Jammed at Safari Gardens: THIEVES OR TOWERS?

The cell phone tower looming across the entrance of Safari Gardens Shopping Centre.

Rustenburg – One of Rustenburg's mysteries continues to baffle residents and authorities alike. Is it crafty car thieves or problematic towers causing the chaos? If you have the answers, we'd love to hear them!

On Saturday 29 June 2024, a community member experienced yet another case of vehicle jamming at the Safari Gardens Shopping Centre. "This isn't the first time those pesky thieves have targeted my car at this centre! I dread coming here because they always try to steal my car. But I love the stores here, so sometimes I take a chance, racing to the shop and back, hoping the thieves will nap while I shop! And the car guards always claim ignorance... very suspicious! Every time I'm here, I either can't lock my car and have to wait around 20 minutes until it resets, or it locks but won't unlock when I return. Those pesky robbers! How dare they! And I'm not the only one complaining. On Saturday there were eight other people who experienced problems with their remote locking at the same time than me. Sometimes the alarm just goes off randomly, and I have to wait 10 minutes to turn it off. How daft!"

Over the past year, Platinum Weekly has received numerous complaints about vehicle jamming at the Safari Gardens Shopping Centre. We've even reported on it. But, lo and behold! Despite all the drama, not a single vehicle theft has been reported at Safari Gardens Shopping Centre recently — at least according to the police. Lieutenant colonel Amanda Funani confirmed, "The Rustenburg Police have no recent records of cases opened in connection with car jamming or theft at the complex. In the past, there were cases of property stolen out of motor vehicles."

In an interview with HenCor Tactical Solutions owner, Henry Holsthyzen, who oversees security at Safari Gardens Shopping Centre, he remarked, "It's definitely not thieves."

This occurrence has been ongoing for years. But Henry noted, "During the past two weeks, it's been happening more frequently. We have been scouring the area for any suspicious activity but found no one using a jammer. Also, there have been no attempted break-ins or thefts in the last two months. If someone were using a jammer, we would have definitely picked it up."

#AND! if they were using a jammer, they'd be a very unsuccessful thief!

THIEVES STEAL FIREARMS FROM POLICE STATION

SUSPECTS REMANDED IN CUSTODY

Rustenburg – In a shocking breach of security, Lucky Mdluli (33) and Keabetswe Jan Sikwa (43) have been remanded in custody after their separate court appearances on Friday, 28 June 2024, for burglary and possession of suspected stolen firearms.

The daring theft took place in January 2024, when the detectives' offices on Fatima Bhayat Street in Rustenburg were broken into. Thieves blatantly made off with laptops, electrical equipment, and two firearms stored in a safe – right from within a police station. It is unacceptable and deeply concerning that such a breach could occur within a police station. The theft of firearms from law enforcement custody is a serious matter that compromises public safety. According to colonel Adéle Myburgh, following an intensive investigation, Lucky Mdluli was identified as a suspect. He was spotted and arrested at a café near the detectives' offices on Wednesday, 26 June 2024. His arrest led to the apprehension of Keabetswe Jan Sikwa.

Further investigation directed police to a house in Dinokana Village, near Zeerust, where they found two firearms with ammunition. One firearm had its serial number filed off, while the other was confirmed as one of those stolen during the break-in.

Lucky Mdluli, charged with burglary, appeared before the Rustenburg Magistrates' Court and was remanded in custody until Thursday, 18 July 2024. Keabetswe Jan Sikwa, charged with unlawful possession of firearms and ammunition, was remanded in custody until Wednesday, 3 July 2024, by the Lekhutsho Magistrates' Court.

Lieutenant general Sello Kwenya, the police provincial commissioner, commended the team for their hard work in apprehending the alleged perpetrators and recovering the stolen firearms. He stressed the grave danger posed by firearms in the wrong hands. This incident underscores a dire need for improved security measures within our police stations to prevent such embarrassing and dangerous breaches.

Jammed at Safari Gardens: THIEVES OR TOWERS?

Some believe the jamming is due to the two towers in the area. We sent a query to Telkom to confirm this suspicion, but they have not responded. And the last time we asked them about it in 2023, they also didn't get back to us. #We're still waiting for a reply!

In interviews with locals living and working in the area, they mentioned two towers: one at the entrance of Safari Gardens Shopping Centre and another close to Spes Bona. Apparently, the tower at the centre's entrance isn't working... Not sure about that. Holsthyzen of HenCor Tactical Solutions commented, "It is definitely the tower, specifically the 5G tower (the one at Spes Bona) causing the problem." He continued, "It seems like the two towers are communicating with each other, causing a 'dead spot' in that area, which jams the signals of vehicle remotes and vehicles with push-start engines. It's usually the newer cars with the push-start button that experience jamming problems."

Interesting... and what about people working in the "dead spot"... day in and day out? What about their health? If the signal jamming is strong enough to affect cars, what is it doing to people?

Holsthyzen shared a recent incident, "At one of the businesses behind the shopping complex, a vehicle with a push-start engine couldn't start at all. Someone had to tow it, and a few blocks later, it miraculously started working again after escaping the dead spot." Holsthyzen has escalated the problem to Telkom and Openserve, who work on the towers. He is awaiting feedback, hoping for a resolution soon.

In the meantime, the mystery of Safari Gardens Shopping Centre continues to confound and amuse. Whether it's high-tech thieves or rogue towers, one thing is certain: Rustenburg's residents will keep speculating and sharing their experiences. So, if you find yourself at Safari Gardens Shopping Centre, keep your keys close and your sense of humour closer. After all, in the great jamming debate, the truth is still out there.

Kroondal-plaaswag help om vermeende dief aan te keer

Kroondal – AfriForum se Kroondal-plaaswag het nie op hom laat wag toe inwoners van Rustenburg onlangs onder 'n geval van diefstal deurgeloop het nie. Deur dié plaaswag, en talle ander rolspelers se pogings is die vermeende dief vinnig opgespoor en aangekeer. Hierdie AfriForum-plaaswag het op 9 Junie 2024 'n noodoor ontvang oor 'n verdagte persoon wat glo 'n grassnyer in die gebied gesteel het. Met die plaaswag se aankoms op die toneel was die Suid-Afrikaanse Polisiediens (SAPD) en ander veiligheidsmaatskappye reeds teenwoordig. Die vermeende dief is deur die SAPD opgespoor en in samewerking met die Kroondal-plaaswag en ander rolspelers in hegenis geneem. Die grassnyer is ook in die verdagte se besit gevind en op beslag gelê. "Buurt- en plaaswagte is noodsaklik in gemeenskappe omdat hulle dien as die verdedigingslyn teen misdaad. Hulle verhoog sigbaarheid en paraatheid in gemeenskappe en speel 'n sleutelrol in misdaadvorcoming en -bekamping," sê Armand Viljoen, AfriForum se distrikskoördineerder vir Groot-Marico. Charl Visser, AfriForum se veiligheidsvoorsitter in die gebied, sê dit is van onskatbare waarde vir gemeenskappe om waaksam te bly en bewus te wees van die gebeure om hulle. "Deur die paraatheid van inwoners kan buurtwagte vinnig optree om misdade te voorkom, daarom moet verdagte aktiwiteite altyd ernstig opgeneem en aangemeld word," sê Visser. Besoek www.wordlid.co.za vir meer inligting oor AfriForum se takke, of kontak Visser by 076 344 2469 om by die Kroondal-plaaswag betrokke te raak.

Community voices: hope and accountability expectations from South Africa's 2024 coalition government

South Africa's 2024 elections have ushered in a new era in the country's political landscape. For the first time since 1994, no single party has secured an outright majority in the National Assembly. The African National Congress (ANC), which has been the ruling party for the past three decades, won only 159 of the 400 seats. In light of these election results, the formation of a coalition government brings both challenges and opportunities. We reached out to community members to hear their thoughts on the key issues and changes they hope this new coalition will address in our community.

Accountability and transparency

[letter to the editor]

Dear Editor,

I have a fervent hope that our Government of National Unity would bring about accountability and transparency. Too often, when TV presenters question police or organisations about dubious transactions or actions, the response is a dismissive "We cannot comment on ongoing investigations" or "We cannot comment while there are legal proceedings."

This is unacceptable. Hiding behind these phrases is a way to avoid scrutiny, allowing these so-called investigations to drag on until the public forgets. This lack of accountability is deplorable.

Moreover, the endless nature of court cases and police investigations worsens the issue. Cases are covered by 'red tape' with no real progress, leaving families and the public without answers. Feedback is scarce, and the refrain "We cannot comment on ongoing investigations" is repeated without an end. This undermines public trust and violates the principles of Batho Pele. Judges should not permit criminal or other cases to drag on indefinitely. Taxpayers often bear the cost of these prolonged legal battles, which seem more like a performance than a pursuit of justice. Commissions occasionally levy substantial fines on organisations. Yet, the public rarely hears about what happens to the money collected. Where does it go? Who is accountable?

The example set by government leaders and employees trickles down to the general public. When leaders evade accountability, it sends the message that such behaviour is acceptable. This erodes societal norms and ethics, leading to a broader breakdown of trust and responsibility within our society.

Yours faithfully,
#ForeverADreamer

I believe everyone in Rustenburg is seeking improved service delivery and greater support for those in poverty who are struggling. We expect better from our government. Jandrey de Lange, Rustenburg

I believe the coalition government could improve my community by addressing unemployment, especially among the youth. It often feels like education level doesn't make a difference in job opportunities. Additionally, I think the government should increase the R350 grant, as many families rely on that money to buy food for their loved ones. Rose Muhate, Seraleng, Rustenburg

I believe the current government should focus on creating jobs for everyone, including you and me. Additionally, they need to take strong action to eliminate corruption. Moses Dire, Rustenburg

Sons and Heirs Through Christ

4 Now I say that the heir, as long as he is a child, does not differ at all from a slave, though he is master of all, 2 but is under guardians and stewards until the time appointed by the father. 3 Even so we, when we were children, were in bondage under the elements of the world. 4 But when the fullness of the time had come, God sent forth His Son, born of a woman, born under the law, 5 to redeem those who were under the law, that we might receive the adoption as sons.

6 And because you are sons, God has sent forth the Spirit of His Son into your hearts, crying out, "Abba, Father!" 7 Therefore you are no longer a slave but a son, and if a son, then an heir of God through Christ.

Would you like to be royalty? Why or why not?

Imagine a life of palaces, crowns, and endless ceremonies — would you want to be royalty? For many, the idea of being royalty is fascinating. However, not everyone sees royalty as a fairy tale. The weight of responsibility and the scrutiny of the public eye can be daunting. In today's world, royalty isn't just about luxury and privilege. What about you? Would you like to be royalty? Why or why not? Share your thoughts with us!

No, because I believe being royalty today is very different from what it was in the past. Back then, there were responsibilities and rules, but they weren't as intense as they are now. Nowadays, being royalty is challenging not only because of the responsibilities but also because of the political landscape. The political world is incredibly dangerous, and being royalty means living in luxury while also losing a part of yourself. You're no longer free to be who you are; you constantly have to think about how the world perceives you. Tshepo Shuping, Rustenburg

Yes, imagine having someone to cook for you, make coffee for you, and provide you with designer clothes. All the mundane tasks in life would be taken care of. While there would be responsibilities, they would be meaningful and impactful on a global scale. Moreover, you wouldn't have to bear these responsibilities alone, as you would have advisors to assist you. Jessica Lovemore, Rustenburg

Did you know?

The Butterfly Effect is a fascinating concept from chaos theory, suggesting that tiny actions can lead to significant outcomes. Coined by meteorologist Edward Lorenz, it implies that a butterfly flapping its wings in Brazil might set off a chain of events leading to a tornado in Texas. This idea highlights the unpredictability and interconnectedness of complex systems, reminding us that even the smallest actions can have far-reaching consequences. In our daily lives, it encourages us to be mindful, as our choices and actions, no matter how minor, can influence the world in unexpected ways.

Scammers impersonating RLM officials

Rustenburg – Residents are being targeted by scammers impersonating Rustenburg Local Municipality (RLM) employees, aiming to steal their hard-earned money. These fraudsters sound convincing, warning of utility disconnections for unpaid bills.

One resident shared, "My wife, a preschool principal in Proteapark, received a call about an overdue water bill. She was told payment was needed to avoid disconnection. She contacted DA councillor Ilse Edwards, who confirmed it was a scam. Other preschools have been targeted too."

Ilse stated, "Scammers are pretending to be from the municipality, demanding payments via eWallet to prevent utility disconnections. Residents must remain vigilant and report such incidents."

The Rustenburg Local Municipality warns that these imposters often contact residents via WhatsApp, threatening disconnections unless immediate payment is made. They emphasise that no private payments should be made, urging residents to report any such attempts to the police and the municipality.

For assistance, contact the Rustenburg Local Municipality's anti-fraud hotline at 0800 811 222 or the customer care call centre at 060 543 6563. Additionally, report incidents to your nearest police station.

CASMAR Impala Rugby Club's first team celebrating their victory over Rovers Rugby Club!

CASMAR Impala celebrates wins and youth day success

Impala Vixens women's second team, ready to conquer the field!

Rustenburg – On Saturday 29 June 2024, the CASMAR Impala Rugby Club and the Impala Vixens delivered a series of triumphant performances against Rovers Rugby Club at the Impala Rugby Club's home grounds in Rustenburg. The CASMAR Impala first team won 34-19, while the second team secured a 35-14 victory. The Impala Vixens also excelled, with their first team winning 15-5 and their second team dominating 17-0.

CASMAR Impala Rugby Club head coach Johan Engelbrecht remarked, "This was an excellent result after the successful Youth Day we hosted." The event included skills development sessions that benefited 149 children from 11 different schools. Engelbrecht noted, "It went fantastically. Each child participated in exercises covering skills, vision, and conditioning, and the difference was visible by the end." The club now prepares for another showdown against Potchefstroom Dorp Rugby Club this Saturday, 6 July 2024, at the Impala Rugby Club fields. Fans are encouraged to come and support. For more information, contact Engelbrecht at 083 417 9652.
