

LET YOUR LIGHT SHINE

LIGGIEFEES

Rustenburg – The Proteapark NG church’s ‘Liggies vir Lewe-Fees’ – which took place from Sunday 27 November to Wednesday 30 November 2022 – more than managed to set a warm and festive mood this year.

Initiated by Reverend Deon Strauss, who aimed to give back to the Rustenburg community, the bright annual festival started in 2015 when the Proteapark NG church was decorated with an assortment of colourful lights. Since then, the ‘Liggies vir Lewe-

Fees’ has only gotten bigger and better with more lights, more stalls, more artists, and more festivalgoers.

The cause of this year’s successful festival was the Wee Care theme, with the main beneficiary of funds raised being the Wee Care Project which is a school for underprivileged children who hail from various areas within Rustenburg.

Streetlamps are being broken down for their copper.

The dark side of copper theft infrastructure. Watsonia Avenue and Dr Moroka Drive especially look like warzones; in these areas, criminals are vandalising electricity poles, digging holes, and even cutting down streetlamps to get access to the copper inside. Once the poles have been felled, criminals are also able to access the lights. Additionally, the destruction of streetlamps also means that it's easier for criminals to carry out their unlawful activities under the cover of the night. Copper theft is extremely inconvenient and often leaves residents without electricity for days on end. All scrap metal dealers, foundries, and smelters should refrain from purchasing stolen cables. Copper theft is a very dangerous crime which creates financial loss, especially in the maintenance of infrastructure, accumulative costs of safety and security services, policing, court representation and sentencing. Members of the public are encouraged to report any suspicious activities to the Eskom crime line number at 0800 112 722 or to call the Crime Stop hotline at 086 001 0111. Alternatively, you can also report copper theft at your nearest police station.

14-Year-old accident victim recovering well

Rustenburg – On Saturday 26 November 2022, a call for help was sent out via various social media groups regarding a boy on a bicycle that collided with a vehicle. The 14-year-old sustained several injuries, making it a challenge to immediately contact and inform his parents. Emergency services, community members, and members from various neighbourhood watches rushed to his aid on the corner of Canary en Patrys Avenue around 18:30. They went as far as going from street to street knocking on doors. Through their relentless efforts, his father was eventually located and informed about the accident. Trauma Rescue ambulance services transported the boy to hospital where he was treated for a broken wrist, cheek bone and hip. The driver of the vehicle remained on scene until help arrived, he assisted with the search for the boy's parents and eventually went to the hospital to make sure the boy was going to be fine. The boy's father confirmed on 30 November that he is recovering well. "He is awake, eating and talking. Obviously, he can't remember anything about the accident, but he is doing good," he told Platinum Weekly. The family would like to thank everyone who assisted: "You have restored our faith in humanity, thank you very much for coming to his aid and going above and beyond to help."

A SECOND CHANCE FOR JJ

Rustenburg – JJ Theron (29) is married to a wonderful woman, has a beautiful 6-year-old daughter, and a baby boy on the way. However, his life got drastically rearranged after Saturday 24 September 2022 when he started to have flu-like symptoms. Over the weekend of the 24th of September, JJ's symptoms started with a mild cough and a general feeling of being unwell. Two days later he found himself in hospital. Four days after his initial symptoms, JJ's lung muscles started to turn white, and he struggled to breathe. Doctors, who couldn't diagnose his symptoms, intubated JJ and put him on a ventilator. Unfortunately, the treatment was unsuccessful, which meant that JJ had to be connected to an extracorporeal membrane oxygenation (ECMO) machine to give his lungs and his heart a chance to rest and recover. Following the second treatment procedure, a complication with the ECMO machine arose and JJ got an infection in his left leg. As a result, the main artery in his leg burst and the only option was to amputate JJ's left leg.

Although the medical aid has covered most of the hospital costs, there are still many lifestyle challenges ahead. "Everything at this stage is a challenge. I must get used to the fact that I lost my leg. I depend on a wheelchair and a walking frame, and my family must help me to move around," said JJ in an interview with Platinum Weekly.

However, JJ is grateful that he is still alive and has been discharged. "I am positive about the future," said JJ, "But I know that there are still many struggles and adjustments ahead." JJ's house is currently not set up for a wheelchair, which means that many changes will have to be made to make things a bit easier for him. There is also a lot of uncertainty about whether he will be able to return to work or not. At this stage, there is also no certainty on whether his medical aid will cover the costs of a prosthetic leg.

If you can help ease the financial pressure on the family, or if you want more information about how you can contribute, contact JJ's wife, Ashley Theron at 066 221 2200.

Is Johanna the next Mrs Rustenburg?

Johanna Ramatlare will be participating in the Mrs Rustenburg 2022 pageant.

Rustenburg – Johanna Ramatlare (48) is an entrepreneur who believes that there is strength in unity, and who has dedicated most of her life towards community-based projects to transform and empower those around her. With her hope to shape the world she lives in, Johanna joined Platinum Weekly for an interview on Saturday 26 November 2022. Johanna regards her mother as her role model and her biggest supporter. "I am the woman I am today because of my mother. She raised me to work hard, taught me to be confident, and encouraged me to stand up for my rights as a woman," explains Johanna. Her ethic of hard work is also something she raised her son, Paul (25) with. She says that the Mrs Rustenburg platform will enable her to actively make changes in her community, raise awareness of pressing issues, and motivate others to also get involved. "I have worked with the community in the past and trust in the spirit of Ubuntu," adds Johanna, who maintains that her honest and caring characteristics make her an ideal candidate for Mrs Rustenburg. Issues that are at the centre of Johanna's heart are women and child abuse, gender-based violence, and poverty. "As women, we need to empower each other. If we fail each other, we fail the nation. We must have the confidence to stand up against these issues." When Jonanna takes a breather, she enjoys reading, cooking, or relaxing in front of the television with her favourite meal, pap and stew.

Do you want to enter the Mrs Rustenburg pageant?

The Mrs Rustenburg title includes responsibilities that are rooted in giving back to the community and has grown to be much more than just a beauty pageant. It has become a means to elevate and celebrate women. Those who selflessly seek to initiate positive change, who are dedicated to their families and their communities, and who consider themselves role models, are invited to enter.

You don't have to be a catwalk expert to win, you just need the right attitude! Contestants should be involved in community service and raise funds for charity. They are also required to participate in team-building exercises and charity projects. All these activities will be considered when handing over the crown and the title. Married, divorced, or widowed women aged 18-50 are welcome to enter. Entry fees are R250, and the closing date is on Tuesday 20 December 2022. This is a pageant for the community, everyone is welcome to get involved by either supporting the contestants or by sponsoring prizes for the event.

The semi-finals will take place on Saturday 14 January 2023, and the winner of Mrs Rustenburg will be announced on Saturday 18 March 2023.

Popo Molefe upgrade starts to take shape

Rustenburg – The Rustenburg Local Municipality (RLM) is making strides to initiate that basic services like roads, electricity, and water supply are made available to people living in the Popo Molefe informal settlement. It's been more than 30 years since the formation of the settlement, and people in the area have been living in shacks without any basic services. Recent heavy rains pounded the area, creating a health hazard and leaving the dwellings of many people flooded. However, all this looks set to change after the municipality began the long process of formalising change in the informal settlement.

RLM spokesperson, Thapelo Matebesi, told Platinum Weekly that the RLM council had already applied to both the provincial and national Human Settlement Department. "It's called a township proclamation and is done in terms of legislation. The municipality must secure both concurrence and funding from the national and provincial departments to achieve this," explained Matebesi.

RLM spokesperson Thapelo Matebesi

However, the road to change for the formalisation of the informal settlement is a long one. Matebesi said it's not possible, at this stage, to estimate how long the process leading up to the formalisation of the area will take. "The current council is currently following up with all relevant parties such as Eskom and the Departments of Education and Health to ensure that services are rendered when the township is proclaimed," said Matebesi.

RLM executive mayor councillor Sheila Mabale-Huma, member of the mayoral committee for infrastructure and technical operations councillor Thabang Rampou, and officials from the water supply unit management inspected the damaged water infrastructure in Meriting and Seraleng.

Plan to fix damaged water infrastructure

Rustenburg – Rustenburg Local Municipality executive mayor councillor Sheila Mabale-Huma, together with councillors and managers from the municipality's water supply unit visited Meriting and Seraleng on Monday 28 November 2022. During the visit, the team inspected the damaged water supply infrastructures in Meriting extensions four and five and the Nkandla section in Seraleng. The inspection forms part of a broader initiative to attend to service delivery challenges in these areas. Contractors who were employed to identify and repair the damaged water supply infrastructures also updated the municipality on their activities. Residents living in Meriting and Seraleng have often complained about water shortages in their areas. In many of the reported instances, community members have gone for many days – or even weeks – without water because of criminal theft and damage to the Meriting and Seraleng infrastructures. However, RLM spokesperson, Thapelo Matebesi, said that the inspection by the executive mayor and her team would pave the way for a well-informed intervention. "The purpose of the two inspections was to assess the extent of the damage and the water supply status in the areas, with the aim of accelerating the repairs of the infrastructures," said Matebesi, "This will result in a permanent solution to water supply in the affected communities." Matebesi also expressed concern over criminals who have been targeting the water supply infrastructures.

LET YOUR LIGHT SHINE

Lovely lights.

Rustenburg – The Proteapark NG church's 'Liggies vir Lewe-Fees' – which took place from Sunday 27 November to Wednesday 30 November 2022 – more than managed to set a warm and festive mood this year.

Initiated by Reverend Deon Strauss, who aimed to give back to the Rustenburg community, the bright annual festival started in 2015 when the Proteapark NG church was decorated with an assortment of colourful lights. Since then, the 'Liggies vir Lewe-Fees' has only gotten bigger and better with more lights, more stalls, more artists, and more festivalgoers.

The cause of this year's successful festival was the Wee Care theme, with the main beneficiary of funds raised being the Wee Care Project which is a school for underprivileged children who hail from various areas within Rustenburg.

Eager to take part, a throng of festivalgoers gathered at the church grounds where Riaan Benadé and his band kicked off the event with some great tunes. The beloved children's musical artist, 'Bee-Bee die By' also entertained the buzzing children who were dressed up in yellow and black outfits for the competition of the best-dressed bee. Meanwhile, the rest were serenaded by the vocal talents of the singing duo 'Heuning' and songstress Cordelia who performed on the open-air stage.

Adding to the festival's jubilant mood, there was also the famous 'Liggie-Express' that took the children on a gasp-worthy mini-train trip through the wonderland lights tour which incited many smiles and waves in passing.

Festivalgoers were also delighted with many tasty treats for the tummy. The aroma of fresh pies, juicy hotdogs, and crispy chip sticks filled the air while sweet teeth were tempted by balls of candyfloss, sugar-coated nuts, pancakes, and caramelised popcorn.

With appetites sorted, the festival also presented the ideal opportunity for Christmas shopping. Stalls offered diverse options of beautiful gifts like handmade wire crafts and toys, jewellery, home décor, clothes, gorgeous handbags, and luxurious leather items.

The end of the festival was yet another memorable experience. Accompanied by choirs and instruments, festivalgoers joyfully gathered and sang Christmas carols to commemorate the festive experience.

It is estimated that an approximate total of 4,700 people attended the festival over its three-day period, marking it the most successful 'Liggies vir Lewe-Fees' since its inception. The church's enchanting display of lights will remain on until the 25th of December so that community members can enjoy the church's honour to our Lord Jesus Christ.

PSALM 120

Plea for Relief from Bitter Foes
A Song of Ascents.
120 In my distress I cried to the Lord, And He heard me. 2 Deliver my soul, O Lord, from lying lips And from a deceitful tongue. 3 What shall be given to you, Or what shall be done to you, You false tongue? 4 Sharp arrows of the warrior, With coals of the broom tree! 5 Woe is me, that I dwell in Meshech, That I dwell among the tents of Kedar! 6 My soul has dwelt too long With one who hates peace. 7 I am for peace; But when I speak, they are for war.

HAVE YOUR SAY / SÈ JOU SÈ

Do you feel comfortable having a bath or a shower when your partner isn't at home?

One of the most re-invigorating ways to unwind and relax is to have a nice bath or shower. But some people find it difficult to spend time with the bubbles when they are alone. Would you feel safe to unwind in the tub when alone?

Yes, I feel comfortable and safe if I lock up the gate and the house so that nobody manages to get in while I am bathing.

Lydia Motshwaedi

Yes, I feel comfortable. I live in a secure place, so I feel comfortable. However, it was not always the case. I used to feel insecure at my previous place and that's why I decided to move.

WHAT'S Cooking?

Tsholofelo Mathebe

Chicken Lasagne

Tsholofelo Mathebe is a Rustenburg local who started her modelling career at the age of five. She acquired her first title at age six and soon after went international. By the age of 18, she was a professional runway and photography model.

Tsholofelo currently holds the Miss Continental Africa title and was recently nominated in the top seven of the Supertalent of the World pageant. Tsholofelo graciously shared the recipe of her favourite comfort dish, which is ideal for big families. Tsholofelo's chicken lasagne can be served as a main or a side, is very affordable, and is a great way to connect with your loved ones over a hearty meal.

Ingredients:

- 3 large chicken breasts
- 1 block of chicken stock
- 2 onions
- red, yellow, and green peppers (one of each)
- 200 g mushroom
- 1 garlic clove
- herbs (any of your choice)
- 2 spoons of curry powder
- 500 g pasta
- 3 cups of cheddar cheese and mozzarella cheese (or any two kinds of cheese of your choice)
- 1 cup of milk
- 1 tablespoon of butter
- salt to your taste

Ingredients for the sauce:

- 1 cup of milk
- 1 tablespoon of butter
- salt to your taste
- ¼ cup of flour

Method:

1. Pre-fry the chicken breasts and season with salt, black pepper, and curry powder.
2. Chop onion, red, yellow, and green peppers together with the mushrooms.
3. Fry chopped vegetables with a spoonful of garlic at a low heat for 20 minutes.
4. Boil pasta with salt and some olive oil for 30 minutes.
5. Remove chicken from the pan and allow it to cool.
6. Chop chicken into bite-sized pieces.
7. Remove pasta from heat, rinse with cold water and place a layer about a quarter full in the base of the pan.
8. Cover the pasta with cooking oil.
9. Place a layer of cheese over the pasta.
10. Add chicken on top of the cheese.
11. Repeat steps until you've used all your ingredients, leaving 1 cup of cheese to garnish the dish.
12. Place in oven and bake on medium heat for 20 minutes.

Method for the sauce:

1. While your dish is in the oven, bring milk to a boil on medium heat on the stove.
2. Add butter and 1/3 cup of cheese to the milk while continuously stirring.
3. To thicken the sauce, add the flour while stirring the mixture.
4. Cover the pasta dish with the sauce and add the remaining cheese and herbs on top.
5. Serve hot.

Glencore Ferroalloys fights unemployment by supporting local businesses

Rustenburg – The Global Entrepreneurship Monitor (GEM) is regarded as the world's most authoritative study of entrepreneurship and provides measurements of entrepreneurial activity and the factors that either support or hinder it. In 2019, the South African leg of the report ranked South Africa 49th out of 54 economies, a ranking government is intent on turning around in the coming years, after noting the pivotal role SMME's can play in improving the country's economy. Glencore introduced its Enterprise Supplier Development Programme, a business hub which aims to uplift and support local SMMEs in its host communities and assists in creating equal opportunities for businesses to operate in a sustainable manner, that ultimately improves the livelihoods of the communities and its members. In its latest support, Glencore Ferroalloys invested machinery worth over R1 million to local businessman Stanley Masege, of the Mmatsie Projects and Supplies Company. Glencore Ferroalloys Rhovan Mine Operations Manager, Phil Swallow says part of function of the ESD programme is to alleviate the fear of failure for business owners in their local communities. "One of our Glencore values is entrepreneurialism.

This means that we do our best to promote and support entrepreneurialism within and outside the organisation," said Swallow. Stanley Masege was previously employed at Rhovan Mine as a Community Development Officer from 2011 to 2014, and later left to pursue a full-time career as an entrepreneur, a dream Glencore supported fully. Due to his professionalism and the valuable skills harnessed while working for Rhovan Mine, his company Mmatsie Projects and Supplies was later hired to perform maintenance for the mine. "I am so grateful to Glencore and the Rhovan Mine for their continued support for me and my business since day one. This investment in my company reflects Glencore's core values of putting communities first and assisting local businesses in growing larger than they could have imagined," said founder and owner of Mmatsie Projects and Supplies Company, Stanley Masege.

'n Regte country meisie

Rustenburg – Na Mari Minnaar se fantastiese optrede by Kenny Gee's in Kroondal op Vrydag 26 November 2022, het Platinum Weekly opgevang om meer uit te vind oor dié talentvolle sangeres.

Van kleins af het musiek diep in Mari se hart gelê, en sy het altyd 'n manier gekry om melodie en lied deel te maak van haar daaglikse aktiwiteite; terwyl sy gespeel het, het sy gesing, as sy skottelgoed gewas het, het sy gesing.

Haar musikale talent is egter nie oorerflik nie, want sy het geen familelede wat musikaal aangelê is nie. Dit beteken dat haar liefde vir sing relatief volksvreemd in haar gesin was. Maar daar was lig aan die einde van die tunnel; volgens Mari het haar pa baie goeie musieksmaak gehad, en het haar grootgemaak met musiek van Don Williams, wat haar baie geïnspireer en gemotiveer het.

Mari is ook 'n plaasmeise van natuur; sy het rondom perde groot geword, en die kombinasie van musiek en die plaaslewe het 'n passie vir country musiek in haar aangewakker. Later, met die hulp van 'n vriend, het Mari haar musikale talente begin ontwikkel en kort voor lank het sy haar hart begin uitsing op die verhoog.

Mari se stem – wat mens maklik ontvoer – kan gereeld op Rustenburg se verhoë en omliggende areas waardeur word. Sy tree graag by feeste op maar geniet ook privaat/ kleiner funksies omdat dit meer persoonlik is en sy 'n atmosfeer kan skep met haar musiek en gehoor.

Alhoewel sy vir 'n rukkie 'n ander beroep beproef het, het haar siel haar teruggetrek na haar liedere, en vir die afgelope paar maande het sy weer begin om voltyds op haar musiek te fokus. Ons hou ons ore oop vir Mari Minnaar, wat beoog om volgende jaar 'n Afrikaanse country album uit te bring.

Om 'n bespreking te maak met Mari Minnaar, kontak haar op 082 068 6064, of stuur 'n epos na mariminnaar.shows@gmail.com.

TWO DAYS OF DAZZLING SOCCER

Well done to the Lefaragatlhe Masters, Platinum Masters, Luka Masters, KN Masters, Million Dollar Masters, and Boitekong Masters for making it to the

“Both the top 16 and quarterfinal matches will be played on Saturday 10 December 2022 at Sun Village Sports Grounds,” said Bojanala Masters Football League secretary Chris Kusane.

Meanwhile, the Bojanala Masters Football League matches will resume on Sunday 4 December at Popo Molefe Grounds in Sunrise Park. Platinum Masters, who are the leaders of the current log standings, are now almost assured of winning that league.

Million Dollar Masters have qualified for the top 16 of the Sun Village Engen Masters Tournament.

ENHANCING SPORTS ADMINISTRATION

Rustenburg – Representatives from 19 Rustenburg sports clubs took part in a capacity-building workshop that was held at Olympia Park Stadium on Saturday 19 November 2022.

The workshop was conducted by a non-profit organisation (NPO) Kgatelopele Foundation (KPF), with the mission to assist the clubs to improve the efficiency of their administrative structures.

Royal City, Mabolokwe Sports Development, Khuseleka All Stars, Bafokeng FC, Debunkers FC, Rustenburg United, Rise and Shine FC, and Real Touches were among the sports clubs that took part in the workshop.

Kularo Ramantsi and Chardi Bassardien from the Rustenburg Local Municipality (RLM) sports and recreation unit also interacted with the participants during the workshop and offered their advice.

During the capacity-building session, participants were informed on governance issues related to financial management, fundraising, membership, starting a new club, and other topics. “Everyone who was part of the workshop was presented with a certificate of appreciation and a commitment was made by the RLM to further engage with the Kgatelopele Foundation with the view of assisting the local sports club federations in the area,” said KPF facilitator Naledi Modisapudi.

IMPALA RUGBY CLUB REUNITES WITH STAR PLAYER

Rustenburg – The Impala Rugby Club is leaving no stone unturned in preparation for the 2023 season. Impala Rugby Club coach, Johan Engelbrecht, revealed to Platinum Weekly that the club’s 2021 player of the year, Corrie Olwagen, is back in their books!

“Work commitments have kept him off the field for a while, but we are happy that he has committed to playing for us next year,” said Engelbrecht, “Olwagen plays centre and will definitely help us by adding the much-needed experience in our backline.”

Engelbrecht explained that the club is also planning to attract more players to their camp. “We have not yet recruited any players from outside. However, we have communicated with some local businesses who will help us to provide job opportunities for some of the players whom we are aiming to recruit.”

The coach explained that trials for new players will be held on Thursday 2 February 2023 ahead of two friendly matches that will be played during the same month.

“Our first friendly match is at home against Randfontein on Saturday 11 February 2023, and we will be away in the second friendly match against Roodepoort on Saturday 25 February.

We will also play our first tournament on Saturday 11 March,” explained Engelbrecht. “We have chosen to play our friendly matches against these two sides because they are very fast and physical, and this will be a very good training opportunity for the boys.”

For more information, contact Impala Rugby Club president Wynand Burger on 061 530 3193.

RACE FOR GOLDEN BOOT HOTS UP

SA – Three players are holding the lead on the scoring charts as the race to win the DStv premier soccer league (PSL) gathers momentum. While the league matches will only resume on Saturday 31 December 2022, the race to win the top scorer award has become one of the major talking points during the brief break.

Every year, the Lesley Manyathela award (popularly referred to as the ‘golden boot’) is awarded to the player who manages to score the most goals at the end of each season.

Kaizer Chiefs striker Bonfils Bimenyimana, SuperSport United’s Bradley Grobler, and Peter Shalulile from Mamelodi Sundowns are all on six goals after emerging as the most potent strikers of the season. But while these three marksmen have set the pace, the race to win the accolade is set to be a very tightly contested one.

With a short stretch left before the year’s soccer season is decided, fans eagerly anticipate the scoring winner.

2022 AUTUMN NATIONS SERIES

Sa vs Engeland

Die Bokke verras vriend en vyand en behaal 'n welverdiende oorwinning op Twickenham teen die bleekbene. Dit is die eerste keer in agt jaar in Engeland, en hoe soet was die oorwinning van 27-13 nie?! Die Bok vories het die Engelse pap geskrum en wat dit nog meer indrukwekkend maak, is die feit dat die Bokke die laaste twintig minute met net sewe vories moes klaarkom na die rooikaart teen die voorry Thomas du Toit. Om die sout verder in die Ingelse se wonde te vryf, skrum die sewe ysters die Rose dat hulle spat!

Faf en Damian Willemse het as skakelpaar geskitter en die spoedvraat Kurt-Lee Arendse het 'n droom drie gedruk wat die 82,000 toeskouers lank sal onthou.

Wallis vs Australië

Die Walliese toeskouers het lekker gesing met die telling 34-12 in die tuisspan se guns. Maar o aarde, die Wallabies veg terug in die laaste kwartier en wen 39-34!

Die eindfluitjie vir toets ruggas het nou geblaas vir 2022 ou groene. Die Sewes Rugby skop eerskomende naweek af in Dubai. Hoop die Blitse daag op en maak SA trots. Op 'n hartseer noot word daar eer gebring aan die 52-jarige voormalige Skotse rugby speler, Doddie Weir, wat gesterf het ween Motoneuronsiekte. Weir was 'n yster slot en het 61 keer vir Skotland uitgedraf. Doddie was ook in die Britse en Ierse Leeus span wat in 1997 in Suid Afrika getoer het.

Nag ou groene... tot 2023. Wêreldbeker jaar!

UNITED RUGBY CHAMPIONSHIP

Die gewilde reeks het weer afgeskop die afgelope naweek. Op tuisbodem klop die Bulle die Ospreys gemaklik op Fort Loftus. Die Leeus het weer gebrul in Jo'burg en wen 33-25 teen die Dragons. Die Stormers het in Kaapstad goeie ruggas opegedis om met 36-19 baas te speel.

In Durban was dit moeilik om te onderskei tussen trane en reëndruppels ou grote. In gietende reën verdrink die Haaie en verloor 0-35 teen Cardiff. Skokkend! En nou is die Haai coach, Sean Everitt, summier afgedank! Sjoie. Eina.
