Rustenburg – The 23rd annual Poison Rally, which revved from Friday 2 December to Sunday 4 December 2022, lured many zealous bikers to its full-throttled gathering at the Rustenburg Kloof.

Founded by Jakes and Colette Oosthuizen, it's hard to imagine the Poison Rally's staple beginnings. Back in the day, Jakes's heart started to thump for motorbikes when he worked as a young scooter driver for Pizza Hut where his now wife, Colette, worked as a manager. As the years passed, Jakes and Colette's fervour for biking – and each other – kept on rolling, until the couple eventually decided to start their own rally...

Attorney's R700,000 theft case set for January

Rustenburg – Betty Diale (a former attorney) is facing six charges of theft amounting to R700,000 – allegedly stolen from Road Accident Fund (RAF) claimants. The case has been set for pre-trial on Monday 27 January 2023.

"Diale has indicated to the court that she will be representing herself and the state will be providing her with all the necessary documents in preparation for her trial," said National Prosecuting Authority (NPA) spokesperson for the North West, Henry Mamothame.

- which is a legal body that oversees the conduct of attorneys – received several complaints from RAF claimants whose payments were allegedly deposited into Diale's trust account. Claimants stated that their funds did not reach them after their due pay outs and proceeded to sue the trust in court.

During the occurrence of the crimes, Diale was practicing as an attorney from 2009-2011, and was subsequently charged with six counts of theft in June 2021.

TRESPASSER KILLED BY SECURITY DOG

Mogwase – A pit bull mauled a 39-year-old intruder to death at a tavern in Mogwase during the early hours of Saturday morning 3 December 2022. At closing time, the owner of the tavern instructed patrons to leave, and once all the patrons had gone, he released his dog to commence his guard duties. According to North West Police Spokesperson, lieutenant colonel Amanda Funani, Floyd Metsileng was a patron at the tavern the previous evening who had returned to the tavern after its closing time. "He climbed over the wall, and a dog attacked him," said Funani.

Ambulance and police were called to the scene where they confirmed Metsileng's death.

The Rustenburg Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals (SPCA) manager, Marisa Kruger, verified that the dog was handed over to them. "The owner handed over both his dogs to the SPCA and unfortunately they had to be euthanised."

An inquest has been registered and police are still investigating the matter.

The pit bull – like the rottweiler, Doberman pinscher, German shepherd, and Rhodesian ridgeback (to name but a few) – is part of the 'power breed' group of canines. Any dog of the power breed group is in general larger, and stronger than other breeds. This also makes them appealing to dog owners who want a dog that can protect them and their property from intruders.

Rustenburg – The 23rd annual Poison Rally, which revved from Friday 2 December to Sunday 4 December 2022, lured many zealous bikers to its full-throttled gathering at the Rustenburg Kloof. Founded by Jakes and Colette Oosthuizen, it's hard to imagine the Poison Rally's staple beginnings. Back in the day, Jakes's heart started to thump for motorbikes when he worked as a young scooter driver for Pizza Hut where his now wife, Colette, worked as a manager. As the years passed, Jakes and Colette's fervour for biking – and each other – kept on rolling, until the couple eventually decided to start their own rally...

And so, the first Poison Rally was born in Boons – between Koster and Magaliesburg – in 1998. With a total of 683 attendees, Jakes and Colette's rally humbly included a nine-kilometre dirt road, a power supply that was provided by a generator, stage music that blasted from a simple megaphone, and a handful of games such as tug-of-war, slow-race, and tyre-throw.

To add more colour than the usual rally, new games like knife-throw, tomato-throw, and gladiators were rolled into the agenda.

Since then, the Poison Rally's venue has travelled across different locations throughout the years, with Rustenburg's last Poison Rally taking place a little more than a decade ago! (2010)

But this year the smell of petrol once again lingered at the Rustenburg Kloof as more than 5,000 eager biking enthusiasts pulled in for a weekend of rip-roaring excitement. Although the gates were only set to open at 07:00 on the said Friday morning, many bikers had already swarmed in on Thursday where they slept at the gates with anticipation.

"The Poison Rally is an opportunity for clubs from all over to come together and end the year on a high note," said Colette, "It was a tough year for many, so we hope that those who attended left with some newfound enthusiasm and some extra oomph to finish off the year."

It can certainly be said that the Poison Rally has grown into a huge mean machine as many additions and upgrades have been made over time. This year's well-organised rally saw a variety of stalls that equipped bikers with every sort of biking gear and filled their tanks with an assortment of food and drink.

Attached to the lively fun were the stunts, fear factor, and 'Poison's Got Talent' competitions which added to the adrenaline rush.

Musicians Francois van Coke, Botter, Jumper Jax, Drommedaris, Morgan, Tryst, Piet Pompies and Beeskraal delivered high-octane entertainment and kept the wheels turning – this time, without the need for a megaphone.

"We were very excited to attend this year's Poison Rally as it was our first Poison Rally. We came to have fun and to socialise with our biker brothers and we were not disappointed," said biker, Willem Pietersen.

Unsurprisingly, the roaring South African rally not only enticed bikers from Botswana and Namibia but also attracted the attention of some overseas bikers who were reported to have flown in with their bikes from as far as the Netherlands!

"We are very happy with the turnout and proud to say that no injuries were reported. The service, shows, bikes – and especially the people – were amazing! It was truly a rally to remember!" concluded Colette, who probably never foresaw that their Poison Rally would have stretched so many thrilling kilometres!

‘n Regte country meisie

Rustenburg – Na Mari Minnaar se fantastiese optrede by Kenny Gee’s in Kroondal op Vrydag 26 November 2022, het Platinum Weekly opgevang om meer uit te vind oor dié talentvolle sangeres.

Van kleins af het musiek diep in Mari se hart gelê, en sy het altyd ‘n manier gekry om melodie en lied deel te maak van haar daaglikse aktiwiteite; terwyl sy gespeel het, het sy gesing, as sy skottelgoed gewas het, het sy gesing.

Haar musikale talent is egter nie oorverflik nie, want sy het geen familielede wat musikaal aangelê is nie. Dit beteken dat haar liefde vir sing relatief volksvreemd in haar gesin was. Maar daar was lig aan die einde van die tunnel; volgens Mari het haar pa baie goeie musieksmaak gehad, en het haar grootgemaak met musiek van Don Williams, wat haar baie geïnspireer en gemotiveer het.

Mari is ook ‘n plaasmeise van natuur; sy het rondom perde groot geword, en die kombinasie van musiek en die plaaslewe het ‘n passie vir country musiek in haar aangewakker. Later, met die hulp van ‘n familievriend, het Mari haar musikale talente begin ontwikkel en kort voor lank het sy haar hart begin uitsing op die verhoog.

Mari se stem – wat mens maklik ontvoer – kan gereeld op Rustenburg se verhoë en omliggende areas waardeer word. Sy tree graag by feeste op maar geniet ook privaat/ kleiner funksies omdat dit meer persoonlik is en sy ‘n atmosfeer kan skep met haar musiek en gehoor.

Alhoewel sy vir ‘n rukkie ‘n ander beroep beproef het, het haar siel haar teruggetrek na haar liedere, en vir die afgelope paar maande het sy weer begin om voltyds op haar musiek te fokus. Ons hou ons oor oop vir Mari Minnaar, wat beoog om volgende jaar ‘n Afrikaanse country album uit te bring.

Om ‘n bespreking te maak met Mari Minnaar, kontak haar op 082 068 6064, of stuur ‘n epos na mariminnaar.shows@gmail.com.

Would you like to be famous?

So you wanna be a rock superstar? And live large, a big house, five cars, you're in charge ... (Rock) Superstar – Cypress

Hill | I couldn't ask this poll question without thinking of this song. It sums it up perfectly. So, do you want to be famous?

No. I'm an extremely private individual and I enjoy it that way. I only pray for God to use me to positively influence those around me. One feels there is more purpose in being an instrument for positive energy than empty fame.

Elfas Torerai

Yes. I want to be famous. Being famous means that people pay attention to you. I want the whole world to know me. I want to use that influence to help people in need. I also want my name to be remembered so that when I die, the world will still talk about me.

Sithokozile Sibanda

Yes. I believe we are all travellers through this world. Therefore, we should seek to leave our mark. Being famous can help you to achieve this.

PSALM 121

God the Help of Those Who Seek Him

A Song of Ascents.

121 I will lift up my eyes to the hills—

From whence comes my help?

2 My help comes from the Lord,

Who made heaven and earth.

3 He will not allow your foot to be moved;

He who keeps you will not slumber.

4 Behold, He who keeps Israel

Shall neither slumber nor sleep.

5 The Lord is your keeper;

The Lord is your shade at your right hand.

6 The sun shall not strike you by day,

Nor the moon by night.

7 The Lord shall preserve

you from all evil;

He shall preserve your soul.

8 The Lord shall preserve your going out and your

coming in

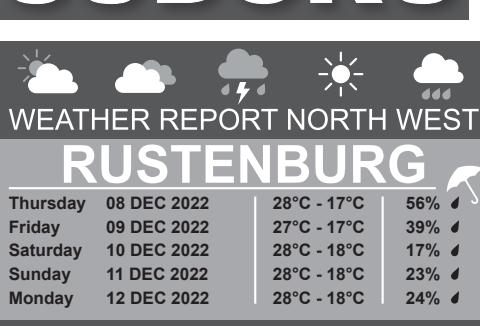

From this time

forth, and even

Are you heading towards a burnout?

Rustenburg – December is almost here, and as we get closer to the finish line, most people are starting to feel the physical and mental exhaustion the year has brought them. After all, even the strongest of marathon runners often start to feel the strain during the last stretch of the race. But sometimes it's a lot more than just being momentarily tired. Your exhaustion could indicate that you are overworked and overstressed—and heading towards a burnout! We all have days where we feel tired, overworked, stressed, and hopeless. But when you're constantly feeling low, it can mean that you have burnt out your mental and physical reserves.

A burnout doesn't happen overnight. A burnout can gradually affect all areas of your life, such as work, health, and relationships.

Please keep an eye out for these red flags:

- You feel tired and drained most of the time
- You start to get sick more frequently
- You persistently experience headaches and/or muscle pain
- Change in your appetite; you either eat less or more than usual

- Change in your sleeping habits; you struggle to sleep, or you struggle to wake up
- You feel like a failure
- You feel helpless
- You start to isolate yourself from others
- You start procrastinating or take longer to do things
- You start skipping work
- You're frequently late for work

According to Job Shimankana Tabane Hospital (JST) acting assistant director for mental health, sister Edith Letswalo, mental health is defined as the ability for one to be able to manage thoughts and emotions swiftly and effectively. This entails realising your own ability and being able to cope with stressors.

Mental health is not something that should be taken lightly. It affects how we think, feel, and act. It also helps determine how we handle stress, relate to others, and make decisions.

"I urge all community members to give support to those that have mental health illnesses. No one is immune to mental illness," said Letswalo.

Buckle up, baby!

[Letter to the editor]

Rustenburg – While driving down Nelson Mandela Street last week, a woman in a car cut me off when she suddenly decided to change lanes. At first, I felt only slightly inconvenienced, but I quickly got very upset when I saw that her toddler was standing upright in the backseat of her car!

As if this wasn't enough, when we reached the next robot, I stopped next to her and noticed that she was busy typing on her phone. The light turned green, and she continued driving without looking up from her phone.

A few robots further, I managed to get ahead of her. The light turned orange, and realizing that I wasn't going to make it, I came to a stop. The distracted mom didn't see that I came to a standstill and had to swerve into another lane to avoid rear-ending me. All this with her young son unbuckled in the back seat.

According to regulation 213 (6A) of the National Road Traffic Act instituted on 30 April 2015, the driver of a motor vehicle operated on a public road, shall ensure that an infant travelling in such a motor vehicle is seated on an appropriate child restraint... Secondly, studies have shown that child-safety seats that are correctly installed for use by children aged zero to four years, can reduce the need for hospitalisation by 69% after an accident. I know what you're thinking: "I carry my three-year-old everywhere, I'm strong, and I always make sure that they are safe in my arms. Surely, I would be able to hold onto them in an accident."

Did you know that in an accident, your body weight is multiplied by the speed at which you travel? This crash force means that if you are in an accident travelling at 60 km per hour, your 10 kg three-year-old's crash force would be 600 kg. Would you be able to hold onto three full-size gorillas? If you are lucky enough to have an airbag, the force at which the airbag releases equals hitting the ground after falling from the third floor of a building. Your safety belt protects you from that.

Your next excuse would probably be: "But what if I put the safety belt over both of us?" Well, imagine the crash force of your body pressing your child against a safety belt. Think long and hard about these numbers and then decide if a quick drive to the shop at 60 km per hour – with other reckless drivers on the road – is worth being too lazy to buckle up your child.

Buckle Up!

Lighting the path to Christmas

Rustenburg – Laerskool Silwerrand Primary wanted to promote hope within the Rustenburg community, and as they brainstormed, the idea of a Festival of Lights stood out like a candle in the dark. In April 2022, they acquired all the lights from the legendary Danville 'Liggiehuis' to use for their very own Festival of Lights. The festival kicked off on Thursday 1 December 2022 as thousands of lights lit up the school's premises. All the funds that were raised by this initiative will go towards Rustenburg Child Welfare to help them to provide the necessities for the children in their care. The lights will remain on every evening from 19:00-22:00 until Saturday 10 December 2022. Entrance is R10 as well as one non-perishable food item per person. Feel free to bring a present or a gift to brighten up Christmas for the youngsters at Rustenburg Child and Family Welfare.

[Letter to the editor]

Rustenburg – I don't mean to sound grumpy; I love to see children at play, but when safety becomes a concern, it becomes an issue. For the past week, I've been running my errands with extra vigilance because of new additions on the streets.

Schools have closed, and of course, kids are eager to be out and about – with or without parental permission. And although I acknowledge their need to deflate and socialise, I must say that they have become a bit of a concern—especially on the main roads.

One especially nerve-racking occasion happened while I was travelling on Beyers Naude; the group of kids paid little notice to oncoming traffic while they tugged and teased at each other along the sidewalk—with one almost absentmindedly stepping onto the road!

I'd hate to see any parent starting the festive season with heartache, which is why I encourage parents to keep track of their kids and urge them to stay within safe, supervised perimeters.

North West principal wins National Teaching Award for Excellence in Primary School Leadership in South Africa

Rustenburg – Mrs Dikeledi Sekopamotse, principal of Platinum Village Primary School has won the award for Primary School Leadership in South Africa at the North West Department of Education's National Teaching Awards. Mrs Sekopamotse was selected by judges for demonstrating 'Resilience in Pursuit of Excellence'. She was one of multiple finalists selected from primary schools all over South Africa. Says Mrs Sekopamotse: "When I joined Platinum Village Primary School in 2017, the school was very new, and all the educators were young teachers who had come straight from university. I had to lead by example, using the experience that I brought to Platinum Village Primary School. Our vision at the school is to transform our learners into 21st century learners. We focus on instilling all the skills of information and communication technologies (ICT) in our classrooms and teaching learners in a way that ensures they remember their lessons better than the old system of teaching. We believe in developing our learners holistically, and we are very proud that our school's u/13 soccer team was the runner up in this year's Royal Bafokeng and Impala sponsored Metshameko programme."

In a letter to the CE of Impala Rustenburg, Mark Munroe, Mrs Sekopamotse credits Impala Rustenburg's education team for the support provided to Platinum Village Primary School. She says, "In my presentation motivating the reasons why I am a resilient leader, a huge part of it was about the support we receive from Impala, and the mentors who come every week to help our young educators teaching methods. Impala is always there to help us whenever we have any maintenance challenges, and for anything we ask."

Platinum Village Primary School was built by Impala in 2016 and continues to receive support through the company's teacher mentor programme. Says Munroe: "Impala is honoured to work alongside Mrs Sekopamotse and the teachers in our mine-community schools and to make a difference in the lives of children, helping them to realise their full potential. We are proud to play a part in Platinum Village Primary School's journey through our educational support programme, and we wish Mrs Sekopamotse continued success."

Mrs Sekopamotse concludes by saying: "Thank you to my Platinum Village family, my learners, parents, the student governing body, my beautiful staff and to our partner, Impala Rustenburg. We would not have received this award if we didn't have the support from Impala as our partner in education."

Richards Bay punch above their weight

SA – The impressive performance of Richards Bay in the DStv Premier Soccer League (PSL) has become one of the major talking points of the 2022/23 soccer season. If the PSL were to be equated to a boxing match, then this team from KwaZulu-Natal has certainly punched above their weight! This young team – which was formed in 2017 – is the surprise package of the current season and very few would have predicted that they would be sitting in a good position at this stage of the league title. After 13 matches, Richards Bay is second on the log behind leaders Mamelodi Sundowns with 23 points. They have won six of their matches – the same as PSL giants SuperSport United and Kaizer Chiefs – and like Sundowns, they have lost only two matches so far. A mentionable achievement is that Richards Bay is currently better placed on the PSL log than Chiefs, Orlando Pirates, and SuperSport—who are all more established teams. This team has certainly defied the odds, but the big question is: will they be able to continue with their good form once the league matches resume?

Find out on Saturday 31 December 2022 when Richards Bay takes on Moroka Swallows at the Peter Mokaba Stadium.

Season's greetings from Protea Athletics Club

Rustenburg – Someone once said, "We run because we can, and when we get tired, we remember those who can't; we think of what they would give to have this simple gift we often take for granted, and we run harder for them because we know they would do the same for us."

Thank you to our athletes and supporters for all your support and dedication; we wish you all a successful new running year. And remember, what appears to be hard now will one day seem like an easy warm-up!

WHAT'S Cooking?

Pontsho Rachwene

Melt in your mouth melting moments

Melting moments

Pontsho Rachwene is the founder and chief executive officer of LePBakersHouse. "As a self-taught baker, I'm very passionate about baking. It all started when I forgot to place the order for my son's birthday and had to bake cupcakes myself as I didn't want to disappoint him," she explained. Although they tasted delicious, Pontsho admits that she was not happy with how they were decorated. This encouraged her to hone her craft and she started baking cakes and cupcakes for family members on their birthdays. Her baked goods started to become very popular and during lockdown she had enough time to practice these skills.

"It felt so comfortable being in the kitchen, baking and working with ingredients. It's been two years and I still enjoy being in the kitchen. I thank God for the opportunity," she added.

Ingredients

- 250g soft butter
- ½ cup Maizena
- ½ cup icing sugar
