ZINNIIVILLE LOSES A BELOVED HUMANITARIAN

Friday 2nd June 2023 marked a day of grief with the passing away of dearest Fiona Saloojee due to the dreaded disease (cancer) that has claimed the lives of many loved ones, she was the daughter-in-law of the late Farouk Saloojee (Baba). Fiona was loved by both young and old.

She always made time for family, friends, and the community, she was a mother, daughter, sister to all that loved her and the wife to Faried Saloojee. Fiona always placed the interest of the people and humanity at heart, she always sacrificed and dedicated her time and energy for the love of charity organisations. She was highly active in many charitable organisations such as the Alimdaad Foundation and other religious institutions and non-profit children's workshops. In her short time in this world her accomplishments were extraordinary and has left a lasting legacy.

We will remember her beautiful bright smile and her noble act of selflessness and generosity, and she will be greatly missed by the community of Zinniaville, and by her friends and family.

Fiona's golden and tender heart will be cherished always, may the almighty bless her soul with peace.

CHILD KIDNAPPED IN RUSTENBURG

Rustenburg - Odirile Kgopane (35) and Luckyboy Kaluwa (36) reappeared before the Rustenburg Magistrates' Court on Tuesday 4 July 2023 for the alleged kidnapping of a 12-year-old boy in Rustenburg. Platinum Weekly followed the outcome of their court appearances, and reached out to Van Velden-Duffey junior associate Palesa Malebo, as well as Specialised Security Services specialist investigator Mike Bolhuis for an expert take on the current kidnapping laws and kidnapping developments in the North West and South Africa. Odirile Junior Kgopane and Luckyboy Gift Kaluwa were apprehended on Monday 26 June for the alleged kidnapping of a 12-year-old boy. According to information received, on Tuesday, 20 June, at approximately 16:10, the victim's mother dropped her son at a karate school in Rustenburg to attend his classes. According to police spokesperson lieutenant colonel Amanda Funani, the mother returned to collect her child at about 18:40. However, the instructor informed her that a tall and slim guy, who claimed that the victim's father had sent him, had already fetched the boy. Police were notified and the search was launched. On Wednesday, 21 June the victim's father informed the police about a message he received which demanded money from him if he wanted to find his child alive. The two suspects were arrested during a Crime Intelligence driven operation. This occurred after an apparent misunderstanding between the two suspects, which resulted in one of them, Kaluwa, dropping the boy off at one of his relatives. Kaluwa was arrested at his house where the victim had been kept after being kidnapped. Kaluwa ultimately took the police to Kgopane's house where he was also arrested. The provincial commissioner, lieutenant general Sello Kwenza congratulated Rustenburg Crime Intelligence, Rustenburg Family Violence, Child Protection and Sexual Offences Unit (FCS) for working around the clock and making sure that the suspects were arrested. Platinum Weekly followed the outcome of Kaluwa and Kgopane's court appearances at the Rustenburg Magistrates' Court on 4 July. Luckyboy Kaluwa received a R1,500 fine for contravening immigration laws, or the option of 30 days imprisonment, while Odirile Kgopane will remain in custody until his next court appearance on Friday 18 August. "Kidnappings are on the increase, not only in the North West, but throughout the country. Most commonly—although not exclusively—kidnappers target individuals who are perceived as being well off as they aim to kidnap for ransom. In poorer communities, kidnappings are also afoot as kidnappers pursue individuals for personal purposes such as rape and/or organ harvesting—to name but a few. Statistics alone cannot give a clear scope, as not all kidnappings are reported to the police," said specialist investigator Mike Bolhuis in an interview with Platinum Weekly on 21 June. From January to March 2023 a total of 139 kidnappings were recorded in the North West. This is a significant increase of 14,9% from the period of January to March 2022. Nationally, a total of 3,641 kidnappings were recorded from January to March 2023—a 10.1% increase from the same period of 2022 recordings. For clarity on the current sentencing law regarding kidnapping a minor, Platinum Weekly reached out to Van Velden-Duffey junior associate Palesa Malebo. "Minimum sentencing is 5 years imprisonment, however, if the kidnapping was accompanied by rape of the minor and or the intention to do grievous bodily harm, we are looking at a minimum of life imprisonment," said Malebo. We then asked the junior associate's professional opinion as to whether the kidnapping sentencing is hefty enough for South Africa. "We do take into consideration the fact that each case must be judged on its own merits, however we are of the opinion that with the current high statistics of kidnapping of minor children in South Africa, the minimum sentencing must be reviewed. Also, kidnapping is a serious offence which deprives the parents and or legal guardians' control over the minor child, whether or not other damages were caused to the minor child during kidnapping." With matters so close to home, Platinum Weekly would like to urge community members to be extra vigilant, especially during the term break when children are more likely to require extra supervision.

Rustenburg firebreak deadline extended to 14 July 2023

When you are conducting controlled firebreaks, make sure that safety comes first!

Rustenburg – Greater Rustenburg Fire Protection Association (GRFPA) chairperson Debbie Snyman requested that Rustenburg's firebreak deadline be extended from Friday 30 June 2023 to Friday 14 July 2023. The deadline extension was granted. "Fortunately, we received a go-ahead to extend the date. The main reason for the deadline extension ask, is that Rustenburg received significant rainfall recently. The seasons are changing, and in several areas of Rustenburg, tall grass is still green, and not ready for firebreaks," said Snyman. Important to note:

- All burning in the open needs to be conducted in accordance with the law as set out in the National Veld and Forest Fire Act (NVFFA).
- Responsibility for the burn and any consequences thereof rests with the landowner or occupier.
- The community must check the daily Fire Danger Index (FDI) when considering applying for a permit to start burning. No burning is allowed when the index is orange or red!
- The FDI can be found on the GRFPA's website (www.grfpa.org) or Facebook page and consists of five colour-coded categories which indicate the level of danger and the associated prevention and preparation measures.

Snyman has the following advice to share with the community: "Please ensure that you have a permission permit to burn. Have the correct equipment in place and maintain proper supervision. It's important to inform your neighbours, cluster manager, and local fire department whenever you start a burn and after the burning has ended. Ensure that the fire has completely died down before leaving the area."

PRACTICE ENVIRONMENTAL AWARENESS

Rustenburg - A concerned environmentalist reached out to Platinum Weekly on Tuesday 13 June 2023 regarding an aerial view of a dumpsite within the Kloof Resort. According to the environmentalist, the dumpsite does shoulder a core conservation zone of the Magaliesberg Biosphere Reserve: "Having a waste site near The Kgaswane Mountain Reserve can lead to severe environmental degradation. The waste can contaminate water bodies, soil, and air, negatively affecting the delicate balance of ecosystems. Harmful chemicals, toxins, and pollutants from the waste can seep into the ground. The waste can be taken by the wind, baboons, or monkeys into the reserve. Nature reserves are designated areas specifically set aside for the preservation of forests, woodlands, and grasslands. The waste can encroach upon these habitats, disrupt the natural food chain, migration patterns, and breeding grounds of wildlife, leading to population decline and ecosystem imbalance." The aerial view, as per Google Earth, is dated as 9 October 2022, and was still dated as such at the time of going to print. Kloof management welcomed Platinum Weekly to an interview on Thursday 29 June which resulted in good news. After investigating the dumpsite, it was discovered that the Kloof Resort does perform recycling at the dumpsite, as separated waste such as plastic bottles and glass bottles were clearly visible. It was also discovered that the waste is not burnt as a means of disposal. "We have a non-profit organisation which we support and pay to collect the waste. During our quiet season it can take more than two months to fill a medium-sized skip. We also have members of the community who collect waste which they can use in recycling projects" said Kloof management. Platinum Weekly would like to thank readers who are conscious of protecting the environment, and we urge the community to follow environmentally friendly measures when disposing of waste. The Rustenburg Municipality (RLM) has two sites where waste can be disposed of namely the Waterval landfill site and the Strumosa drop-off facility. The Waterval landfill site is situated approximately 5 km out of the CBD (or 1 km from the Sibanye offices) outside Rustenburg on the Marikana road. At the Waterfall landfill site, all types of waste, except hazardous waste and medical waste, are accepted. Disposal fees which are charged for waste of one tonne and over, are approved on an annual basis and current tariffs (extracted from the approved 2022/23 tariff book) are as follows;

DESCRIPTION	Unit	2022/ 2023 financial year
DISPOSAL CHARGES AT THE WATERVAL LANDFILL
Non-municipal resident	Rand per tonne	R 517,22
General waste (household waste and similar commercial, industrial and institutional wastes)	Rand per tonne	R 123,15

SA women miners advocate for gender equality in the mining industry

Rustenburg - On International Day of Women in Mining, Thursday 15 June 2023, Glencore Ferroalloys hosted a Women in Mining (WiM) conference under the theme 'We work for our success'. The event's mission was to commemorate women and the vital role they play in the mining industry while advocating for gender equality. Representatives from Department of Mineral Resources and Energy (DMRE), Minerals Council South Africa, Mine Health and Safety Council, Glencore representatives from different operations including senior management, as well as legendary actress and businesswoman Sophie Ndaba were in attendance. The event focused on engaging in thought-provoking discourse that highlighted the need to prioritise women's safety and well-being within the mining industry. The conversations unpacked the challenges faced by women in mining such as, suitable PPE, the safety of women on the mines, mental health, as well as the threat of gender-based violence. To further bring these issues to light, the Minerals Council's deputy safety and sustainable development department manager, Lerato Tsele, highlighted the Mine Health and Safety Act, which is currently under amendment. The amendments will include guidelines that will make it mandatory for all mining organisations to comply with the Code of Good Practice with regards to making available differently designed PPE to accommodate the different body-types of women in mining. "The mining industry currently employs 72,500 female mine workers, a great improvement from where it started. Despite this, there is still a long way to go. There is a huge focus and efforts to ensure gender equality in the workplace. Technology is utilised to assist with the heavy-load tasks in the workplace, which will ultimately improve safety and health," said Tsele. In May 2022, Glencore launched its WiM Forum, which is made up of committees from each of its nine operations. The Committees are mandated to come up with solutions for women's safety and advocate for gender equality. Glencore Ferroalloys Group metallurgical manager in mining and WiM forum chairperson, Neo Molelekeng, gave an overview of their performance and achievements within the last year in the following areas:

- PPE trials conducted for female employees, as PPE was originally designed to be unisex and more suited for a male physique.
- Installation of portable hygienic flushable underground ablution facilities for women.
- Provision of sanitary towels on site, a much-needed convenience for women particularly those working underground with long walking distances to their working areas.
- Initiatives to address gender-based violence including providing self-defence classes to women and a study to investigate reliable panic buttons to be sourced for female employees.
- Mentorship and coaching for women
- WiM surveys conducted to gain understanding why female employees would stay and choose Glencore

Alloys as an employer of choice. "We exist because of the women in our organisation. Our purpose is to create inclusive spaces to ensure we unlock the immense potential that women bring into the mining industry. This is only the beginning, and we look forward to witnessing the incredible journey of each and every woman playing their part to help revolutionise the industry for future women miners," said Molelekeng. The WiM conference is set to be held annually as a key platform to track the progress of the WiM Forum's mission and to fast-track inclusion safety for women in Glencore Ferroalloys. Glencore, press release extracts, 20 June 2023.

JST performs a historical percutaneous closure procedure

Rustenburg - Job Shimankana Tabane Hospital (JST) is thrilled to announce a successful Percutaneous Closure Procedure in treating a Congenital Atrial Septal Defect of a 21-year-old patient on Tuesday 27 June 2023. The procedure is the first of its kind to be done in the public sector in the North West Province. Atrial Septal Defect (ASD) is a congenital heart disease whereby babies are born with a hole in their hearts. Due to this hole, the blood flow in the heart is misdirected to the wrong chamber of the heart. Most babies are diagnosed during their first year of life, however in our community with limited access to specialised cardiology services, most patients are only diagnosed later in life. If left untreated, this condition can lead to many other complications such as strokes, heart failure, and pulmonary hypertension. "Percutaneous Closure of the ASD is a highly specialized procedure whereby we use minimal invasive methods to close this hole without cutting/opening the chest. This procedure requires extensive teamwork by the heart team (this includes the cardiologist, the anaesthetist, and the cardiothoracic to be on standby). Procedure: A groin puncture is made through the femoral vein; the wire and a catheter are advanced towards the heart. Once this is done, a device / patch is deployed in the heart. Although this seems simple, a lot can go wrong during this procedure. Some of the documented complications during this procedure could be i) perforation / rupture or puncture of the heart, which could lead to death. ii) The device can also embolise and end up in the wrong places in the heart, causing obstruction, and possible risk of stroke during this procedure. To mitigate the risks of the potential complications the whole team needs to have an immediate and concerted effort. Maximum concentration is required, and teamwork is very important. This means that while the operators are deploying the device, there should be someone doing a sonar and there should be an anaesthetist monitoring the hemodynamic of the patients. When this procedure is completed, the patient is ready to go home in less than two days, and patient can be followed up as an outpatient. Not only is the procedure convenient to the patient but it's also a cost saving measure, especially in areas where we don't have access to open heart surgery, like in our hospital," remarked cardiologist, Dr Mmuso Mogwera. The procedure was performed in the Cath Lab of Life Peglerae Hospital in Rustenburg jointly by the JST and Life Peglerae team. "The hospital is pleased to announce that it has appointed specialists that have been in demand for healthcare services and increased life expectancy. This procedure is proof of improved quality healthcare service that the hospital strives towards," concluded JST CEO, Ms Gloria Tihapi. JST press release, 29 June 2023. "It was an honour to act as an assisting cardiologist, and to be part of a team of experts. The procedure shows a lot of promise in the public healthcare sector," said JST cardiologist Dr Kabelo Raphala, who acted as a supporting cardiologist during the procedure, in an interview with Platinum Weekly on Monday 3 July 2023.

PROVERBS 10

Wise Sayings of Solomon [verse 1-9]

10 The proverbs of Solomon: A wise son makes a glad father, But a foolish son is the grief of his mother.

2 Treasures of wickedness profit nothing, But righteousness delivers from death.

3 The Lord will not allow the righteous soul to famish, But He casts away the desire of the wicked.

4 He who has a slack hand becomes poor, But the hand of the diligent makes rich.

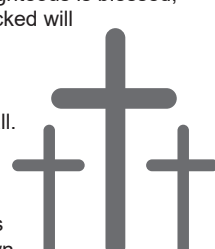

5 He who gathers in summer is a wise son; He who sleeps in harvest is a son who causes shame.

6 Blessings are on the head of the righteous, But violence covers the mouth of the wicked.

7 The memory of the righteous is blessed, But the name of the wicked will rot.

8 The wise in heart will receive commands, But a prating fool will fall.

9 He who walks with integrity walks securely, But he who perverts his ways will become known.

Would you tell someone if they had a piece of food stuck in their teeth?

Most of us have found ourselves in that awkward situation where we notice a piece of food stuck in someone's teeth. While some of us are weary to mention anything for the fear of embarrassing the other person, others have no problem when it comes to pointing out that evident little piece of spinach. Would you point out the problem, or rather keep quiet?

Yes, I would most definitely point out that small or large piece of greenery stuck between your teeth. Failing to do so would be immature, as with age comes a sense of gracefulness and doing it the right way would suggest good character and integrity. I would like the same to be reciprocated.

Linda de Bruin

Yes, because it is a bit irritating when someone is laughing, and you see food stuck in their teeth.

According to a press release by Kaizer Chiefs, the restructuring of the technical team will see coach Ntseki take over the coaching reigns of the senior team from Arthur Zwane, who will return to the role of assistant coach, together with Dillion Sheppard. "We would like to congratulate coach Molefe Ntseki and thank him for accepting his huge responsibility. We know it's not an easy task, but we believe his experience and knowledge will help us improve and achieve our goals as Kaizer Chiefs. He has been here for two years, working well with coaches Arthur Zwane and Dillion Sheppard in his role as head of technical, and will now work with them in a different capacity," said executive chairman of Kaizer Chiefs, Dr Kaizer Motaung. Prior to his appointment, Ntseki served as the club's head of Technical and Youth Development at Kaizer Chiefs. He has a wealth of experience of coaching at the highest level, including coaching the South African national team, Bafana Bafana as well as serving as assistant coach for the national team and coaching various junior national teams.
