Veilig by Jesus se voete

Met die diepste eerbied en liefde herdenk ons die lewe van een van Rustenburg se mees gerespekteerde en geliefde inwoners, Pastoor Daniël Francois Prinsloo van AGS Oase van Hoop, 'n ware kind van God. Gebore op 6 Februarie 1958, het hy sy aardse lewe op 5 Februarie 2024 voltooi, na 'n moedige stryd met siekte in Olivedale hospitaal. Pastoor Danie Prinsloo het sy bediening in Rustenburg in 2003 begin en het gedurende hierdie tyd talle mense se lewens diepgaande aangeraak met sy onwrikbare geloof en toegewyde diens. Sy teenwoordigheid was 'n seën en 'n bron van inspirasie vir almal wat die voorreg gehad het om hom te ken. Die begrafnisdiens ter ere van Pastoor Prinsloo sal plaasvind op Vrydag, 9 Februarie 2024, om 11:00, by His Vision Church, geleë op die Ou Pretoria pad, Rustenburg Kampus. Die herdenkingsdiens sal gelei word deur Dr. Isak Burger, wat saam met ons sal stilstaan by die ryk en betekenisvolle lewe van Pastoor Prinsloo. Soos in Openbaring 14 vers 13 vermeld word: "Salig is van nou af die dode wat in die Here sterwe", vind ons troos in die wete dat hy nou rus in die ewige liefde van die Here. Sy nalatenskap van liefde, medelye, en geestelike leiding sal vir ewig in ons harte voortleef. Namens sy vrou, Linda, en sy seuns, Daniël en Justus-Juan, wil ons ons opregte dankbaarheid betuig aan die gemeenskap vir julle ondersteuning in hierdie moeilike tyd. Ons nooi alle familie, vriende en gemeenskapslede uit om saam met ons afskeid te neem en hierdie merkwaardige lewe te vier. Laat ons saamkom in 'n gees van eenheid en dankbaarheid, terwyl ons hulde bring aan 'n man wie se lewe 'n blywende impak gemaak het op almal rondom hom. HOLIDAY SCAMMER | MIAS SCHREUDER

Operating on Rustenburg Koop en Verkoop's Facebook page

Rustenburg – “As the popularity of vacation rentals surges, so does the prevalence of scams targeting eager travellers seeking accommodation. These scams can take various forms, ranging from fake listings and misrepresented properties to non-existent rentals and phishing schemes. The allure of picturesque destinations combined with the anonymity afforded by online transactions creates an ideal breeding ground for deceptive practices,” says Mike Bolhuis, Specialist Investigators into Serious Violent, Serious Economic Crimes & Serious Cybercrimes. It is imperative for travellers to exercise caution, conduct thorough research, and employ robust verification measures to ensure that their dream vacation does not turn into a nightmare of financial loss and disappointment.

“Mias Schreuder is one of many holiday scammers operating through a vacation rental advertisement on the Rustenburg Koop en Verkoop's Facebook page,” Bolhuis noted. Numerous victims have opened cases against Schreuder at the police.

MASSIVE ILLEGAL MINING OPERATION FOILED

Hartbeespoort Dam – In a significant crackdown on illegal mining activities, a multidisciplinary and intelligence-driven operation, dubbed “Vala Umgodi,” was carried out on Thursday, 1 February 2024, in Skeerpoort near Hartbeespoort Dam. The comprehensive operation involved the Directorate for Priority Crime Investigation, National Intervention Unit, Special Task Force, Tactical Response Team, Public Order Police, South African National Defence Force, Airwing, Mounted Unit, Local Criminal Record Centre, K9 units, Visible Policing, ER24, and Harmony Gold Mine security. According to brigadier Sabata Mokgwabone, law enforcement officers descended upon a mountainous region of a farm, identified as a hotbed for illicit gold mining activities. The raid resulted in the arrest of 94 undocumented individuals engaged in illegal mining operations. The suspects, primarily nationals from Zimbabwe and Mozambique, were taken into custody and later appeared before the Brits Magistrates’ Court on Monday, 5 February 2024. The operation yielded a significant catch of illicit mining equipment and materials. Authorities confiscated large quantities of gold-bearing material alongside 139 generators valued at approximately R1.3 million. Additionally, the seizure included 24 grinders, 95 jackhammers, an assortment of hammers, chisels, pick-axes, shovels, cutting torches, gas bottles, electric mills, phendukas (gold refining machines), and explosive materials. The North West provincial commissioner, lieutenant general Sello Kwena, lauded the collaborative effort of the various units involved in the operation. He praised their dedication and teamwork, which led to the successful apprehension of the suspects and confiscation of illegal mining equipment.

A comprehensive array of mining equipment, including grinders, jackhammers, and gold refining machines, was seized during the “Vala Umgodi” operation.

Authorities seized 139 generators, underscoring the vast scale of the illegal mining operation.

This isn't a story, it's a journey.

I'm Reabetswe Maungwa, the creator of 1019 Sauce, and I come from Tlhabane in Rustenburg. When COVID hit, I found comfort in my kitchen. Mixing South African and Ghanaian flavours, I stumbled upon a unique sauce that felt like home.

Glencore, in their effort to build economically resilient and sustainable communities, became an ally in my business with their Enterprise and Supplier Development programme. They provided the tools I needed – an oven, delivery vehicle, and other equipment that allowed me to scale up and produce more. Their support transformed my kitchen experiment into a real business.

I envision a future in agro-processing, empowering others and expanding my brand's reach. Glencore's belief in my journey fuels my determination.

With Glencore as my partner, the story of 1019 Sauce is more than a sauce – it's a testament to dreams nurtured and empowered. To my fellow entrepreneurs, keep that fire alive, trust your path.

Kevin Jansen van Vuuren:

A STORY OF
SUPPORT

Rustenburg – In the wake of a horrific vehicle accident on the N4 near Rustenburg on 12 May 2023, the community was plunged into despair, particularly the family of young Kevin Jansen van Vuuren. Kevin, tragically involved in the accident which saw their vehicle overturn multiple times, faced uncertain prospects after the driver was lost and he was left with severe injuries.

For the Jansen van Vuuren family, the subsequent weeks evolved into an exhaustive period of surgeries, hospital waits, and relentless prayers, clinging to the hope of Kevin's recovery. The news that Kevin had stabilised brought a glimmer of hope amidst their anguish, marking the commencement of a difficult and expensive path to recovery.

When Good Morning Angels became aware of the situation they assisted his family with R70,000 to help with his journey to recovery in January this year.

The crash, which deeply affected the Rustenburg community, left Kevin with critical injuries. He was one of three boys in the accident; one tragically died at the scene, while another suffered minor injuries. Kevin's journey since then has been one of resilience and gradual improvement. According to his mother, Aurelia, Kevin has endured numerous hospital stays and rehabilitation in a Pretoria facility, showing significant progress. Just before Christmas, Kevin returned home for the first time, a milestone that catalysed a notable improvement in his health.

In the past three weeks, Kevin has shown remarkable strides in his recovery. He has regained some movement in his left leg and arm, begun to suckle — a vital step towards eating independently — and has relearned to communicate, this time with a whistle, bringing laughter back into his life. His interaction with his family, including his twin brother and younger sibling, as well as friends, has been pivotal in his recovery.

"Kevin is fully committed to his recovery, demonstrating an incredible will to overcome his challenges daily. His determination and progress inspire us all," Aurelia shared proudly with us this week.

Despite lacking medical aid, Kevin's family has managed the medical expenses through donations and fundraising efforts. However, as funds dwindle, the need for further support becomes critical to maintain the momentum of Kevin's recovery, which includes ongoing therapies that have begun to show promising results.

Kevin's journey ahead remains challenging, with milestones such as relearning to walk, talk, eat independently, and regain movement in his right side. His dietary preferences have slowly started to include his favourite foods, even as he continues to receive nutrition through his stomach. Aurelia notes, "He communicates yes or no by nodding, clearly understanding conversations. We are immensely proud of him."

The family's gratitude extends to the divine for Kevin's progress and to their community for the overwhelming support and love received. The collective spirit of Rustenburg has been a source of strength, manifesting in heartfelt messages and prayers across social media.

The story of the Kevin Jansen van Vuuren is a testament to the resilience of the human spirit and the power of community support in the face of adversity. As Rustenburg stands united in support of Kevin and his family, their journey reminds us of the strength found in hope and perseverance.

NO WATER FOR 13 DAYS!

[letter to the editor]

Rustenburg – Navigating through 13 consecutive days without water in Geelhoutpark has pushed our patience to its limits. The absence of a vital resource like water, for such an extended period, is not just an inconvenience but a severe impediment to our daily lives. This issue isn't a sudden anomaly but a recurring problem that begs the question: Does the Rustenburg Local Municipality (RLM) have an effective crisis management strategy for water shortages? A proactive approach, such as a systematic plan for redirecting residents to alternative water sources or ensuring swift emergency responses, seems to be missing. The idea is not to scramble for solutions after weeks of distress but to have a well-orchestrated plan in place that everyone is aware of and can rely on. The municipality's initiative to dispatch water tankers is commendable, yet it's marred by inefficiencies like unannounced distributions, leaving residents in a frantic search. A simple solution would be to schedule and communicate these distributions clearly, allowing for better preparation. My interaction with the RLM call centre was a rare beacon of responsiveness. Upon reporting the issue for my street, I was given a reference number, and the follow-up from the personnel, including updates and progress charts, was appreciable. Nonetheless, these measures are but a temporary salve on a longstanding wound. Rumours of overconsumption in parts of our community add to the complexity of this crisis. If water scarcity is indeed reaching critical levels, a transparent, equitable approach such as scheduled water shedding could be explored, ensuring fair distribution across all neighbourhoods. The Bellevue reservoir's recurrent issues, intensified by vandalism, highlight a dire need for not just maintenance but improved security measures to protect our water supply infrastructure. In moments, we've seen a glimmer of hope with water supply returning briefly, only to be plunged back into scarcity. This recurring problem underscores a grim reality; our area's geographical position at the end of the supply line leaves us vulnerable and consistently neglected. In conclusion, while the efforts of individual municipal employees are appreciated, what Rustenburg desperately needs are long-term, sustainable solutions to its water crisis. A Concerned Resident of Geelhoutpark

Should parents monitor their kids' cellphones?

In today's digital age, children often use cellphones and other devices to communicate and interact online, including playing games with strangers. While some argue monitoring a child's cellphone is a necessary step to protect them from potential dangers, such as inappropriate contact from adults and sexual predators, others view it as an invasion of the child's privacy. What is your opinion on this matter?

Yes, I believe parents should protect their children from being exposed to the harmful behaviours of strangers. They need guidance to adhere to certain acceptable principles, to prevent them from becoming victims of predators. This does not constitute an invasion of their privacy.

Stephen Moletsane

No, I believe that if there is mutual trust between the parent/guardian and child, the child will not hesitate to communicate with the parent/guardian if they encounter inappropriate contact from an adult or feel they are in potential danger. Additionally, parents can have discussions with their children, who, if old enough to have a cellphone, should be capable of understanding the importance of recognising inappropriate behaviour and potentially dangerous red flags. They could then alert their parent/guardian if they come across such issues. In conclusion, trust and guidance are key. Storm Stirk

Did you know?

You shed billions of skin cells daily! Hold on to your hats, folks, because your skin is on an epic journey of renewal that's nothing short of a miracle! Every hour, it waves goodbye to a mind-boggling 200 million skin cells. That's right, every single hour! And in the grand finale, over the course of a day, you lose about 5 billion skin cells. To put it into perspective, that's a '5' followed by nine awe-inspiring zeros! Your skin's top layer, the epidermis, is the mastermind behind this spectacular show. It's like a factory where 95% of the cells are hard at work, churning out fresh, new skin cells to replace the old ones. The other 5%, the dedicated artists of the epidermis, are busy giving your skin its unique color through melanin.

Six Nations 2024

Die gewilde Ses Nasies Rugby Kampioenskapsreeks het die afgelope naweek afgeskop. Ierland is die verdedigende kampioen...

UITSLAE
Vrydag 3 Februarie
Frankryk vs Ierland
Die Iere het uit die staanspoor die pap dik aangemaak en klop die Franse op hul tuisveld 38-17. En die Franse moes vir sowat sestig minute met veertien spelers klaarkom. Paul Willemse het in die agste minuut 'n geelkaart ontvang en wraggies waar weer 'n geletjie in die 31ste minuut gekry, wat toe in rooi verkleur het!
Die Iere het die bal keer op keer wyd gespeel en die Franse kon nie daarin slaag om al die gate toe te stop nie. Die afwesigheid van die ster speler en kaptein Antoine Dupont kon duidelik in die Franse kamp gevoel word. Dupont het besluit om vir die Franse in die Sewes span te speel om aan die Olimpiese Spele deel te neem.

Saterdag 3 Februarie
Italië vs Engeland
Die Ingelse moes hard baklei om die begeesterde Italianers met 27-24 te kon klop. Die Italianers se agterlyn was kookwater met puik balhantering ou grote. 2024 kan dalk die Azzurri's se beste jaar wees onder die nuwe coach Gonzalo Quesada.
Wallis vs Skotland
Dié opwindende game was een van twee helftes ou grote. Die eerste veertig minute was die Skotte aan die brand. Duhan van der Merwe skitter en druk twee puik drieë, en die ou grote Pierre Schoeman is ook met kragspel oor vir sy drie. Die tweede helfte het Wallis teruggeveg maar verloor 26-27.
