10 DECEMBER 2021

Rustenburg – “I can’t feel my legs. They don’t want to move,” Anton Muller (78) called out to his wife as she ran to his aid.

Anton was seriously injured when he was stabbed in the back by attackers who made use of the opportunity to steal his cellphone when they saw him outside his property. He went outside to take his monthly photo of the municipal water meter and to lock the gate, as the Mullers were getting ready to settle in for the night.

Anton and his wife Anna have been Geelhoutpark residents since 1983. It was a late on a relaxing but chilly Saturday afternoon, shortly after a light breeze of rain at around 18h00 on 4 December. Being attacked was the last thing on their mind. Two men overpowered Anton from behind and stabbed him in his back.

Reliving the moment, Anna told Platinum Weekly: “I heard someone shouting and my heart sank!” My neighbours rushed to my front door yelling that Anton was stabbed and unable to get up.

Anton Muller went outside to take a photo of his water meter. He was attacked, stabbed and struggled to crawl back to his gate.

Illegal connections and another protest

Traffic was disrupted along the 510 Road in Boitekong because of the protest.

Boitekong/ Rustenburg – Residents of Boitekong Extension 4 in Rustenburg took to the streets during the evening hours of Saturday 4 December to protest the shortage of water in the area, blocking the R510 Road in Boitekong.

Rustenburg Local Municipality (RLM) spokesperson Thapelo Matebesi said water supply was eventually restored after councillor Thabang Rampou – the member of the mayoral committee (MMC) responsible for Technical and Infrastructure – intervened.

Matebesi said the shortage was caused by an illegal connection to the electricity box supplying the actuator valve.

He said personnel from the municipality's bulk team managed to remove the illegal connections and restored water supply to the affected areas.

"We are pleading with residents to avoid tampering with municipal infrastructure services. We also urge residents to use water sparingly," Matebesi added.

Streets were blocked off with burning tyres.

Rustenburg – East End residents took to the streets to voice their anger at the lack of electricity on Wednesday 8 December. The power went off on Saturday 4 December and after five days without electricity, several residents set tyres alight in the street hoping the Rustenburg Local Municipality will finally pay attention to their challenges.

Later that evening, the electricity was restored... for a full 10 minutes.

"I first reported the problem on Saturday 4 December. At that time, much larger areas also experienced outages. When the electricity tripped just before midnight on the same day, I reported it again," said Democratic Alliance ward 18 councillor Cobus Cronje.

"I understand our community's frustrations, but damaging roads and lighting tyres will solve nothing," he added.

At the time of going to print, only two houses were still without electricity.

SERIAL RAPIST GETS 65 YEARS BEHIND BARS

Phokeng/ Rustenburg – A serial rapist that prowled the streets of Phokeng from 2010 to 2013 at night looking for his next victim, was arrested and successfully convicted.

His modus operandi was to threaten young women aged 15 to 30 at gunpoint, force them into the bushes and then rape them. He would then rob them of their valuables and leave them for dead.

Tshepo Ben Moloi (42) was sentenced a 65-year jail term on Monday 29 November before the Bafokeng Regional Court in Tlhabane on five counts of rape, five counts of robbery and escaping from lawful custody. Some of the charges will run concurrently. “Moloi accosted his victims late at night or during the early morning hours,” says police spokesperson colonel Aafje Botma. Moloi’s first documented rape was of a young woman a day after Christmas in 2010. His second, a 15-year-old girl on New Year’s Day in 2011...

Moloi was finally traced and arrested, but he escaped from police cells. “He was re-arrested two days later on 29 December 2013 at a smallholding in Kroondal after we received a tip-off. He was in police detention until he was positively linked to the rape incidents through DNA matches,” Botma confirmed.

The firearm used by Moloi to threaten his victims with, has not yet been recovered by the police.

“Never walk alone at night,” warned police spokesperson in Rustenburg captain Elsabé Augoustides. “Observe your surroundings and carry a whistle that you can blow if you need assistance.”

Detective sergeant Obakeng Rasego was at the steer of the investigation that led to the successful conviction of a rapist.

NOT SAFE TO STEP OUTSIDE YOUR YARD!

Rustenburg – “I can’t feel my legs. They don’t want to move,” Anton Muller (78) called out to his wife as she ran to his aid.

Anton was seriously injured when he was stabbed in the back by attackers who made use of the opportunity to steal his cellphone when they saw him outside his property.

He went outside to take his monthly photo of the municipal water meter and to lock the gate, as the Mullers were getting ready to settle in for the night.

Anton and his wife Anna have been Geelhoutpark residents since 1983. It was a late on a relaxing but chilly Saturday afternoon, shortly after a light breeze of rain at around 18h00 on 4 December. Being attacked was the last thing on their mind.

Two men overpowered Anton from behind and stabbed him in his back.

Reliving the moment, Anna told Platinum Weekly: “I heard someone shouting and my heart sank!” My neighbours rushed to my front door yelling that Anton was stabbed and unable to get up.

“He must have looked like an easy target, cellphone in the hand and unaware of the opportunist criminals on the prowl,” Anna said. They fled the scene on foot with his cellphone.

“We have a Rustenburg Crime Combatting Forum (RCCF) board on our gate. I immediately phoned them, in a panic. Within minutes, they arrived and started searching for the attackers.” Unfortunately, they got away.

At the time, Anton couldn’t feel or move his legs. It was an emotional time, not knowing what the outcome of his injuries would lead to. He was rushed to Medicare Hospital.

“My husband is very safety-conscious about using cell phones in public areas. He doesn’t like anyone taking using their phones in public – not even in the mall. But you never think that something like this will happen to you just outside your own gate.”

By grace, Anton is alive and well and getting better by the hour – and in good spirits. He sustained no serious injuries to his spine where he was stabbed. Immediate swelling around his spine caused the numbness is his legs.

“We thank God for sparing Anton and that He sent all these amazing people to us in our time of need. The RCCF went out of their way to find the attackers. Our neighbours, our pastor and people from our community prayed with us for his recovery and gave us so much support. We are truly blessed,” Anna said.

Woman hires gunmen to kill husband

Detective sergeant Michael Sello at the Mooinooi Detectives Unit is investigating the case.

Mooinooi – A 41-year-old woman from Mooinooi, who confessed to killing her husband will spend at least 25 years behind bars. Helen Mashaba, who hired two gunmen to kill Solomon Mashaba, was handed a life sentence by the North Gauteng High Court on Monday 6 December 2021. She was arrested on 10 October 2020 after confessing to carrying out the plan to murder her husband. This was after police had been summoned to the murder scene by community members who spotted a body at Malema Section in Modderspruit near Mooinooi. “Upon arrival at the scene, they found the body of a male with three gunshot wounds in the upper body – execution style,” police spokesperson captain Aafje Botma said. “She also revealed that she hired two hitmen to kill her husband.”

Anyone with information regarding the whereabouts of the two hitmen, please contact detective sergeant Michael Sello on 060 987 9861.

Four employees fatally injured at Sibanye-Stillwater

Rustenburg – Sibanye-Stillwater reported the tragic loss of four colleagues in two separate incidents on Friday 3 December 2021.

At approximately 02h30 that morning, a colleague at Khuseleka shaft at the Rustenburg operations passed away due to a fall of ground incident which occurred while he was barring down the sidewall of a development end.

Later that morning, at approximately 10h00, three colleagues at 3 Shaft at the Beatrix operations, passed away following a tragic trackless mobile machinery incident.

The board and management of Sibanye-Stillwater extend their sincere condolences to the families, friends, and colleagues of the deceased.

Commenting on the safety incidents, CEO Neal Froneman said: “Despite our extraordinary efforts this year, the number of fatal incidents we have experienced is of grave concern for management and the Board of Sibanye-Stillwater. We are appalled by the loss of our employees’ lives at our mines over the past year. While we cannot rectify the harm that has occurred, we will continue to support the families as best we can in their grief. The safety of employees is our primary concern and we will continue to strive for zero harm in the workplace.”

N4 CLAIMS FOUR-YEAR-OLD PEDESTRIAN

Rustenburg – A four-year-old boy sadly lost his life while trying to cross the N4 on Friday 3 December.

Traffic moved slowly as emergency personnel rushed to the scene next to the Donkerhoek bridge where they found the child and the driver of a Ford Ranger that was involved in the accident. The boy was declared dead at the scene.

Police spokesperson captain Elsabé Augoustides confirmed that the boy was accompanied by his father and his two-year-old brother when the accident happened. Police are investigating the matter.

We extend our sincerest condolences to the family of the little boy.

Traffic made way for emergency personnel on their way to the accident scene.

120 stranded after flood

Rustenburg – A coordinated effort by the Rustenburg Local Municipality (RLM) disaster management unit, the South African Social Security Agency (SASSA) and Al-Imdaad Foundation assisted Monnakato residents whose homes were destroyed by a recent flash flood.

More than 120 people in Monnakato were stranded after Thursday 4 December’s pouring rainfall.

RLM councillor Happy Serongwane responded quickly and mobilised support. “The residents were provided with salvage kits and food parcels,” RLM spokesperson Thapelo Matebesi said.

“We have also applied to the Department of Human Settlements to help by availing funds from the Disaster and Emergency Relief Grant so that the affected families can be further assisted,” Matebesi added.

METASEC Security Solutions’ Platinum Square supervisor Andrew Ramokaka received a certificate of excellence after his swift reaction to arrest a burglar.

After hours ‘shopper’ arrested

Rustenburg – The quick thinking and determination of METASEC Security Solutions’ Platinum Square supervisor Andrew Ramokaka led to the arrest of a suspect on Sunday 14 November.

The alarm of a clothing store in the centre went off and the guards on patrol went to investigate. At first, they couldn’t find anything – until the alarm inside the ceiling went off. That is when they knew something was wrong.

While waiting for the shop’s security company to arrive, they managed to get hold of the owner of the shop and got permission to break the door to enter.

Once the burglar saw that they were waiting for him at the door, he quickly fled back into the ceiling and attempted to make an escape at the back of the building, just to find the next team member waiting for him there. He was arrested on the spot.

“We acknowledge Platinum Square supervisor Ramokaka’s outstanding performance. He reacted quickly and ensured that the criminal did not succeed. We are proud to have him on our team,” said METASEC Security Solutions general manager Morné Engelbrecht.

Damaged roads under repair

Tlhabane/ Rustenburg – The Rustenburg Local Municipality (RLM) has engaged the services of a local company to repair damaged roads in ward 9, 10 and 11, Tlhabane.

The company, NTRR Engineering Projects, has been patching up potholes on roads that were seriously damaged by the heavy rainfall that pounded Rustenburg in recent weeks.

RLM Member of the Mayoral Committee (MMC) for Roads and Transportation councillor Lebogang Pule said the contractor was appointed two weeks ago. The company – which was formed in 2005 – has employed 15 local workers (five from each of the three wards in Tlhabane) to carry out the repairs.

On Wednesday 8 December, Platinum Weekly caught up with one of the company’s teams at a busy intersection along Motsatsi Street.

They were removing damaged tar and resurfacing a badly damaged portion of the road while a woman was diverting traffic to an alternative route.

“We started repairing the roads in Tlhabane on Tuesday 7 December,” one of the workers commented. “There are specific spots that we have been tasked to repair and it is very likely that if we experience more heavy rainfall, we will continue with our work during the beginning of January 2022,” he added.

NTGR Engineering Projects workers repaired the damaged road in Tlhabane.

PART OF A CRIME FIGHTING FAMILY

Rustenburg – The Rustenburg Crime Combating Forum (RCCF) is a community watch that patrols the Rustenburg streets while the rest of the people are sound asleep. The visibility they create make criminals think twice as they can see that someone is keeping a watchful eye. RCCF celebrated another year of fighting crime during their yearend function on Saturday 4 December. Since their inception in August 2014, they have only grown from strength to strength and currently have more than 5,000 members on their groups. Those are the people who are the eyes and ears on the ground guiding them.

Even in the pouring rain and while celebrating their yearend – they didn't hesitate for a second as a distress call came through that night. "Our teams often have to face harsh weather conditions and aggravating circumstances. But we are passionate about what we do," said RCCF chairperson Kobus Ferreira.

Vice chairperson Clinton Cilliers added: "We would like to thank our members and their wives. Risking your lives or sending your husbands out there to risk their lives is not easy. We appreciate the love and support that you give."

A big thank you to the following people and businesses who donated towards the year-end function:

Have your say / Sê jou sê

Do you think people, worldwide, are gaining personal freedom?

Personal freedom means that you have the right to come and go as you please. You have the freedom to express yourself and form your own opinions. Lockdowns and revolutions... Where is the world on the spectrum of personal freedom?

No. Covid-19 has limited people's personal freedoms due to many restrictions. There is a new Covid-19 variant now... and we do not know if it will also result in further restrictions.

Sabine Swanepoel

Yes. In South Africa we have personal freedoms that many other countries also have. People living in countries where people do not enjoy personal freedoms are fighting hard for their rights.

PROVERBS 16 VERSE 1 - 14

¹The preparations of the heart belong to man, But the answer of the tongue is from the LORD. ²All the ways of a man are pure in his own eyes, But the LORD weighs the spirits.³Commit your works to the LORD, And your thoughts will be established. ⁴The LORD has made all for Himself, Yes, even the wicked for the day of doom. ⁵Everyone proud in heart is an abomination to the LORD; Though they join forces, none will go unpunished. ⁶In mercy and truth Atonement is provided for iniquity; And by the fear of the LORD one departs from evil. ⁷When a man's ways please the LORD, He makes even his enemies to be at peace with him. ⁸Better is a little with righteousness, Than vast revenues without justice. ⁹A man's heart plans his way, But the LORD directs his steps. ¹⁰Divination is on the lips of the king; His mouth must not transgress in judgment. ¹¹Honest weights and scales are the LORD's; All the weights in the bag are His work. ¹²It is an abomination for kings to commit wickedness, For a throne is established by righteousness. ¹³Righteous lips are the delight of kings.

Bridgetown braai

Rustenburg – Shops and community members located near the bridge in Thabo Mbeki Drive – aka the 'Bridgetown' – celebrated Rustenburg Bolt and Tool's 40th Birthday on Thursday 11 November at the bridge. Bridgetown – known for criminal elements, was transformed into a spot of possibility. There was food and fun, and the opportunity to talk to one of Rustenburg's future motorsport heroes, Nathan Sinclair. A happy beneficiary on the day was Lighthouse Children's Home, who have a longstanding relationship with Rustenburg Bolt and Tool based in East End. They received a percentage of all sales on the day. The kids also received gifts and goodie bags. Businesses in the vicinity of Bridgetown are looking into an initiative to spruce up the area and intend to maintain and keep improving it, hopefully with the assistance of the municipality. "We are very grateful to God, to our staff, to our suppliers and of course to everyone who supported us over the years. As a community, we have supported each other over the years, and now I hope we can all join together, with the Rustenburg Local Municipality, to not only maintain our area, but to unlock its potential for the benefit of both visitors and those who are here every day. It's up to us to keep up the standard and to keep raising it," Faheem Mafa, organiser of the event, said.

Bridgetown was a hive of activity.

Tsholetsa Disability Centre renovated

Classic Oriental Consultancy in partnership with Ubank and several local stakeholders joined hands to renovate Tsholetsa Disability Centre on Friday 3 December.

The centre, located in Tlhabane Rustenburg, is managed by Richard Tlhogwe. Tsholetsa Disability Centre offers employment opportunities to disabled people – they manufacture aluminium windows, door frames, interlock bricks, treadles tyres, and arts and craft pieces.

Says Classic Oriental Consultancy founder and director Thapelo Rapoo: "We adopted the centre as part of our corporate social investment projects with the mandate to give back to the community."

When the centre expressed the need for renovations, Classic Oriental Consultancy and stakeholders pulled up their sleeves!

The reception, kitchen area and outside ablution facilities got a new coat of paint, and a number of ceiling boards were replaced.

On the day, Tsholetsa Disability Centre also received a kitchen unit, laptop, PC monitors and keyboards, cleaning material, wheelbarrows and gardening equipment, an office desk and filing cabinet.

The Department of Social Development, Government Communications and Information Systems, local ward councillors and small, medium and micro enterprises (SMMEs) also made donations to the centre.

"We would like to thank Ubank, all the SMMEs and stakeholders including Fruti Bevs, Rofi Enterprise, Kagiso Mmiti Foundation, Tumilid, Thabaneson, Mesora Day Spa, Ramushu Photography and Videography, all the volunteers, and the Tsholetsa Disability Centre staff for making the event a success," said Classic Oriental Consultancy marketing and public relations specialist Precious Mputle.

Investing in education, the company donated 120 tablets, 12 tablet trolleys, 12 laptops for educators and 12 smart boards to the North West Department of Education on Wednesday 24 November. Twelve primary schools identified within the Rustenburg Sub-district schools are the beneficiaries of the donation. Besides this R3.6 million contribution, Sibanye-Stillwater are involved with various educational programmes which include upgrading of school facilities, building new schools and equipping teachers with the necessary skills to support learners. Rustenburg Local Municipality (RLM) executive mayor councillor Sheila Mabale-Huma thanked Sibanye-Stillwater for its contribution and said: “Education is one of the fundamental pillars of our democracy in South Africa.” She added that with the challenge of limited resources experienced by the Department of Education, the municipality relies on companies such as Sibanye-Stillwater for the department to achieve its developmental goals.

UNITED RUGBY CHAMPIONSHIP

Sharks vs Bulls

In Durban Klop die Sharks die Bulls teen alle verwagtinge met 30-16 ou grote! Verrassend mors die Haaie met die Bulle in die vaste fasette van die spel. Die nuweling loskop van die Haaie, Ntuthuko Mchunu, het die Bulle verslind. Die belowende speler wat nog tot 2019 agsteman gespeel het, is duidelik op pad na Bok-glorie. Die Haaie was met rustyd 13-9 agter. Die tweede het aan die Haaie behoort en Lukhanyo Am het vroeg in die tweede helfte met 'n puik onderskepdrie die wind uit die horings geneem. Boeta Chamberlain lewer weer puik spel op losskakel en teken twintig punte vir die Haaie aan. En Ruan Pienaar is soos Kaapse wyn ou grote... hoe ouer hoe beter. Pienaar speel tans skitterende ruggas en dit op 'n beskeie 37 jaar jonk. Die Bulle se Jake White was nou nie juis spraaksam na die game nie. Maar te verstane...

Stormers vs Lions

En toe die ander opskudding in "local is lekker" ou grote. Die Jo'burgers verras vriend en vyand en piets die Kapenaars in Kaapstad met 39-17 en druk ook sommer vier drieë in die proses. Fred Zeilinga se visier was ook goed ingestel en hy behaal sewentien punte met sy skopskoen. Die Leeus se voorry was ook heeltemal te sterk vir die outjies van die Kaap en sodoende het die agterlyn goeie balbesit gekry om af te rond. Die SA spanne het nou weer 'n blaaskans en sal eers in 2022 in aksie wees. Die oorsese spanne sal weer vanaf 24 Desember in aksie wees.

Ander uitslae:

- Edinburgh 24 - 10 Benetton
- Leinster 47 - 19 Connacht
- Ospreys 19 - 13 Ulster
- Glasgow Warriors 33 - 14 Dragons

WORLD RUGBY SEVENS

Dubai Sevens 2

Die Blitsbokke sluit 2021 met glorie af en wen die tweede ronde van die Sewes in Dubai. Die Blitse het in 'n uiters spannende game daarin geslaag om Australië in die finaal met 10-7 te troef. Die ongelooflike deursettingsvermoë van hierdie supersterre was fenomenaal. Merkwaardig was die feit dat Neil Powell net elf van sy dertien spelers kon gebruik weens beserings en natuurlik die belaglike reisverbod om plaasvervangers te kon ontbied. Dit het die outjies aangespoor en hulle wen al hul games om tot die finaal deur te druk en dan as waardige weners hulle goue medaljes te ontvang. Dit is altyd moeilik om 'n speler tussen supersterre uit te wys, maar o'donnerdag, JC Pretorius, wat die as die 'Terminator' gedoop is in Dubai, was iets ysliks. Hierdie mannetjie is 'n yster ou grote, 'n totale genie. Die outjies kry ook nou 'n welverdiende ruskans en sal eers weer op 28-30 Januarie 2022 in Spanje in die derde rondte in aksie wees.

Nag ou grote...
