Winter officially became the principal of Rustenburg Skool vir Buitengewone Onderwys and many new projects are well on their way. The food tunnel is not only helping to provide organic vegetables to the school community, it is also a place where children learn about growing vegetables and herbs and using red wiggler earthworms to nourish the soil. The raised boxes allow learners in wheelchairs to easily plant seedlings and remove weeds. The youngsters enjoy working in the garden and have great pleasure in reaping the fruits of their labour. Due to COVID-19, the school can only host one fundraiser this year and decided to not only raise funds, but to also raise awareness about foetal alcohol syndrome (FAS) on Thursday 15 October. They will distribute leaflets, posters, and wear their awareness stickers and funky socks. Show your support by purchasing a sticker and flaunting your funky socks. According to the World Health Organization, the prevalence of FAS in South Africa is the highest in the world. The damage caused by consuming alcohol while pregnant is permanent, irreversible, and preventable - so help to spread the word.

JOBSEEKERS, BEWARE OF SCAMS! [Letter to the Editor]

SA – To all fellow jobseekers out there... be warned! I almost fell victim to a job scam on Tuesday 15 September. I found an email address for a local mine where I could apply for vacancies available. I excitedly submitted my CV. After a few days, I phoned the number that was listed with the email address to find out if they received my CV. A man answered the phone and told me that they indeed did receive my CV and invited me for an interview the following day. He informed me that I will have an interview with the manager and that he will send me the location. Later he sent me medical forms to fill in, which I did. I was instructed to send the completed forms via WhatsApp and he gave me another email address where I needed to send the forms. The next day I phoned him to find out what the location was as I had not yet received it. He remarked bringing a drink with and I offered to bring him a Coke. He then asked me if I know what a Coke costs and I jokingly asked how much. I was shocked when he told me R1,200. This is when I suspected that something was not right and requested him to send me the details of the manager that I will have the interview with.

Later, another person phoned me and informed me that he is the manager and that I will have to pay over R1,560 to secure the job. He also wanted to know what my physical address was and when I asked why, he dropped the phone. At that moment I realised that it was a scam. I googled the company where I 'applied' and their recruitment agent informed me that they are investigating these scams and for that reason, they only take online CV submissions. The worst part is that for a moment I was desperate enough to almost pay over the money. I desperately need a job. I am also very worried that I filled in all the forms which means that they have access to all my personal information. There are so many others like me that might fall victim to these scam artists so I would like to urge all jobseekers to trust your gut and do your research. A simple internet search can show you if a company exists. If something is too good to be true... it usually is. No company will ever require you to make any payments at any point in the recruitment process. Ever!

FARMWORKERS ATTACKED

Hartbeespoort – The Police are investigating three cases in which farmworkers were brutally attacked on Monday 14 September. The first incident happened at around 21:05 on a smallholding in the Skeerpoort area. A husband and wife were sleeping when they heard a window break and a person shouting that they should come outside. The husband went to investigate when he heard a second window break and the next moment bullets started flying. The man was shot several times. Upon hearing the shots, the owner of the farm immediately summoned for help and the attackers fled the scene. Police spokesperson Colonel Adele Myburgh confirmed that a case of attempted murder is being investigated. A few hours after the first incident at around 23:00, a woman and her son were asleep when they heard someone knocking on the door. The person was looking for someone unknown to them.

According to colonel Adele the three men, one armed with a firearm and one with a knife, tried to break down the door. The woman was assaulted before the suspects fled the scene with an undisclosed amount of cash and her cellphone. Shortly after the second attack at 23:05, a 30-year-old man living on the same farm woke up after hearing someone on his roof. The next moment he saw a hand pointing a gun at him through an opening in the roof. The armed assailant demanded that the man open the door to give access to the other attackers. The victim was assaulted, and the attackers fled the scene with cash, a cellphone and clothes. No arrest has been made at the time of going to print.

FIREARM AMNESTY EXTENDED

South Africa – The firearm amnesty has been extended to 31 January 2020. All illegal and unwanted firearms, firearm parts and ammunition can be surrendered without fear of prosecution. The police would like to urge people to hand in their firearms as soon as possible and not wait until the last minute.

TWO RAPISTS IN POLICE CUSTODY

Brits/ Mooinooi – A 31-year-old man appeared before the Brits Magistrates' Court on Tuesday 15 September in connection with the alleged rape of a 13-year-old boy and will remain in custody until his next court appearance on Tuesday 22 September. The suspect's court appearance emanated from his arrest on 13 September by Makau Police. According to reports received, the victim arrived home late on Friday night, 11 September. The mother, who was not pleased about him coming late, asked him where he was coming from. According to police spokesperson colonel Adele Myburgh, the boy allegedly confided in his mother – that he has been raped by the suspect several times since December 2019 and threatened to kill him if he tells anyone about the incident.

The mother reported the matter to the police.

In another incident, a 34-year-old man appeared before the Brits Magistrates' Court on 14 September for allegedly raping a four-year-old girl in Mooinooi on 12 September.

"According to information at our disposal, the victim's father and mother left the four-year-old with the suspect, who is known to the family, as they went to drop off their nephew who was visiting them," colonel Adele said.

On their return, the parents found the victim sitting with the suspect drinking tea. It is alleged that the little girl then told her mother what happened. The child was taken to the clinic where the rape was confirmed. The police were alerted, and the suspect was arrested at his residence on 13 September. The suspect will remain in custody until his second court appearance on 29 September. The North West provincial commissioner, lieutenant general Sello Kwena, applauded the Brits Family Violence, Child Protection and Sexual Offences Unit for the arrests. He said that the police will not hesitate to make sure that those who perpetrate violence against women and children are brought to book to face the full might of the law.

NO BAIL FOR TWO ARRESTED OVER PANGOLIN

Brits – Two of the three suspects arrested after failing to explain why they had a pangolin in their possession, were denied bail when they appeared before the Brits Magistrates' Court on Monday 14 September. Weedwell Manzanga and Polite Nyaromba were remanded in custody while the third suspect, Mashudu Mphasomani, was granted bail of R1,000. Manzanga, Nyaromba and Mphasomani are due to appear before the same court again on Tuesday 22 September to answer to charges of contravening the National Environmental Management: Biodiversity Act of 2004. Police spokesperson Maria Nkabinde confirmed the three were arrested on Friday 11 September at around 12:30 after law enforcement agents responsible for combatting illegal trade of wildlife and endangered species received a tip-off about a possible pangolin sale.

"A multi-disciplinary team comprising personnel from the Jericho Stock Theft Unit, Bojanala Sub-District 1 Trio Crimes Task Team, Crime Intelligence as well as officials from Nature Conservation acted swiftly and intercepted the trio, who were driving in a white Volkswagen Jetta," Nkabinde said.

Three suspects were caught in possession of a pangolin.

PUBLIC SWIMMING POOLS NOT YET OPEN

Rustenburg – If you were intending to cool off in any of the public swimming pools during September, you will have to put your plans on hold... for now. According to Rustenburg Local Municipality (RLM), all public swimming pools will only be open for use by community members after undergoing thorough health assessments. Usually, the opening of public swimming pools coincides with the beginning of spring each year. However, RLM spokesperson David Magae pointed out that the local government body has adopted a very cautious and measured approach this time around because of the threat being posed by COVID-19. "The RLM will communicate officially to residents when the facilities will be opened. With the advent of COVID-19, there are extra health precautions that need to be considered before the facilities can be opened for public use. At all times, the municipality needs to ensure that all its operations comply with the gazetted regulations. As such, we would not want to rush into opening the swimming pools, without having assessed the requirements in relation to the regulations as well as the health of our people which is of paramount importance."

All public swimming pools are still closed.

SPERTYD VERLENG VIR VIRTUELE KOOR WAT HOOP SKEP VIR SUID-AFRIKA

SA - Die Hoop Ongegrensd koorproduksie het reeds meer as 160 geregistreerde koorlede wat besig is met afronding en opnames. "Ons is opgewonde oor al die registrasies en die video's wat ons ontvang het en sien regtig uit na die finale produk," sê ds. Henning Dafel, die organiseerder. "Daar is nou maar net iets spesiaal wat gebeur wanneer 'n klomp gewone stemme saamgemeng word tot 'n groot geheel. Ons vind dat van die koorlede twyfel wanneer hulle net hulle eie stemme se opnames hoor, maar sodra ons die stemme meng breek die mooiste koorklank deur!"

Verskeie bekende, gesoute en professionele sangers soos Alida Stoman, Franzel de Wet, Elme Churr, Soané Ludick, Melindie Pretorius en Rudi Muller het reeds ook hulle deelname bevestig. Soané is 'n lid van die Noordwes Universiteit se koor en 'n ou hand met virtuele koorproduksies. Sy gee op die webblad ook raad vir opnames.

Die duo van Bo-Produksies, Olga en Babette, wat gereeld optree by groot kunstefeeste en afgesien van sang ook verskeie musiekinstrumente soos die trekklavier bespeel, het ook hulle deelname aangekondig. Die organiseerders het verder besluit om die spertyd vir opnames te verleng tot 12 Oktober sodat deelnemers hulle stukke verder kan inoefen en afrond voordat hulle dit opneem. Dit beteken dan ook dat mense steeds kan registreer. Met dié virtuele koorproduksie kan enige persoon wat daarvan hou om te sing, deel van die virtuele koor vorm. Die finale produk sal tussen 16 en 21 Desember op die Dapper Media platform gestroom word. Deelnemers registreer op die webblad en kan daar na die koorleier Braam van Tonder se video's en riglyne kyk. Finale opnames moet asseblief teen 12 Oktober aan hoop@apkerk.co.za gestuur word. Hoop Ongegrensd persverklaring, 15 September 2020

FUNERAL INDUSTRY STRIKE POSE HEALTH RISK

A large number of workers in the funeral industry across the country went on strike on Monday 14 September to demand improved working conditions, and higher remuneration and transformation in the industry. The strike which was supposed to last only 3 days, is still ongoing in certain regions and resulted in bodies not being picked up at government mortuaries, homes and, public and private hospitals. Some of the strikers also made good on their threats by blocking funerals from taking place, saying that government must first listen to their demands. Platinum Weekly spoke to a local funeral parlour to find out how the strike affects them: "We have decided to remain open but are taking extra precautions as we are scared. Our hearses are not currently operational, and we have removed the stickers from our vehicles."

In a press release dated 13 September, the Department of Health said that they are aware that a group of funeral parlours are planning to shut down the collection of human remains from private and public health facilities and that may lead to undesired conditions and risks to public health. The department would like to emphasise the following:

- All funeral undertakers and mortuary premises used in connection with the preparation, storage and preservation of human remains must have a valid certificate of competence issued by the relevant local authority.
- Environmental health practitioners are and will continue to conduct inspections in all funeral undertakers' premises in the country to check compliance with regulations. Legal action will be taken against owners of premises found to be in contravention.
- Family members are urged to check the legitimacy of the undertakers and agents being utilised for the overall management of the burial of their loved ones to ensure proper tracking and tracing and that the handling of the remains is done with dignity and within the law.
- Environmental health practitioners in the district and/or metropolitan municipalities can be contacted for assistance on any issues relating to the management of human remains and for advice to ensure compliance with the regulations.

The Department of Health is willing to continue with talks with the funeral parlour sector to come to an amicable solution.

SERIOUSLY INJURED IN VELD FIRE

Derby – Owner of Kareekloof Game Farm Leon Prinsloo, was seriously injured in a runaway veld fire near Derby on Saturday 12 September.

Leon, who has years of experience with wildfires, rushed to help with a fire that spread on a neighbouring farm. The wind was exceptionally strong, and in the blink of an eye, the fire surrounded him. He was unable to get out before sustaining second-degree burn wounds over 60% of his body.

In an interview with Platinum Weekly, Leon's wife Annalize Prinsloo said that he is currently in the high care unit, receiving treatment for his burns. Leon is a pillar in his community and our thoughts and prayers go out to him, his family and his friends. We pray for a full recovery.

A VIRTUAL CELEBRATION OF OUR BELOVED GREEN SPACES

Garden guru Tanya Visser

SA – On Sunday 11 October, South Africans across the country will celebrate and share their unique green spaces and gardens of every shape and size - online.

Created by gardening app Candide, Garden Day is a growing movement who has been uniting people with a love for plants and flowers since 2016. From keepers of rolling lawns, community gardens, and vegetable patches to potted window sills, patio planters, and urban rooftops, the annual celebration is calling on plant lovers to put on a flower crown, down their tools, and enjoy the fruits of their labour.

To inspire South Africans to celebrate all things green, Garden Day will host several virtual events in the run-up to Sunday 11 October including flower crown making workshops, so that you can make your own flower crown - the ultimate Garden Day accessory.

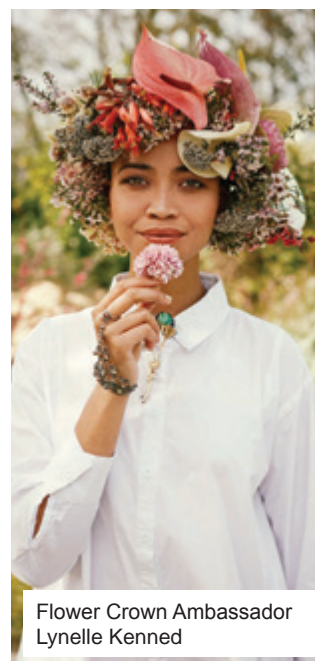

On the day the movement will host its first Virtual Garden Day Gathering with a host of events, including a Q&A session with garden guru Tanya Visser, a celebrity flower crown-off with actor and comedian Schalk Bezuidenhout and radio and television presenter Zoë Brown, garden-inspired gourmet cooking and more via Zoom and Facebook Live.

The start of the spring season offers us a chance to pause, reflect, and celebrate a season of new beginnings.

JOIN THE MOVEMENT!

Visit Gardenday.co.za/GetInvolved for a handy toolkit to help you plan the perfect virtual celebration, including recipe ideas, downloadable invitations for your virtual celebration and things that you and your children can do and make in your garden. The final programme for the Virtual Garden Gathering will be released on Gardenday.co.za/Events at the start of October.

SOULFOOD

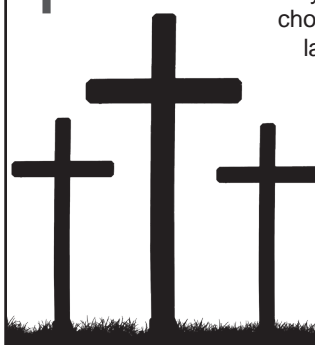

PSALM 119: 1-16

¹Blessed are those whose ways are blameless, who walk according to the law of the LORD. ²Blessed are those who keep his statutes and seek him with all their heart— ³they do no wrong but follow his ways. ⁴You have laid down precepts that are to be fully obeyed. ⁵Oh, that my ways were steadfast in obeying your decrees!

⁶Then I would not be put to shame when I consider all your commands. ⁷I will praise you with an upright heart as I learn your righteous laws. ⁸I will obey your decrees; do not utterly forsake me. ⁹How can a young person stay on the path of purity? By living according to your word. ¹⁰I seek you with all my heart; do not let me stray from your commands. ¹¹I have hidden your word in my heart that I might not sin against you. ¹²Praise be to you, LORD; teach me your decrees. ¹³With my lips I recount all the laws that come from your mouth. ¹⁴I rejoice in following your statutes as one rejoices in great riches. ¹⁵I meditate on your precepts and consider your ways. ¹⁶I delight in your decrees; I will not neglect your word.

¹⁷Be good to your servant while I live, that I may obey your word. ¹⁸Open my eyes that I may see wonderful things in your law. ¹⁹I am a stranger on earth; do not hide your commands from me. ²⁰My soul is consumed with longing for your laws at all times. ²¹You rebuke the arrogant, who are accursed, those who stray from your commands. ²²Remove from me their scorn and contempt, for I keep your statutes. ²³Though rulers sit together and slander me, your servant will meditate on your decrees. ²⁴Your statutes are my delight; they are my counselors. ²⁵I am laid low in the dust; preserve my life according to your word. ²⁶I gave an account of my ways and you answered me; teach me your decrees. ²⁷Cause me to understand the way of your precepts, that I may meditate on your wonderful deeds. ²⁸My soul is weary with sorrow;

strengthen me according to your word. ²⁹Keep me from deceitful ways; be gracious to me and teach me your law. ³⁰I have chosen the way of faithfulness; I have set my heart on your laws. ³¹I hold fast to your statutes, LORD; do not let me be put to shame. ³²I run in the path of your commands, for you have broadened my understanding.

HOW TO DISPOSE OF A DECEASED PET

Rustenburg – A concerned community member recently took to social media to express her disdain for a dog owner who dumped his dead dog next to the road. This is a horrific act that will traumatise any animal lover... but what are the alternatives to dumping your dead pet next to the road? Platinum Weekly spoke to Rustenburg Local Municipality spokesperson David Magae to find out what the city's rules and regulations are with regards to discarding the remains of your pet. "You can dispose of your pet at the landfill site. If you want to dispose of five or more animals at once, you have to make arrangements with the municipality and it must be authorised. Big animals such as a dead donkey or cow cannot be disposed of at the landfill site without pre-arrangement," David said. David added that even with small animals, you must make arrangements in the interest of health and environmental issues. He also noted that dead animals from animal clinics cannot be disposed of on-site, but only at Holfontein Hazardous site in Gauteng – where they are cremated. Rustenburg Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals (SPCA) manager André Elof said that should you be in a predicament concerning the disposal of a dead animal, owners can contact the SPCA who will advise and assist if possible. However, there might be costs involved to cover the cremation of animals.

8 INTERESTING FACTS AND TIPS ON FIREARMS AND OTHER MATTERS RELATED TO WILLS AND DECEASED ESTATES

1. A contract of lease or any other contract, concluded by the deceased during his lifetime, is in principle enforceable after the date of death.
2. Debts of the deceased estate can be settled before the liquidation and distribution account has been approved to save interest if the estate is solvent and there are sufficient cash available.
3. A temporary storage permit must be obtained for every firearm of the deceased and a notice sent to the Registrar of the Central Firearm Register.
4. Many beneficiaries of deceased estates these days prefer to have firearms destroyed instead of obtaining a firearm licence, which they would need to inherit the firearms.
5. The first few weeks after the date of death are crucial in terms of protecting any businesses owned and run by the deceased. Written guidelines drafted by the deceased on what to do with the business can be very helpful in this regard.
6. You can cater for moral obligations, that do not create a legal obligation, in your will, for example requesting your children to look after a family member or your animals.
7. Don't rule from the grave by, for example prescribing that your house must be sold. Rather leave it up to the beneficiaries to decide whether it makes sense to sell based on the circumstances at the time.
8. Things can change very quickly. The circumstances when you execute your will, will often be completely different from when you pass away. You should therefore have a flexible will in terms of the execution thereof. This will make life much easier for your family.

SONWABILE IS GAINING MASS SUPPORT FROM RUSTENBURG

Lethabong/ Rustenburg – Sonwabile 'Zano Thando' Ngxito has won the hearts of my music lovers through his participation in the 16th season of Idols South Africa.

Sonwabile said that he decided to enter Idols as it gives aspiring singers a platform to showcase their talents.

This talented up-and-comer is from Lethabong and has worked hard to garner support from his legion of fans. He says that his manager and his family are his biggest supports but through his noteworthy performances has also gained mass support from Rustenburg followers.

Rustenburg Local Municipality (RLM) executive mayor councillor Mpho Khunou had a virtual meeting with the Idols' contestant to understand what support he will need to take his talent forward. Sonwabile aims to further his career beyond the competition but will use his experience in helping the youth from Lethabong.

"I am honoured to have this conversation with you, I come from a province with limited resources and would want my presence in the contest to open doors for other people back home," he said.

The talented Sonwabile 'ZanoThando' Ngxito.

GRACE HELP CENTRE TO REFURBISH A SWIMMING POOL

Mooiooi/ Rustenburg – Spring has sprung, and Grace Help Centre is appealing to the business community and well-wishers to assist them with repairs to their swimming pool.

Grace Help Centre provides refuge and shelter for victims of domestic violence, rape, sexual abuse, and other forms of abuse.

Their swimming pool, which is extremely popular among its more than 100 beneficiaries, is in urgent need of a makeover due to the wear and tear over the years. To this end, Grace Help Centre is fundraising to carry out the repairs and is calling on as many people as possible to open their hearts and assist.

The centre will appreciate help in any of the following areas:

- Fencing to secure the length of the pool area, so that a child does not gain access to the pool area without supervision.
- Swim safety accessories such as armbands and floating swimming aids that can be used to assist with teaching children how to enjoy swimming in a safe and secure environment.
- Swimming pool accessories such as pool noodles and any other inflatables that can add smiles during swimming time.
- Swimming costumes for boys and girls (sizes 30 to 42).

Grace Help Centre will issue a tax break in return for any donations.

If you are in a position to assist, please contact Grace Help Centre on 072 348 6526 or drop them an email on gracecentre@mweb.co.za.

WATERFALL MALL'S SCHOOL & CAREER EXPO 2020

Rustenburg – Waterfall Mall hosted another successful annual School and Career Expo shortly after entering level 2 lockdown. The expo, which ran for four consecutive days from Thursday 3 September, saw pre-schools, academies, Technikons and educational equipment suppliers promoting their services and products at the Waterfall Mall's centre court. Owing to COVID-19, most educational institutions are offering remote learning and/or alternative methods of study.

Please follow Waterfall Mall on Facebook for more information on the exhibitors from this year's School and Career Expo.

Heidi Nagel at Professional Schoolwear took part in the expo.

THREE DAYS OF EXCITING GOLF!

The Rustenburg Golf Club will host another tournament in October this year.

Rustenburg – The 44th annual Orange Blossom will be held at the Rustenburg Golf Club from Friday 23 to Sunday 25 October in what is expected to be an unforgettable weekend of sporting action. This will be the second tournament to be hosted by the club following the nationwide relaxation of the COVID-19 regulations.

Said Rustenburg Golf Club manager Ilse Marais: "It is an in-house tournament to raise funds for the Rustenburg Golf Club. These are the only three days on our calendar each year that benefit the club."

For more information, contact Ilse Marais on 014 592 5575.

CYCLING CHAMPIONS IN THE MAKING!

Rustenburg – Laerskool Rustenburg's virtual challenge, which was held on Saturday 12 September, was a memorable experience for three junior members of the Rustenburg Cycling Club (RCC).

Antonie Lit, Stewart Luyt and Tamlyn Luyt all represented the RCC and did exceptionally well in the races. A big well done to Antonie Lit who completed the 50km ride in an hour and the 14km race in just 15 minutes!

#TRAPSAAM

Rustenburg – Laerskool Rustenburg, Laerskool Proteapark en Laerskool David Brink het in 'n konvooi Port Elizabeth veilig bereik op Saterdag, 12 September tydens die #TrapSaam spin fietswedren. Dié skole se doel was om 1,099km te trap tydens die 7 ure wat die 'resies' geduur het. Al die drie skole het in hul doel geslaag en het selfs méér kilometers getrap aan die einde van die resies. Die spin fietswedren was beslis 'n hoogtepunt op die jaar se skoolkalender. Die voorreg om hande te kon vat met skole in Rustenburg en om die gees te beleef wat geopenbaar was, was 'n voorreg en 'n geleentheid wat die gemeenskap se hart laat klop het.

So 'n dag gebeur nie net nie, namens al die skole wil ons graag die volgende persone bedank wat bygedra het tot die projek: Eerstens, die twee skoolhoofde van Bloemfontein wie die inisiatief aanvanklik beplan het en die inisiatief gedeel het, sonder hulle sou so 'n geleentheid nie die jaar posgevat het nie. Die projek is ten bate van personeel wat in beheerliggaam poste by skole aangestel is. Hul poste is in gevaar weens die afname in betaling van skoolgeld tydens die COVID-19 pandemie en die fondse wat tydens die inisiatief ingesamel word, sal aangewend word tot hul salarisse. Dankie aan SOS Skole wat in samewerking met Solidariteit die #TrapSaam platform geskep het en die skole in die land betrek het. Laerskool Proteapark, Laerskool David Brink en Laerskool Rustenburg het sonder enige huiwering ingekoop in die inisiatief en as 'n SPAN het hulle die wonderlik dag bymekaar gesit. Namens die deelnemende skole wil ons vir AfriForum Rustenburg voorsitter Chris Trytsman bedank vir die prysgeld wat hulle geborg het vir elke deelnemende skool. Chris het opgemerk tydens sy openingstoespraak dat 'n mens nie sit en wag vir dinge om te gebeur nie – 'n mens vat hande en neem aksie – en dis presies wat die skole gedoen het! 'n Welbekende apteekgroep het ook 'n donasie vir elke skool gegee – wat 'n wonderlike omgee gebaar en bewys van gemeenskapsondersteuning. Dankie vir die water en die energiebederfies – verseker het dit bygedra tot die deelnemers se prestasies! Die skole is dankbaar vir elke besigheid, gemeenskaplid, vriend, ouer en leerder van die deelnemende skole wat donasies gemaak het en pryse vir die dag geborg het – die lys van borge is op die <http://www.rtbtrapsaam.co.za/> webblad wat geskep is deur Visual Corp. Die hele dag se gebeure is lewendig uitgesaai. Almal is dit eens dat die projek 'n reuse sukses was en dat die inisiatief 'n jaarlikse instelling kan word. Dit sal wonderlik wees as meer skole in die toekoms die lang pad saam kan aandurf see toe!

Elisma Schutte (links) en Franz Rabel trap vir Laerskool Dawid Brink.

Mariette Deysel (links) en Marinda de Beer het Laerskool Proteapark verteenwoordig.

Van links: AfriForum Rustenburg voorsitter Chris Trytsman en Laerskool Rustenburg ondersteuners Suretha Booysen en Jeani Nortje.

AUSTRALIAN DOMESTIC SUPER RUGBY

Reds vs Brumbies

Die Reds het met 'n welverdiende oorwinning van 25-13 in Brisbane gewen en daarin geslaag om dan in die finaal teen die Brumbies uit te draf om te bepaal wie die 2020 Aussie Super Span sal wees. Rustyd was die telling 10 elk, maar in die tweede helfte het die manne van Queensland beheer geneem om as waardige wenners van die veld af te stap.

Cheers mate..

RUGGA CHUNKS...

- In Aussie-land het coach Dave Rennie 'n groep van 44 spelers aangewys waaruit hy sy 23-tal gaan kies om teen die All Blacks in die twee Bledisloe Cup Toetse te speel op 11 en 18 Oktober. Rennie het ook nog nie 'n cappie aangewys nie... alhoewel Michael Hooper wel in die groep is.

Handrè Pollard die afgelope naweek opgedoen het 'n groot bron van kommer vir die Bok Coach Pollard, wat vir sy Franse klub Montpellier gespeel het.

- Die 2020 Rugby Kampioenskap sal vanaf 7 November tot 12 Desember plaasvind.

- In Bokland is die besering wat Nag ou grote..
