Impala Rustenburg – working with SMMEs to create a better future

A chilling scene: devastation marks the N4 following a sudden collision.

Collision on N4

Rustenburg – In the early hours of Sunday 24 September 2023, the N4 highway in Rustenburg witnessed an alarming traffic incident, spotlighting a grey sedan. The circumstances leading up to the crash remain a subject of ongoing investigation. Despite the shock of the scene, only one individual reportedly sustained minor injuries. Thanks to the prompt and proficient intervention of Trauma Rescue personnel, the individual was rapidly transported to a nearby medical facility for thorough evaluation and treatment.

Operation Shanela strikes a blow to crime in the North West

North West - From Thursday 21 to Sunday 24 September 2023, our North West province bore witness to the unwavering resilience of law enforcement in a robust operation aptly named Shanela. The operation, a blend of grit and determination, underscored a clear message: crime has no refuge here. In a remarkable display of unity, multi-disciplinary high-density operations zeroed in on hotspot areas, laying bare an unyielding commitment to combat contact and property-related crimes. Over these intense days, actions of valour and vigilance culminated in the arrest of 664 suspects implicated in a range of offences. The arrested suspects, amongst others, included nine for rape, 89 for assault with the intent to do grievous bodily harm (GBH), 53 for common assault, 17 for aggravated robbery, 23 for driving under the influence of alcohol or drugs, eight for illegal dealing in liquor, 10 for burglaries at business premises, 22 for possession of drugs and 16 for dealing in drugs. The expansive operation also saw 4,572 persons and 2,049 vehicles thoroughly searched, leaving no stone unturned in the quest to uproot crime. Additionally, 116 licensed liquor premises, 20 second-hand goods dealers, and fourteen recyclers/scrapyards underwent stringent inspections. "In one of the operations conducted in Bojanala Platinum sub-district 1 (Brits), police in Mooi-nooi arrested two suspects, aged 24 and 25 on 21 September for possession of an imitation firearm, different types of cigarettes, and three cellphones. The police cannot rule out the possibility of linking the pair with business robberies in Brits and Mooi-nooi. The two suspects are expected to appear in the Brits Magistrates' Court soon on a charge of business robbery," said police spokesperson captain Aafje Botma. The provincial police commissioner, lieutenant general Sello Kwena, voiced his gratitude towards the committed members of the police force. Their relentless pursuit of justice since the inauguration of Operation Shanela underscores an unequivocal stance against crime.

LAW'S GUARDIAN BECOMES ITS GUEST: SERGEANT CHARGED WITH THEFT

Rustenburg – The North West provincial commissioner, lieutenant general Sello Kwena has commended the Anti-Corruption Investigation Unit (ACIU) for the arrest of sergeant Tshepang Magodiello (44) on Wednesday 20 September 2023. Magodiello, who served in the Rustenburg Family Violence, Child Protection and Sexual Offences (FCS) unit, is accused of claiming R12,000 on behalf of an informer, a sum which never made its way to the intended recipient. This discrepancy led to the intervention of the ACIU, shedding light on an act that, if proven, is a betrayal of the principles that define our esteemed police service. "Magodiello was granted R1,500 bail after appearing in the Rustenburg Magistrates' Court on 21 September, and is set to reappear on 31 October, marking a procedural journey that every citizen, regardless of their uniform, is subject to. It is a process that underscores the inherent equality we all share in the eyes of the law," said police spokesperson brigadier Sabata Mokgwabone.

Magodiello is set to reappear on 31 October.

Lieutenant general Kwena's stance is unequivocal: dishonest employees tarnishing the sterling reputation of the South African Police Service will face the full force of the law. It's a commitment to integrity that every resident of our great province can take solace in.

TEN SUSPECTS ARRESTED IN TLHABANE

Rustenburg - The South African Police Service (SAPS) management in the North West province has welcomed the arrest of a group of ten men for possession and dealing in drugs, robberies, theft of a motor vehicle, attempted murder, and burglaries.

aged 21 to 33 were nabbed for robbery with a weapon other than a firearm, business robbery, attempted murder, theft out of/from a motor vehicle, possession of suspected stolen property, as well as business and residential burglary," said police spokesperson captain Aafje Botma.

"The suspects were arrested in the early hours of Wednesday morning, 20 September 2023, by a multidisciplinary team comprising Rustenburg Crime Intelligence, Tlhabane Visible Policing, District Crime Combating Unit, Bafokeng Reaction Force, and Nuco Chrome Protection Service. The operation was conducted after information was received regarding suspects who were terrorising members of the community at the Yizo-Yizo informal settlement in Tlhabane. Subsequent to the operation, four suspects, aged 22 to 29, were arrested for possession of drugs. Moreover, six suspects

All the suspects appeared before the Bafokeng Magistrates' Court in Tlhabane on Friday, 22 September 2023. Six of them were remanded in custody and are expected to reappear before the court between 26 and 28 September 2023. Meanwhile, all cases of dealing drugs against four of the accused were provisionally withdrawn pending forensic laboratory results. Investigations into the matter are underway.

The provincial police commissioner, lieutenant general Sello Kwena, thanked all team members for their collaborative efforts that resulted in the arrest.

GUMBI MURDER SUSPECT APPLIES FOR REOPENING OF BAIL HEARING

Rustenburg - The Rustenburg Magistrates' Court has postponed the case against Sibongiseni Ngubane (33) to Monday 2 October 2023, for a ruling on his application to reopen bail proceedings. The accused's attorney indicated that they had no privileged information on the evidence the state was going to submit in opposing bail. The state opposed this application, indicating that they had ample time to engage with the evidence presented by the investigating officer during his testimony. The state further submitted that Ngubane's attorney read an affidavit in court citing reasons for him to be granted bail.

incident on social media platforms. The state also urged the court to consider the gruesome manner in which the alleged murder was committed," said National Prosecuting Authority (NPA) regional spokesperson Henry Mamothame.

According to the police, Ngubane was arrested by members of a multi-disciplinary team established after the ruthless murder of Ben Gumbi. Ngubane was arrested on 12 September in Germiston after attending a court case in which he is facing a charge of armed robbery, for which he was out on R3,000 bail. He also has a pending case of possession of a firearm and ammunition in Alberton, for which he was granted R1,000 bail. Police reports revealed that Gumbi (49) was gunned down by two males outside a restaurant in Rustenburg on 23 August. The suspects then fled the scene in a blue Volkswagen Polo, which was found a few minutes after the incident, abandoned at the corner of Helen Joseph and Loeie Streets. The car was confirmed to have been stolen, and the registration plates on the car were false. Meanwhile, police investigations are underway to track down the three other suspects who are believed to be on the run.

"The state strongly opposed the granting of bail, to which the investigating officer was called to the stand to cite reasons for opposing. Amongst other reasons cited by the investigating officer were the seriousness of the offence, as the accused is facing a schedule six offence of premeditated murder. He further alluded to the safety of the accused against three other suspects who are on the run and may endanger his life. The accused was also pointed out at an identity parade by several witnesses. The state further highlighted the community's interest in the matter, following the circulation of a recording of the alleged

Communities welcome a vital lifeline

Seraleng ward 43 and Nkandla have cause for celebration as the reservoir's handover came at just the right time.

Rustenburg / Boschfontein - In a move highlighting dedication to community well-being, the executive mayor of Rustenburg, cllr Shiela Mabale-Huma, proudly handed over the 630-kilolitre Boschfontein reservoir to the communities of Seraleng ward 43 and Nkandla on Friday 22 September 2023. The mayor didn't stand alone. By her side was the Rustenburg Local Municipality's (RLM) speaker of council, cllr Lebogang Pule, esteemed members of the mayoral committee (MMCs), the proactive DA ward councillor Luan Snyders, and representatives from the Rand Water Foundation.

Prior to the handover, residents had faced challenges with low water pressure or, worse, no water at all, largely due to the swift population growth and booming housing developments.

Addressing this pressing need, the state-of-the-art reservoir not only promises an ample water supply but also champions sustainability. Outfitted with solar panels to ensure functionality during power outages and a cutting-edge water quality package plant which purifies every drop, it stands as a testament to innovation meeting necessity. However, the road to this moment wasn't without bumps. During the ceremony, councillor Mabale-Huma reminded residents of the reservoir's importance, urging the community to safeguard it against vandalism. Past incidents, including damage to the reservoir's transformer, had regrettably pushed back this much-awaited handover. This achievement wasn't just the fruit of one entity's labour, as it also showcases a commendable partnership between RLM and the Rand Water Foundation.

DA ward councillor Luan Snyders, an advocate for the communities, aptly summed up the sentiment of the day: "With a hot summer at our doorstep, the timing of the handover is perfect. At the end of the day, we are here to bring forth improvement".

AND THE WINNER IS...

Drumroll, please! We're thrilled to announce that the winner of this great competition is Keorapetse Phale!

THE PRIZE...

Keorapetse won a mini 'vacay' for two at Sun City. She won a two-night stay at Cabanas valued at R17,460 for two people. It includes breakfast, a 1-hour massage for two at the Gary Player Health Spa valued at R1,500, and dinner to the value of R600. Price value: R19,560! Entrants were simply required to share a personal story about their heritage, with the best narrative standing a chance to win this dreamy escape.

KEORAPETSE'S WINNING STORY:

"Heritage, to many, signifies a connection to historical artefacts, practices, and places that warrant preservation for forthcoming generations. However, in South Africa, this is a topic that elicits a myriad of emotions. To me, heritage is the celebration of diverse cultures, an embrace of varied traditions in our daily lives, including our workplaces. "On Heritage Day, I immersed myself in a day filled with stories from my elders, deepening my understanding and appreciation for our roots. The day was adorned with a feast of traditional delicacies like pap, mabele, samp, tripe, ox-tail, cakes, ginger beer, and sorghum beer. Dressed in my ancestral attire, the melodies of marimba and age-old songs enveloped in the air. "A significant gesture, I planted a marula tree as a nod to our rich heritage. As dusk turns to night, the bright glow of a roaring fire was our gathering spot, where tales of the past, the beauty of nature, and diverse perspectives on valuing heritage were shared."

CONGRATS!

Congratulations to Keorapetse Phale for her touching story and a massive thank you to everyone who participated. Stay tuned to Platinum Weekly for more exciting opportunities!

Farewell, colonel Nkitsing

Rustenburg - The Rustenburg Public Order Police (POP) base near Freedom Park was immersed in an atmosphere of both jubilation and reflection on Friday 22 September 2023, as the day marked the retirement of colonel Daisy Nkitsing.

41 years—that's how long colonel Nkitsing has worn the badge, serving and protecting her community with dedication. A tenure painted with integrity, bravery, and unswerving commitment. On this particular Friday, Nkitsing'S SAPS brothers and sisters in arms gathered to bid her a heartfelt farewell.

In a blend of tradition and homage, colonel Nkitsing's farewell was seamlessly merged with the SAPS Bojanala Platinum sub-district 2 Heritage Day celebrations. The air, rich with mixed emotions, was filled with the melodies of unity and culture; a fitting backdrop to honour a woman who has been more than just a police officer but a custodian of public peace and safety. 41 years of uninterrupted service in the SAPS is not just a remarkable milestone; it's a narrative of sleepless nights, confrontations with danger, and an unyielding commitment to the badge and the people. Farewell, colonel—your service will be remembered.

Would you get along with your younger self?

Consider an unexpected visit from your younger self... Would the two of you get along, or would your differences make it a bit difficult to sit around the same table?

If I were to be seated with my younger self, I know that we will get along very well. I always see the good in other people, which makes it easier to get along with anyone (even if it was me!).

Antonet Nortman

Yes. I believe I'd get along with my younger self. It's a privilege to sit around young ones and hear what they have to say, and see the world through their eyes.

PROVERBS 23

Listen to Your Father

23 When you sit down to eat with a ruler, Consider carefully what is before you;

2 And put a knife to your throat

If you are a man given to appetite.

3 Do not desire his delicacies, For they are deceptive food.

4 Do not overwork to be rich;

Because of your own understanding, cease!

5 Will you set your eyes on that which is not?

For riches certainly make themselves wings; They fly away like an eagle toward heaven.

6 Do not eat the bread of a miser,

Nor desire his delicacies;

7 For as he thinks in his heart, so is he.

"Eat and drink!" he says to you,

But his heart is not with you.

8 The morsel you have eaten,

you will vomit

up,

And waste your pleasant words.

Rustenburg - In its aim to continuously uplift and contribute to the progress of communities near its operations, Glencore Ferroalloys is proud to announce the successful completion and handover of the Modderfontein Substation in Kroondal, near Rustenburg. This infrastructure investment is aimed at benefitting the people in the community of Kroondal. The project was initiated to eliminate the persistent issues of unscheduled power trips caused by the aging electrical infrastructure in the Ikemeleng and Kroondal areas. These frequent disturbances resulted in extended power shutdowns and ongoing maintenance challenges, subsequently affecting local communities and businesses. "As a responsible mining operator, we at Glencore Ferroalloys value the wellbeing of our communities and part of catering for their needs also means taking care of the environment they live in. For this reason, we are committed to investing in socio-economic activities that deliver a better quality of life for our communities. We are delighted to honour this significant investment and to cement the relationship with stakeholders such as the doorstep communities, local municipality and the Department of Mineral Resources and Energy," said Glencore Ferroalloys chief corporate social responsibility officer, Conroy van der Westhuizen. The Modderfontein Substation handover was met with immense praise from members of the Kroondal community. Expressing his gratitude for the infrastructure upgrade, the MMC of Infrastructure for the Rustenburg Local Municipality Rampoo Phiri welcomed the construction of the substation and associated electrical reticulation infrastructure and the positive impact it will have on the community. The project has not only enhanced the skills and expertise of the local workforce, but it has also generated employment opportunities in sectors such as construction and logistics. This holistic approach to community development aligns with Glencore's dedication to being a responsible corporate citizen, working hand in hand with the community of Kroondal to build a brighter and more prosperous future for all. Projects like these fit in well with Glencore's Just Transition principles. Glencore Ferroalloys, press release extracts, 20 September 2023.

Be a part of Christ's light!

NG Protea Park's Liggies vir Lewe-Fees is an annual highlight on the church's calendar. During the festival, the church illustrates Christ's life through a wonderful display of lights! The theme of this year's festival is 'Starry Night'. In Van Gogh's famous painting, the lights in the houses shine brightly, but the church has no light. This year, NG Protea Park wants to add deeper meaning to the Christmas season by shrouding the church with a brilliant display of lights. Each year, the church has helped many organisations with funds and donations, and with the festival, it aims to make a difference once again.

The festival's programme:

- Sunday 3 December: Adam Tas, will be performing, and the festival's lights will be turned on at approximately 20:00.
- Monday 4 December: Bee-Bee die By en Heuning will once again pay a visit, and kids are invited to dress up in their favourite bee costumes!
- Tuesday 5 December: Skemer takes the stage.
- Wednesday 6 December: The festival will draw to an end with beautiful Christmas carols. The motorbike club will also be involved this year with a special stationery collection initiative.

means that families can enjoy their dinner along with the entertainment and lights! The church would like to encourage community members to get involved with this year's festival, as everyone's help is needed to make it a success.

You can do this by:

- Donating meat and products to make sosaties.
- Donating pancake ingredients.
- Donating Christmas lights.
- Cash donations will help to cover various costs.
- Providing sponsorship for the artists who will be performing; companies will receive exposure, before, during, and after, by sponsoring an artist.
- Get involved by helping with the festival's arrangements; you can help with sales, braaiing sosaties, baking pancakes, and so much more!
- Help with advertising the festival, especially by word of mouth.

The funds raised during the Adam Tas performance will be donated to Spes Bona, a residential facility that provides a safe place for people with various disabilities who have nowhere else to turn to. Additionally, the stationery collected will be donated to Dawid Brink Primary School's new Grade ones. Various food stalls will be available, which God is the light that shines eternally through His church and His people. You are invited to be a part of Christ's light and to shine with your community!

For inquiries, please contact Christel Herbst on 082 785 2439, or email ngpparkkomm@mweb.co.za.

Rustenburg unites for Kevin: join the recovery run!

Rustenburg – Tragedy struck the heart of our community when young Kevin Jansen van Vuuren became one of the victims in the dreadful N4 vehicle accident near Rustenburg on 12 May 2023. With the vehicle overturning multiple times and the loss of the driver, the shadows of uncertainty hung heavily over Kevin's future.

For the Jansen van Vuuren family, weeks turned into an agonising sea of days, marked by surgeries, waiting rooms, and fervent prayers. Then, a beacon: "He's stable," became the much-awaited news. However, this was merely the beginning of a painstakingly long and costly recovery process. Even now, four months post-accident, Kevin remains under hospital care. Heartfelt messages and prayers lit up social media platforms, echoing the collective sentiments of friends, family, and notably, Rustenburg High School.
