MAN STABBED TWICE DURING TUCK SHOP ROBBERY

Swartruggens – Asley Morake (25) appeared before the Swartruggens Magistrates' Court on the charge of business robbery on Monday 15 January 2024. He was remanded in custody until he re-appeared before court on 17 January, for the provision of legal advice.

Henry Mamothame, the regional spokesperson for the National Prosecuting Authority (NPA), stated that the case has been postponed to 24 January 2024, for the provision of legal aid and bail application. According to colonel Adèle Myburgh, the event unfolded on the evening of 13 January 2024, when a 36-year-old shop owner was confronted by three unidentified attackers while closing his shop, the Borolelo Market Tuck Shop. Reportedly, one of the suspects was armed with a knife. The trio closed the doors of the shop, with one guarding the entrance while another attacked the victim, compelling him to hand over his personal belongings.

Amidst the terrifying ordeal, the victim screamed out in distress as one of the assailants mercilessly stabbed him twice in the back with the knife. In the midst of the chaos, one of the suspects, seizing the opportunity, leaped over the counter and took an undisclosed sum of cash. The commotion attracted the attention of local community members who intervened, resulting in the apprehension of one suspect. The police are actively pursuing the remaining two suspects. The victim of the assault was promptly taken to hospital for treatment.

Lieutenant general Sello Kwenya, the provincial police commissioner, extended his gratitude towards the community members and the police for their concerted efforts and swift action.

ARMED ROBBERY STRIKES RUSTENBURG CELLPHONE STORE

Rustenburg – On Thursday 18 January 2024, at approximately 16:30, a distressing incident unfolded at a local cellphone store located on Von Wielligh Street, Rustenburg. Three unidentified individuals planned a bold robbery, leaving the store's staff in a state of shock and fear. Sergeant Ofentse Mokgadi, a spokesperson for the South African Police Service (SAPS), detailed the disturbing event: "Three suspects overpowered the store's employees at gunpoint, forcefully seizing an array of cellphones and laptops." The aftermath of the crime has prompted an investigation by the SAPS, yet, no arrests have been made. The emotional toll on the store's employees was palpable as they recounted the ordeal, labelling the incident as profoundly traumatic. A staff member, who chose to remain anonymous, revealed a troubling pattern, noting that this incident marks the second robbery the store has suffered in a remarkably short span.

In a hasty retreat, the culprits made their escape in a white Hyundai i10, equipped with fake license plates, vanishing into the city's streets. The SAPS is actively seeking assistance from the public to apprehend the suspects.

Detective warrant officer Karel Khumalo is spearheading the investigative efforts. If you have any information that might help, please contact Khumalo directly at 082 773 0590 or approach your nearest police station.

HELD AT GUNPOINT FOR R50 AND CELLPHONES!

Rustenburg – A peaceful stroll to a local church service turned into a nightmare for two women in Rustenburg Noord on Friday 19 January 2024, as they were held at gunpoint and robbed by a trio of armed assailants. The incident occurred on Johnson Street at approximately 20:00, merely 300 metres from one of the victim's residences. In the cover of darkness, with the streetlights off due to a power outage, the women, whose names have been withheld for their safety, were approached by three individuals. The victims were unable to see the faces of their attackers, who swiftly overpowered them. One of the assailants held one woman, while the other two focused on her friend.

Armed and demanding, the perpetrators forced the women to hand over their belongings. "They said: give us your money and phones. Give us everything you have," recounted one of the victims, still reeling from the shock. One of the robbers spoke Shona. The robbers made off with two cellphones, approximately R50 in cash, a blanket intended for use at the church service, and house keys.

"The fear was overwhelming," the victim shared, describing the harrowing experience. "They searched us everywhere. We feel so violated." After the robbery, the criminals fled the scene and disappeared into the night in a small, unidentifiable car.

In the aftermath, the victims are not only dealing with the loss of their belongings but also the emotional toll of the incident. "All my contacts are gone. I don't know my children's numbers by heart," one victim expressed, highlighting the distress of being disconnected from loved ones until December.

Despite the ordeal, the women are grateful to have survived the encounter. "We thank God we are alive," they said, clinging to their faith in the face of adversity.

The local community is urged to be vigilant and report any suspicious activity.

DAYLIGHT ROBBERY: WOMEN ATTACKED AT KNIFE-POINT FOR CELLPHONE

Two women assaulted in broad daylight outside their homes – for a cellphone!

Rustenburg – In a breach of security, a man scaled the razor-wire-topped palisade wall of a local residence last week, gaining entry into the garden.

“The intruder’s intentions were clear: he was scouting for a place to burglarise. Alerted by the disturbance, my mom spotted the trespasser and let out a scream, prompting the man to hastily retreat. After this incident, we made the part of their garden that the trespasser used stronger and more secure,” said the resident.

The situation escalated alarmingly on Monday, 22 January 2024.

“Our neighbour had come over to visit my mother. Around 12:40, in broad daylight, she was just stepping out to return, which is merely a stone’s throw away,” he added.

As they reached the corner of Willow Avenue (our house on this corner, neighbour’s house on the opposite corner), two men made their disturbing approach. They cornered my mother and our neighbour.”

He continued, describing the ordeal, “Using a knife, the assailants overpowered them. Their demand was clear and chilling: they wanted their cellphones.” The son, who witnessed the tail end of the confrontation, expressed his frustration and concern. “I heard the desperate cries of my mother and our neighbour. I rushed outside to help, but the culprits were already gone. Thankfully, my mother and our neighbour survived the attack with relatively minor injuries. My mother sustained a slight injury to her shoulder, while our neighbour wasn’t as fortunate; her hand was cut during the struggle, and her cellphone was forcibly taken.”

To view the video footage of this alarming incident, visit Platinum Weekly’s Facebook page. The community remains on high alert, and the local authorities are urging residents to exercise increased vigilance and report any suspicious activities.

NW GAME POACHERS RECEIVE PRISON SENTENCES AFTER LENGTHY LEGAL BATTLE

A majestic nyala bull

Swartruggens – Two men were handed an 18-month prison sentence each for their involvement in illegal game poaching activities by the Swartruggens Magistrates’ Court on Wednesday 10 January 2024.

After a lengthy period of investigation and multiple court postponements, Manang Bopalale and Kgomotso Molefe were found guilty of poaching. The duo was apprehended on 26th September 2021, and were caught red-handed with a slaughtered nyala carcass. The poached animal was a prized nyala bull, valued at approximately R12,000.

In February 2022, Molefe was found guilty of cable theft and imprisoned, but he was released early as part of President Cyril Ramaphosa’s special remission process in August last year. Since his release, he has been charged in two more cases of cable theft and assault.

This Valentine's Day, let's fill Platinum Weekly with stories of love, companionship, and community spirit. Your love story could inspire many and bring a touch of romance to our lives!

This isn't a story, it's a journey.

I'm Ofentse Jerimiah More, a farmer from Bethanie village in the North West. Before Glencore and Agri-SETA, I worked the land, but a year of intensive training changed my trajectory. Through Glencore's collaboration with Agri-SETA, I unlocked a treasure trove of knowledge. The art of mixing fertilisers, forming farmer alliances, and gaining financial access became my toolkit for success.

Today, I specialise in wheat, soybeans, sunflowers, and even livestock. As the winter wheat sprouts, I tend to its growth, applying top dressing with care. Yet my vision extends far beyond the fields. I dream of a comprehensive school that nurtures young minds in hands-on skills from carpentry to agriculture.

This journey isn't mine alone; it's the pulse of a community empowered. Through Glencore and Agri-SETA, I stand prepared to face the future – one of expansiveness, thriving land, and knowledge shared.

Thank you, Glencore, for cultivating not just crops but a better tomorrow.

Schools bursting at seams: Rustenburg faces overcrowding crisis

Packed to capacity: a single classroom overwhelms with high learner numbers in Rustenburg.

Rustenburg – Paul Sebegoe, the chief whip of the North West Provincial Legislature (NWPL) highlighted the growing issue of overcrowding in Rustenburg schools on Wednesday 17 January 2024. He pinpointed migration and urbanisation within mining communities as the primary factors contributing to this predicament.

This concern came to light as Sebegoe participated in a province-wide initiative where elected public representatives were deployed to assess the readiness of schools for the reopening on the first day of the 2024 academic year.

“Despite the Provincial Basic Education Department’s annual efforts to combat this issue through the revision of the post-provision model, aiming to allocate more educators, the escalating demand for enrolment poses a significant challenge. Schools in the area are struggling to manage the continuously growing number of students, a trend that shows no signs of slowing down,” Sebegoe said.

He emphasised the dire need for immediate action to alleviate the overcrowding at Meriti Secondary School, located in Rustenburg. The school, with a capacity to accommodate 1,200 learners, is currently grappling with an enrolment of 1,729 students. The situation is particularly critical in Grades 8, 9, and 10.

Sebegoe underscored the urgency of the matter, stating, “We have escalated the pressing need for six mobile classrooms and additional furniture. This is envisioned as an interim solution to partially relieve the school from the intense pressure it is facing due to the excessive student population.”

UNACCEPTABLE TREATMENT OF LEARNERS OVER SCHOOL FEE ISSUES

[letter to the editor]

Rustenburg – I was deeply troubled by an incident that occurred at our local school in Rustenburg during the enrolment process last week. My daughter, a ninth grader, and I joined many other parents and learners in a long queue, a mix of excitement and anticipation in the air as children reunited with their friends and shared stories of their holidays.

The purpose of this day was straightforward: confirm enrolment and collect textbooks for the year. However, the positive atmosphere was shattered by an incident that unfolded right before us. A teacher, addressing a student only a few spots ahead in the line, announced loudly that she couldn't receive her books because her school fees were overdue.

The student, a friend of my daughter, was visibly humiliated. The poor girl, cheeks flushed red with embarrassment, murmured about being unaware of the fee situation and having to discuss it with her mother. I tried to console her, emphasising that it might have been a simple oversight, but the damage was done.

This approach to handling fee issues is utterly inappropriate. Publicly shaming a learner for something beyond their control is not just insensitive; it's counterproductive. Adolescents are particularly conscious of their peers' perceptions, and such public embarrassment can have lasting effects on their self-esteem and school experience. I urge the school to reconsider its policies and practices regarding fee collection. Delicate matters such as financial obligations should be addressed discreetly and directly with parents or guardians, not aired in front of learners and their peers. It's crucial that we foster a supportive and understanding environment in our schools, not one where students dread humiliation over matters they cannot control.

A beacon of hope: Christ Crises Centre's new building to shelter 100 victims

Swartruggens – In the heart of Swartruggens, a beacon of hope is rising for the most vulnerable. The Christ Crises Centre, under the stewardship of vice chairperson Venessa Joubert, is on a mission to provide sanctuary and support to women and children who have faced abuse. This noble initiative is close to realising its dream, with the construction of a new facility that promises to be a haven for up to 100 victims.

For over a decade, Venessa Joubert, a revered community preacher, has dedicated her life to supporting those in distress. Her journey began with a humble house, a sanctuary for the broken. However, the overwhelming need in the North West region spurred her to dream bigger. "I realised there are so many broken people, women and children, being abused," Joubert shared, highlighting the dire need for a specialised facility in the area.

The vision for a larger, more equipped facility caught the attention of Stichting Hulpverlening Internationaal Barneveld (SHIB), a Christian non-profit organisation based in Holland. Their collaboration is a testament to international solidarity, working hand in hand to bring the project to life.

The new building is a symbol of hope and recovery. It is designed to be more than just a shelter; it is a place of healing and empowerment. The centre will not only provide a safe space but also offer essential services such as counselling, skills training, and support from social workers and the South African Police Service (SAPS). "When a social worker or the police brings a victim, they often have nothing with them. We are here to change that," Joubert emphasised, highlighting the comprehensive care the centre aims to provide.

However, the journey is not without its challenges. The Christ Crises Centre is reaching out to the community for support. There is a significant need for essential items to make the facility a comfortable and nurturing environment. The centre is currently seeking donations of beds, clothes, food, pots, appliances, nappies, soap, and shampoo. These basic necessities will go a long way in restoring dignity and providing comfort to the victims.

Venessa Joubert's vision is a testament to the power of community and compassion. "Getting counselling and being survivors," she states, encapsulating the transformative journey she envisions for every individual who walks through the doors of the Christ Crises Centre.

"Remember, there is an Awareness Day on the 27th of January. We invite business owners and the community to get involved. As a registered NPO with a tax clearance certificate and a Form 18A, your support not only contributes to this noble cause but also offers potential tax benefits. Let's unite to make a significant impact on the lives of those in need," said Joubert.

To be a part of this life-changing project, or for more information, the public is encouraged to reach out to pastor Venessa Joubert at 071 841 4656 or pastoorvenessa@gmail.com.

The inspiring Naledi Ramaboea

Vote for Naledi!

Rustenburg – Naledi Ramaboea, hailing from Ledig, Rustenburg, is in the running for the Emerge Africa Awards, under the Humanitarian category. She's known for her deep involvement in community work, a passion kindled in her youth. Raised by her late grandmother in Robega, Naledi and her siblings were taught the importance of selfless giving from an early age. This drive to help others truly sparked in 2006 when she volunteered as a peer counsellor at Elim Rehabilitation Clinic, aiding youth recovering from substance and drug addiction.

Naledi's dedication hasn't gone unnoticed. Recently, she secured the second runner-up spot in the Rural Development category at the 5th SA Heroes Awards 2023 and clinched the Ms Best Charity Queen title at the South African Pageants Award — a tribute to those making a real difference in their communities.

Her nomination for the Emerge Africa Awards came as a surprise, put forward anonymously by individuals moved by her work. These awards recognise not just the work one does but also the passion, consistency, and positive impact behind it. Naledi remarked, "Being nominated is a huge honour. It's recognition of the work I've been pouring my heart into within the Rustenburg communities."

Now, she's the only nominee from Rustenburg in her category and is also up for the Woman of Stature Awards, under the Woman in Mining category. But to clinch the Emerge Africa Award, she needs your votes! Voting kicked off on Monday 15 January 2024, and wraps up on Saturday 30 March 2024.

Community unites for animal welfare

Rustenburg – The Rustenburg Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals (SPCA) witnessed an outpouring of community support during a cleanup campaign led by DA ward councillor for Ward 17, Tanya Rothman, and committee member André van Dyk on Friday 12 January 2024.

The cleanup initiative not only aimed to beautify the SPCA premises but also to raise awareness about the essential services the organisation provides for animal welfare in the community. Rothman, who is also in the process of adopting a dachshund from the facility, expressed her heartfelt connection to the cause, stating, "Well, I'm busy adopting a dachshund, so I think that explains the feeling we had!"

André van Dyk highlighted the importance of even the smallest acts of kindness, remarking, "No act of kindness, no matter how small, is ever wasted." This sentiment was visibly embodied by the enthusiastic volunteers who dedicated their time and efforts to the cleanup.

The Rustenburg SPCA, a non-profit organisation, serves a vast area in and around Rustenburg, tirelessly working to protect, serve, and uplift the welfare of animals. Upholding the rights and protection that animals are granted under South African law, the SPCA relies on community support and contributions to continue their noble work.

For those interested in supporting or learning more about the vital work of the Rustenburg SPCA, please contact their office at 014 592 3181.

Hard at work!

The neurological impact of bullying on primary school learners

SA – At the beginning of a new school year, many children will meet their very first bully as they enrol in Grade RR, Grade R, or Grade 1 at a primary school.

Mike Bolhuis' Specialist Investigators into Serious Violent, Serious Economic Crimes & Serious Cybercrimes has posted several projects in the past to forewarn parents to be informed and aware of bullying and its impact on children. Bullying can have significant and lasting neurological impacts on primary school learners.

TYPES OF BULLYING

- Physical bullying
  - This involves physical harm or the threat of physical harm.
  - It may include hitting, kicking, or damaging personal belongings.
- Verbal bullying
  - This includes name-calling, teasing, and using hurtful language.
- Social bullying
  - Also known as relational bullying, this involves deliberately excluding someone from social activities or spreading rumours.

EFFECTS ON VICTIMS

- Emotional impact
  - Victims often experience feelings of fear, anxiety, and depression. This can lead to a decline in self-esteem and academic performance.
- Physical health
  - Bullying can manifest physical symptoms

- such as headaches, stomach-aches, and changes in sleeping patterns.
- Academic consequences
  - The stress and anxiety associated with bullying can interfere with a child's ability to concentrate and succeed academically.

NEUROLOGICAL EFFECTS OF BULLYING ON PRIMARY SCHOOL LEARNERS

- Stress response and neurotransmitters
  - Activation of stress response: Bullying triggers the body's stress response, leading to the release of stress hormones such as cortisol and adrenaline.
  - Impact on neurotransmitters: Prolonged exposure to stress can affect neurotransmitter levels, including dopamine and serotonin, which play critical roles in mood regulation.
- Structural changes in the brain
  - Impact on brain structure: Chronic stress, a common outcome of bullying, can affect the structure of the brain, particularly the hippocampus and prefrontal cortex.
  - Reduced volume in brain regions: Studies suggest that individuals who experience chronic stress may have reduced volume in specific brain regions, potentially affecting memory, learning, and emotional regulation.
- Cognitive function
  - Impact on cognitive abilities: Prolonged exposure to bullying can negatively impact cognitive functions, including attention,

- concentration, and problem-solving skills.
- Academic performance: Neurological changes may contribute to a decline in academic performance.
- Emotional regulation
  - Disruption of emotional regulation: The stress associated with bullying can disrupt the development of emotional regulation circuits in the brain, leading to difficulties in managing emotions.
- Vulnerability to mental health disorders
  - Association with mental health issues: There is a higher risk of developing mental health disorders such as anxiety, depression, and post-traumatic stress disorder (PTSD) among individuals who have been bullied.
  - Altered brain function in mental health disorders: Mental health disorders are often associated with altered patterns of brain activity and connectivity.
- Long-term effects
  - Effects: Some neurological effects of bullying may persist into adolescence and adulthood, impacting long-term mental and emotional well-being.
- Social brain development
  - Impact on social brain networks: Bullying interferes with developing social brain networks involved in empathy, social cognition, and the ability to form positive relationships.

- Resilience factors
  - Protective factors: While exposure to bullying has adverse neurological effects, supportive relationships and interventions can act as protective factors, promoting resilience and mitigating some of the negative consequences.

Understanding the potential neurological impact emphasises the importance of preventing and addressing bullying in primary schools to promote students' overall wellbeing and healthy development. Early intervention and support systems can play a crucial role in mitigating the negative effects of bullying on the developing brain.

7,000 km for children WORLD RECORD ATTEMPT 2024

Olaf (the Pediatric Care Africa mascot) with Doctor André Hattings's Harley Davidson.

Rustenburg – In an unparalleled display of unity and philanthropy, the Pediatric Care Africa organisation is gearing up for its annual event, the "Ride for a Child" charity motorbike ride 2024. This event is not just a journey but a bold statement of collective determination to change lives, one kilometre at a time. And guess what? Rustenburg is on this special route planned through South Africa! Scheduled to kick off on the 11th of February 2024, the 5th edition of the "Ride for a Child" will see motorbike enthusiasts revving their engines for a noble cause. Spanning a staggering 7,000 km journey across the breathtaking landscapes of South Africa, this ride is more than an adventure; it's a lifeline for underprivileged children requiring surgeries and medical treatments. Mark your calendars as Day 3 of this epic journey unfolds on Tuesday 13 February 2024, the stretch from Lephalale (Ellisras) to Thabazimbi, and then to Rustenburg, promises to be a journey of solidarity and support. Dr. André Hattings, the CEO and founder of Pediatric Care Africa, shared his heartfelt sentiments about the journey through Rustenburg: "I grew up in Koster. Rustenburg was our go-to-town in my youth, as it was our nearest big town. Going back to where one grew up, brings back great childhood memories. We would love the support of the biker community in and around Rustenburg and ask that they please join us for a coffee and a ride together when we arrive on the 13th February or leave Rustenburg again on the 14th February." The grand finale of the tour is on the 24th of February. This date is set to be etched in history, as thousands of motorbike riders from various clubs and organisations will join forces with Dr. André Hattings in a world-record-breaking attempt. The goal is ambitious yet profoundly impactful: the most motorbikes riding in staggered formation as a single group, a symbol of solidarity for the welfare of sick children. The crescendo of this awe-inspiring ride will unfold 50km before the Caltex Mentors Plaza, stretching between Storms River and Jeffreys Bay on the N2. For those eager to be part of this historic moment or to contribute to this noble cause, more information is available at www.pediatriccareafrika.org, or by contacting 076 229 5663 or via email at info@pediatriccareafrika.org. Join hands, join hearts, and most importantly, join this ride.

VLU Kashané Aandtak begin die jaar met ‘n kreatiewe kosblik werkswinkel

Rustenburg – Op ‘n aand vol kameraadskap en innovasie, het die Vroue Landbou Unie (VLU) Kashané Aandtak hul jaar afgeskop met ‘n interaktiewe vergadering op Dinsdag 9 Januarie 2024. Die atmosfeer was een van opwinding en kreatiwiteit toe Anja Nieuwoudt die lede deur ‘n unieke kosblik-ervaring gelei het, waar brood op ‘n innoverende manier herontdek is – as “brood-sushi”. Deur hierdie spesiale geleentheid het die dames hul vaardighede verskerp deur verskeie vulsels te kombineer en hul brood op ‘n manier voor te berei wat die estetiese aantreklikheid en die smaaklikheid van sushi naboots. Hierdie kreatiewe wending op die tradisionele kosblik het nie net die smaakliere geprikkel nie, maar ook ‘n bewys van die veelkantigheid en vernuf van die VLU-lede gebied.

Met ‘n warm en uitnodigende atmosfeer verwelkom die VLU Kashané Aandtak nuwe lede om aan te sluit by hulle. Belangstellendes word uitgenooi om die voorsitter, Charmaine Coetzer, te kontak by 083 469 5505 vir meer inligting oor hoe om deel te word van hierdie inspirerende groep.

In ‘n vertoon van kreatiwiteit, berei VLU Kashané-lede broodjies voor wat die voorkoms van ‘sushi’ rolletjies naboots.

Rustenburg community rallies behind beloved local, Pieter Naudé

Rustenburg – On Saturday 30 March 2024, the harmonious heart of Rustenburg beats together in support of one of its most melodious sons. A fundraiser, organised by Zelda Vermeulen and associates, will resonate through the Hunters Pub and Grill, echoing a community’s unwavering support for Pieter formidable challenge. His battle against an aggressive form of cancer has struck a chord within the community. “Pieter’s melodies and performances have been the soundtrack of our lives for 24 years. Now, as he confronts this relentless illness, it’s our turn to orchestrate support and send harmonious hope his way,” expressed Zelda Vermeulen, the driving force behind the event. “This fundraiser is more than an event; it’s a symphony of solidarity for Pieter during his time of need.”

Lemogang, what's your next move?

Local chess prodigy achieves Arena Candidate Master title

Rustenburg – Fields College is brimming with pride as Grade 9 learner Lemogang Letupu secured the prestigious Arena Candidate Master (ACM) title, elevating the school's reputation in the realm of international chess. At just a tender age, Letupu has shown exceptional talent, strategy, and dedication, traits that have now been internationally recognised and rewarded by the World Chess Federation. The Arena Candidate Master title is not just a testament to Lemogang's skill in the strategic game but also a beacon of his dedication and hard work. Chess titles such as Candidate Master (CM), Fide Master (FM), International Master (IM), and Grand Master (GM) are not just mere accolades. They are symbols of excellence, awarded after rigorous scrutiny of a player's skills, performance, and rank in the chess world. Lemogang's journey to achieving the ACM title was not a mere walk in the park. It required him to engage in no less than 100 international chess games. His commitment and the ability to maintain a high rating throughout this demanding schedule are what set him apart, culminating in this lifetime title, which he received over the school holidays. This achievement is not just a personal victory for Lemogang but also a monumental moment for the North West Province. With only three Arena-titled players in the province, Lemogang's accomplishment shines a spotlight on the increasing chess talent in our community. As Lemogang Letupu continues to navigate through his educational journey at Fields College, his story is not just about chess. It's about setting goals, relentless pursuit, and achieving excellence. Congratulations, Lemogang! Your community is proud of you, and we eagerly await your next move, both on the chessboard and in your promising future.
