

MEC Sello Lehari urged for discussions of peace.

Rustenburg – Local bus operators are complaining of taxi operators forcefully removing commuters from buses and forcing them into taxis. In an urgent attempt to restore law and order and the proper and safe functioning of local transport services, a meeting between local taxi associations and representatives of the Bojanala bus company was convened.

The North West Department of Community Safety and Transport Management (DCSTM) member of the executive council (MEC) Sello Lehari was accompanied by the members of the Rustenburg municipality mayoral committee (MMCs) for public safety, cllr Virginia Mputle and cllr Lebo Pule in a bid to resolve the rising conflict between local transport operators.

Taxi associations and members from the Bojanala bus company operating in Rustenburg CBD met with MEC Lehari to hash out rising tensions on Wednesday 29 March 2023. The call for a meeting came after there had been complaints of taxi operators who remove commuters from buses and force them into their taxis. MEC Lehari declared extraordinary measures to deal with the conflict and called for interactive discussions with the public transport sector. The chairperson of the North West Public Transport Intervention Team (NWPTIT) Phenyne Vilakazi informed MEC Lehari that they have been engaging with the parties to ensure stability in the province.

During the meeting, it was noted that if the conflict was left unattended, tensions could spiral out of control and affect other provinces as transport operators travel to other areas outside the North West.

Beware of fake friends and family who ask to borrow money

Rustenburg – Derby resident Annatjie Maree received a message on WhatsApp from someone claiming to be her son-in-law on Sunday 26 March 2023.

The message read: "Morning mom, I need to ask you something, but Hendrina can't know about it." Hendrina is the name Annatjie's daughter uses on Facebook, so she immediately knew something wasn't right. The way the message was written also didn't sound like her son-in-law.

She asked him why he was messaging her from a new number and not his usual number and the person explained that he was using a new number because the other had poor signal. He also told her that she could delete his old number.

The person then asked her if he could borrow R3,500. She asked if he was in trouble, and he said that he just needed to pay a few things before the end of the month. "I told him that I would get back to him and then phoned my daughter to confirm the issue, but they didn't know anything about the matter," Annatjie said.

Annatjie's next move was to ask the scammer for his banking details so that she could see whether the scammer had her son-in-law's account number. The scammer then inquired about the bank she uses. She asked again for his

banking details and received the same question. Annatjie then opted to asked him where he got her number and her children's names and was immediately blocked.

Annatjie suspects that he might have gotten her details on Facebook. A bit of research showed that it was not an isolated incident, as others have also reported the number and lodged it as a spam number on a caller identification app. These scammers try to fool you by using personal details like Annatjie's daughter's name. If you receive a message from a 'friend or family member', using a new number, be cautious—especially if they ask for money. Most of us are always ready to help family, and this is exactly what scammers rely on.

In remembrance

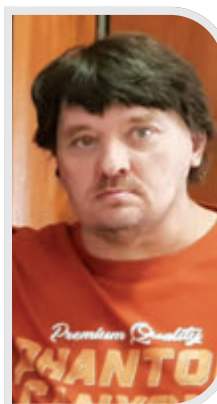

Phillip van der Merwe verlaat 'n groot leemte.

Rus in vrede, lieve Phillip

Phillip van der Merwe, 'n pragtige lewenslustige 12 jarige seun is op Woensdag 22 Maart 2023 oorlede. Phillip was altyd reg vir 'n grappie en het gereeld gelag. Hy het na die positiewe kant van die lewe gekyk en maklik vergewe. Sy pa, Flip van der Merwe beskryf hom as 'n awesome kind wat altyd geglimlag het. Hy was baie lief vir sy mamma, en vir sy twee stiefsussies, Mieke Louwies en Xsante du toit, was hy iemand op wie hulle altyd kon staatmaak. Phillip en Xsante was soos kettie en klip. Phillip was 'n goeie tennisspeler en was ook lief daarvoor om sokker saam met sy maatjies te speel. Die natuur was vir hom soos 'n tweede tuiste, en hy was baie lief vir visvang en kamp. Phillip se afsterwe het Laerskool Vastrap, en veral sy Graad 7-maats, hard geruk. By die skool word hy beskryf as 'n mens wat ander gewys het hoe om te leef, en hoe om uit te sien na elke volgende oomblik. Sy liefde vir die lewe het in sy helder blou oë geskitter. Vastrap dink met innige simpatie in hierdie moeilike tyd aan sy ouers, familie, en maats. Sy Vastrap-plekkie is leeg, en hy laat 'n groot leemte in die lewens van almal wat hom geken het. Rus in vrede, lieve Phillip. Phillip se gedenkdienste het op 29 Maart 2023 vanuit die Uncaged Kerk in Rustenburg plaasgevind.

ROBBERS BOMB CASH-DROP-VAULT

Robbers got away with a large sum of money, and also incurred damages to the shop estimated at R1 million due to the explosion they set off.

Rustenburg – Robbers bombed a cash-drop vault inside a Total Garage quick shop on Monday 27 March 2023. People living close to the Total Garage on President Mbeki Drive were woken up by a loud blast at around 03:15 caused by an explosive used by the robbers. “Five suspects arrived at around 3:15 in a white Ford bakkie. While one remained in the vehicle, four broke the door of the shop, threatened the cashier, and took her out of the cashier cubicle where they accessed the cash-drop vault,” said an eyewitness who prefers to remain anonymous. “Another suspect planted an explosive on the cash-drop vault and all the suspects ran out. After the explosion, they came back and discovered that most of the money had been damaged by the blast,” he added.

Aside from the loss of the damaged notes, a large sum of money was stolen, and shop damages estimated at R1 million were incurred due to the explosion. Fortunately, no employees were hurt during the ordeal. Police spokesperson colonel Adele Myburgh said that all of the suspects were wearing balaclavas during the robbery and could not be identified. “Four victims, namely one shop assistant and three petrol attendants, were all held at gunpoint during the explosion and robbery. One of the five suspects remained in the getaway vehicle, in which the suspects sped away afterwards,” Myburgh said. Anyone with information on this case should please contact constable Patricia Meko on 014 590 4115/ 014 590 4116.

LAPTOP THIEVES DENIED BAIL

Rustenburg/ Tlhabane – Two foreigners facing charges of theft from breaking into a motor vehicle and illegal immigration were denied bail when they appeared in the Bafokeng Magistrates Court for a second time on Tuesday 28 March 2023. Adam Kufeni and Wayne Masike are accused of breaking into a woman’s car where they stole a laptop and other belongings from inside the vehicle. Police spokesperson sergeant Ofentse Mokgadi said on Saturday 18 March, Tlhabane SAPS members received a tip-off which mentioned a suspect armed with a firearm roaming around Lefaragatlhe village. After arriving at the village, police demanded to search the man’s residence and discovered identity documents, mine access cards, and a toy firearm. “He was immediately arrested for possession of suspected stolen property such as identity documents and access cards,” Mokgadi said. Mokgadi said police linked the documents found in the suspect’s possession to a woman who had reported theft out of her motor vehicle. “During the interview, the suspect was able to give more information and the name of his accomplice. He took the police to where they had sold the victim’s laptop and other items. The man who allegedly bought the laptop was arrested and charged for receiving stolen property,” Mokgadi said. The two suspects will be back in the same court on 12 April and police are still carrying out further investigations.

As the world commemorated International Women's Day and Women's History Month in March, Impala Rustenburg continued in its quest to support women in our mine-communities through partnerships with women-owned businesses like Phenyontle Projects.

Impala partners with Phenyontle Projects

Phenyontle Projects is a 100% black woman-owned business that specialises in Hospital Corporate Clothing. Owner Khumo Lorraine Boikanyo shares her story.

Q What motivated you to start the business?

A It is the passion I have for business. My mother is a trained seamstress and business is in my DNA. Growing up, we used to sell curtains door-to-door. I am driven by the need to inspire others, but most importantly, to add value to our society and to be independent. My 16 years of working experience at Impala Rustenburg, working both underground and on surface, equipped me with the skills and knowledge to confidently enter this market. Our country is truly alive with possibilities that can be grasped by those willing to enhance their skills and those with the willingness to escape their comfort zones.

Q How long have you been in business?

A Phenyontle Projects has been in business since 2018. Since its inception, the company has been providing excellent service to Impala, mainly in mining supply, and we have now been awarded our first official contract with Impala. This is very exciting and motivates us to continue pushing to deliver.

Q What has been your biggest success to date?

A It would be unfair for me to exclude the day we received our first Request for Quotation (RFQ) from the mine, which happened to be the day my late father passed on. Despite this sad coincidence, this contract from Impala has been the highlight of my entrepreneurial journey. It also came in the same week that Phenyontle Foundation was launched.

Those two projects have become the pride of our company. My wonderful team has been hands-on ever since to ensure that everything runs efficiently and smoothly.

Q What is your vision for the future?

A The future is always unpredictable, given the unstable economy we find ourselves in. However, I envision Phenyontle as one of the most recognised entities in its sector. Also being able to create jobs and upskill people from different spheres of the Bafokeng region and beyond, since we align ourselves with the "more than mining" philosophy. My vision is to be the change that I want to see.

Q What does the contract with Impala mean for your business?

A This contract is a door opener for every dream that other women might have, in terms of job opportunities and social development programmes. I would like to thank Impala for this opportunity; it shows how much they support local businesses with regard to skills development and growth.

For more information on Phenyontle's services, call 010 443 6086 or email admin@phenyontleprojects.co.za

Ex-municipality director accused of fraud

Mogwase – A former Moses Kotane Local Municipality director appeared before the Mogwase Magistrates' Court on Tuesday 28 March 2023 on six charges of fraud. Madikela was granted R10,000 bail and is expected back in court on 19 April. Madikela was also asked to surrender her passport to the investigating officer.

Gabonewe Ridam Madikela (39) allegedly defrauded the municipality of R522 881 by receiving two salaries from different governmental departments for six months without the knowledge of the local government body.

National Prosecuting Authority (NPA) spokesperson for the North West Henry Mamothame said that Madikela was arrested by the Hawks Serious Commercial Crime Investigation unit on 27 March 2023 following a thorough investigation into the alleged offence.

“Her arrest emanates from her fraudulent orchestration of theft, involving her salary while she was employed by the Moses Kotane Local Municipality as a director in charge of local economic development during the period of April to September 2022,” said Mamothame. “It is alleged that in March 2022 the accused applied for study leave from 30 March 2022 to 24 May 2022, with a confirmation letter from an institution of higher learning. On 29 March 2022, she applied for 39 days of annual leave from 08 May 2022 to 27 June 2022, with the municipality granting her leave on both applications. Towards the end of the annual leave, she submitted sick notes from a private medical facility in Akasia, purportedly issued by her doctor, indicating that she was sickly and hospitalised.

Investigations by the Hawks revealed that during the period of her leave and purported illness, she was employed by the Department of Water and Sanitation as a director, while still earning a salary from the Moses Kotane Local Municipality. Investigations reveal that the reasons provided for her leave were false, including supporting documents from the institution of higher learning, as well as the medical certificates she provided as proof.”

GLENCORE FERROALLOYS SPONSORS NEW WOMEN’S CRICKET TEAM

Glencore Boshhoek and Wonderkop Smelter employees, members of North-West Cricket Union and the Glencore Dragons cricket team.

Rustenburg - Glencore Ferroalloys’ Boshhoek and Wonderkop Smelters partnered with North West Cricket to support young, female local cricket players from the North West province.

Through the sponsorship, Glencore aims to expand and support advocacy for women’s sports in communities near their operations. The objective of the sponsorship reaffirms Glencore’s commitment to transformation through inclusivity and equality, fostering environments conducive to success in its workplace and communities. The Boshhoek and Wonderkop Smelters officially launched their title sponsorship and cricket jersey reveal at the JB Marks Oval in Potchefstroom on Tuesday, 21 March 2023. The day was spent cheering on South Africa in their match against the West Indies, and following South Africa’s thrilling victory, Glencore officially revealed the ‘Glencore Dragons’ as the new name of the sponsored women’s cricket team.

Supporting women’s sports in rural communities provides opportunities to effect social, economic, and environmental change, as well as contribute to sustainable development, and social cohesion, and even challenge mindsets and prejudice in the sporting environment.

Thereafter, 10 businesses will be selected on 3 April 2023 and given the opportunity to exhibit at the Waterfall Mall, along with interview opportunities on Pulse FM 92.9, editorial exposure in Platinum Weekly and outdoor advertising exposure via Turn Media. Lastly, the apex of the Waterfall Mall's 'Grow Your Business' competition offers two qualifying businesses—selected by a panel of professional judges—media packages valued at R100,000 each.

Journalist and representative of Platinum Weekly, Dinka Minnaar, used the seminar as an opportunity to give local small business owners advice which aligns with Platinum Weekly's love of its community. "Fostering is a sense of community—which is the Platinum Weekly slogan—is one of the reasons why we were excited to be part of the grow your small business initiative, as the competition's main drive is to give back to others by giving local business a boost," said Danika. "A business must strive to uphold the values of its community because no one can function successfully in isolation. Respecting and considering your community is extremely vital. Community members are the ones who will support your product or service. Always take the time to listen, and if your business enables you to help—don't hesitate to give back! Platinum Weekly especially believes in uplifting others, which is why we often engage with our community by assisting non-profit organisations. We believe in a worthy cause, and we believe that the right amount of exposure can work miracles! Owning a business is about more than making a profit. It's about creating an income to support yourself and or your family. It's about creating job opportunities where others can also support themselves, and it's about being in a position where you can help others," concluded Danika. "In a saturated and noisy marketplace, small businesses must be strategic in how they engage with their audience. To succeed, they must prioritize effective communication and strive to create meaningful connections with their customers. By consistently delivering value and creating a sense of trust and loyalty, small businesses can differentiate themselves and succeed in a highly competitive landscape," said Turn Media digital marketer Alexander Landman. Pulse FM 92.9 manager Paseka Maleka added that the competition will give small businesses the opportunity to access exposure, especially radio advertising that will reinforce their brands and services.

"I entered the competition to get more exposure for my business. During the seminar, I learnt a lot about the importance of having a marketing strategy to promote my business. Even if I don't win, I've still learnt a great deal," said Daddy and Sons Construction director Daddy Mashute. "We aim to support local small businesses who are ready to grow in the Rustenburg community," concluded Waterfall Mall marketing manager Jessica Varty.

Beekeeping, a valuable resource

SA - The 3rd Africa Regional Apimondia Symposium which took place at the Durban International Convention Centre (ICC) from 21-24 March 2023 yielded relationships for the Department of Agriculture and Rural Development (DARD) with other African countries and beekeepers. The four-day conference and networking platform was an information-sharing and policy development session for the apiculture economy that is expected to grow exponentially in Africa and particularly the North West province of South Africa in the coming years. MEC Mohono pronounced during her address at the symposium that as part of collaborating with African countries to grow the industry, the department will embark on an excursion to Tanzania during the year to benchmark the successful methods implemented for its farmers including beekeepers. She also emphasized the use of African natural resources, especially bees, in fighting the cycle of financial dependence by African countries as well as the rising unemployment, poverty, and inequality. "It's critical that beekeepers set an example and show people the potential that we have as Africans. This is a very rich continent, so as Africans, we need to protect what is ours. Our bees are one of the best and as African beekeepers, it is important for us to ensure we protect them from extinction. I want to appreciate you all because you have shown the world that you also have potential," said MEC Mohono at the Apimondia Africa roundtable. Department of Agriculture and Rural Development, press release extracts, 27 March 2023.

North West beekeepers also participated in the honey, mead, and bee products competition and were awarded in various categories.

Have your say / Sê jou sê

When it comes to a romantic interest, do you make the first move?

The very first interaction which signals romantic interest between two people is often the most difficult move to make. Do you feel comfortable making the first approach, or would you rather leave it to chance?

Yes, I've made the first move in a relationship. That's how I approached my wife; I swooped down on her like a fish eagle and as they say, 'the rest is history'.

Emmanuel Mosonza (right) and wife Degmah.

No. My husband made the first move.

Big Major Cay is an island in the Bahamas that is only inhabited by pigs! Currently, there are approximately 20 pigs just swimming their days away and enjoying the island life. The pigs aren't native to the island, and some speculate that they were perhaps left by sailors who never returned.

Bojanala Mayor tackles community challenges

Kroondal/Rustenburg – Emily Batopela (86) was overwhelmed with gratitude on Saturday 25 March 2023 after receiving two blankets and a grocery pack from the Bojanala Platinum District Municipality executive mayor councillor Magdeline Nondzaba.

Batopela, who lives in the Ikemeleng informal settlement near Kroondal, was one of 10 residents who received two blankets, and a grocery pack filled with mealie meal, flour, samp, dry beans, and tinned foods. The donation is part of the mayor's initiative to assist needy families in the area.

Emily lives with her daughter Miriam, who is currently unemployed. "We very much appreciate the help," said Miriam, "the groceries will definitely help out."

On the same day, cllr Nondzaba and her special projects team visited the Lapologang section in the Maditlhokwa village to hand over vegetable seedlings to the residents. Community members were encouraged to continue with their vegetable growing projects as the projects aid with income from their produce, and provide food when needed. The Sibanye Recreational Club in Rustenburg was the last stop for the mayor and her team.

At the venue, the municipality hosted a soul therapy session as a response to gender-based violence (GBV) affecting communities. During the session attendees were urged to be tolerant towards each other and to find non-violent solutions to personal problems.

Motivational speaker and radio personality Edith Mhlango, who addressed the attendees, called for an end to domestic violence.

"When troubles and tribulations affect relationships, couples must always remember why they met in the first place," Mhlango said. "What is important is the transformation of the mind so that a person realises that violence is not the answer."

Better days for Morné

Things are a bit brighter for Morné and Mariette Coetzer

Rustenburg - "God has been good to us," Mariette Coetzer, Morné Coetzer's wife told Platinum Weekly on Monday 27 March 2023.

The Coetzee family's life was turned upside down in August 2021 when Morné, a known member of the Rustenburg community and owner of Hunters Pub and Grill started to get sores on his legs.

The sores, which turned into ulcers, were caused by poor blood circulation because his job required him to sit for long periods of time behind a computer.

Morné went for wound care, but eventually, he could no longer keep up with the medical costs.

The Coetzer family managed to get a hospital plan in October 2021. Unfortunately, the hospital plan didn't cover Morné's treatment. To make things harder, Morné, who also works as a broker for a company, had a drastic cut in his salary which increased the financial strain.

His family nursed him at home and gradually he seemed to get better. But things took a darker turn near the end of 2022; Morné started to feel a lot of pain and was admitted to the hospital on the 10th of December.

The following day, he went into the operating theatre to have his wounds cleaned. Morné was soon after diagnosed with flesh-eating bacteria. At first, Morné put up a good fight and tried to save his legs, but on the 14th of December 2022—after another trip to the theatre—he was informed that the infection had spread too far, which left him with no choice but to amputate both his legs at the knee.

Fortunately, on 22 February 2023 Jacaranda FM's 'Good Morning Angels' gave the family a big boost by sponsoring Morné's prosthetic legs. But because Morné had a bad fall, his wounds will have to heal before he can have his new legs fitted. A local biokinetic has also offered services free of charge before and after the legs have been fitted.

According to Mariette, the fundraiser held for Morné on 4 March 2023 at Hunters Pub and Grill was a tremendous success as the community really opened their hearts to assist. "With the money we raised we managed to close a few holes," Mariette said.

Morne has also received a job offer which includes medical aid and a pension fund—something that will go a long way to lift the family's financial burden!

Although some stress has been sorted, it's only the beginning of Morné's road to recovery. If you would like to assist Morné, or for more information, contact Mariette at 082 726 0627.

Relief for Bafana Bafana

SA – On Monday 27 March 2023, South Africa's u/23 national football team were held to a 0-0 draw by Congo-Brazzaville in the second leg of the Africa Cup of Nations qualifier. The result meant that South Africa, which was held to a 1-1 draw in the first leg, failed to qualify for the prestigious Africa Cup of Nations, which will be held in Morocco later this year. Local football fans were probably bracing themselves for more disappointment ahead of the senior national team's decisive match against Liberia on Tuesday 28 March 2023. A 2-2 draw in the first leg of their African Cup of Nations qualifier in Soweto left them facing an uphill task of winning the second leg against Liberia. However, with the odds heavily stacked against them, Bafana Bafana secured a place at next year's Africa Cup of Nations with a 2-1 win over Liberia. Goals from Zakhele Lepasa and Mhlali Mayambela at the Samuel Kanyon Doe Sports Complex in Monrovia on Tuesday 28 March were enough to see South Africa through. The win resulted in a sigh of relief from local supporters as well as national team coach Hugo Broos.

'n Plek van omgee

Huis Bet El is 'n plek van rus, maar daar is altyd 'n behoefte aan hande om te help.

Mooionooi – Net buite Mooionooi, is Huis Bet El waar bejaarde mense bo 60 wat slegs 'n SASSA pensioen ontvang verblyf kan kry. Platinum Weekly het op Maandag 20 Maart 2023 met Tom en Annemarie Esterhuizen gesels oor hul roeping by die huis vir bejaardes. Tom en Annemarie Esterhuizen het 'n liefde vir alleen bejaarde mense gekry in Marloth Park waar baie bejaardes alleen bly, en het saam met Solidariteit Helpende Hand begin om bejaardes te help. Die paar het kort daarna werk gekry by Radiokansel en hulle kampeerreën bestuur. "Ons het later in 2007 ons pensioen geneem en 'n lodge gebou vir 'n ekstra inkomste. Die lang storie kort is dat ons later gevoel het dat die Here ons aan die stuur gesit het om vir bejaardes te sorg," vertel Annemarie. Hulle het in Februarie 2020 begin met vyf mense. Daar was nog nie eers badkamers gewees nie. Weldoeners het intussen begin om van die kamers te borg en daar is nou al 10 kamers en twee badkamers vir die 12 inwoners. 'n Eetsal wat deur skenkings gefinansier word, is tans in die werke. Inwoners kry twee etes daaglik, met 'n bietjie hulp van die huis se groentetuin wat deur die bejaarde inwoners onderhou word. Huis Bet El inwoners kook ook graag konfyet en hekel opvoedkundige speelgoed om fondse in te samel. "Ons kan nie anders as om eer aan ons Vader te gee nie. Hy het voorsien," vertel Annemarie. Daar is egter nog baie werk om te doen, die ekstra 10 kamers moet nog deure en krag kry, en die vloere en badkamers moet nog opgekikker word. Meeste van die werk word deur Tom gedoen, en met 'n waglys van 16 mense, daar is daar altyd baie werk om die huis te vorder en 'n groot behoefte vir hande om te help. Eskom tariewe vat ook 'n groot hap uit hulle begroting, so hul hoop om die kamers binnekort op sonpanele te koppel. Die Esterhuizens wil graag die gemeenskap nooi om met die inwoners te kom kuier, en om self te sien wat hulle doen. Vir meer inligting oor Huis Bet El kontak Annemarie op 082 936 9874.

Helping the vulnerable

Rustenburg/Tlhabane – To commemorate Human Rights Day on Tuesday 21 March 2023, the Motheo Wa Moumo organisation donated clothing, bags, accessories, and shoes to Tlhokomelo Hospice. Motheo Wa Moumo is a non-profit organisation based in Tlhabane West. The organisation was established in 2023 when a group of individuals recognised the need of vulnerable people in their community and decided to take an initiative to help. Motheo means a foundation and Moumo is the name of the tree where they meet in Geelhout Park. The organisation focuses on the most vulnerable like the elderly, unemployed youth, child-headed families, adopted children, and people who are affected by HIV/Aids and other related diseases. The organisation also hopes to empower the youth and learners in schools to become better individuals in the community. Thank you to all the good Samaritans who ensured that the event was an outstanding success. If you would like to contribute or find out more about the organisation, email motheowamoumo@outlook.com

Laerskool Elandsdraal se diensraad en die bejaardes van Mooionooi kuier lekker saam.

Mooionooi - Laerskool Elandsdraal se diensraad het die voorreg gehad om 'n paar van Mooionooi se bejaardes te bederf op Menseregtedag op Dinsdag 21 Maart 2023. Daar is lekker gekuier, gedans, geëet en gelag. Die diensraad wil elke ouer bedank vir hul bydra om van die dag 'n sukses te maak. AN EPIC CYCLING EXPERIENCE

SA – Known as one of the most gruelling and physically demanding cycling events in South Africa, this year's ABSA Cape Epic lived up to its billing once again. The Rustenburg Cycling Club (RCC) is proud of all its members who were part of the race which was held in Paarl from 20 to 26 March 2023. It was seven days of tough cycling in challenging, windy, rainy, and muddy conditions!

Glencore Ferroalloys partners with Ligbron e-Learning System to improve Rustenburg Schools results

Rustenburg - 10 March 2023 – Mathematics and physical science are regarded as the two most crucial gateway subjects to take in high school as they can be key in setting up students for success, no matter which career path they choose. However, in recent years there has been a decrease in the number of students who select these two subjects. In 2022, The Outlier reported that only one in three Grade 12 students wrote mathematics and only one in four wrote science in the 2021 National Senior Certificates Exams. These are one of the many reasons that prompted Glencore Ferroalloys' Boshoeck Smelter operation, together with the Department of Education to introduce the Ligbron e-Learning System to local schools in and around Glencore operations in Boshoeck and Macharora. The Ligbron e-Learning System, which is the first in the North West Province, connects schools all over South Africa into an online learning network to live stream mathematics and science lessons using video conferencing and desktop sharing.

IMPALA BATTLES ON...

Rustenburg – Impala Rugby Club's first team have finished a credible fourth in this year's Philip van Rensburg Cup. On Saturday 25 March 2023, the team lost to Potchefstroom 24-21 in their final match of the cup competition. Impala battled hard but found the going tough against a team that was in familiar territory and took full advantage of playing in front of their home supporters. As the final score suggests, the match turned out to be a very closely contested one. Despite the loss, Impala is happy that it finished fourth out of the eight teams who took part and club manager Trevor Visser was impressed with the team's overall performance. "All the players are in good condition, and we don't have any injuries. We will work hard in the coming weeks to make sure we are ready for the Leopards League, which starts on 15 April 2023," Visser said.

Impala Rugby Club is in good condition for the Leopards League.
