Violent assault at Little Margate

The site of the attack, offering a stunning view of Rustenburg. By night, the city lights create a mesmerizing scene, making it a popular yet dangerous spot.

Rustenburg – Two matriculants, a girl and a boy, were violently attacked at Little Margate, also known as the 'Cross at Arendskloof,' 'Kruiskrans,' or 'Rooikrans.'

"The incident occurred on the night of Friday, 2 August 2024, highlighting the hidden dangers of this seemingly beautiful area," said Marcus Haasbroek, the acting executive chairperson of the Community Policing Forum. Warning the public, he said: "Please be sure to stay cautious when you are in that Cashan area. It can be very dangerous, even if you're in small groups. Never ever go there alone."

The attack unfolded when a suspect approached the teenagers at Little Margate, a location notorious for robberies. The suspect demanded their watches, which the teens handed over. When asked for their phones, the victims claimed they didn't have them. The situation escalated violently as the suspect began stabbing the boy.

The boy sustained three stab wounds: one in his arm, one in his back, and another in his groin.

Despite his injuries, he managed to hand over his phone to the robber as they retreated to their car. The suspect also shattered several car windows. Miraculously, the girl escaped uninjured. In response to this attack, Outdoor Arena Security issued a high-risk zone warning for the Little Margate area in Cashan. They stated, "The area affectionately known as Little Margate is situated in Krokodilrivier area in Cashan Avenue. In the past couple of months, several cases of armed robberies were reported by members of the public who came to this area to relax and enjoy the view. The suspect(s) are armed with a knife and won't hesitate to use it, as seen in past incidents."

The police have not received any reports regarding this latest incident. Community members are urged to remain vigilant and report any suspicious activity.

If you see something, say something by contacting Outdoor Arena Security on 087 815 0730 or 071 741 1272, or contact your closest police station.

HAWKS STRIKE IN LEDIG: DRUG AND MONEY LAUNDERING SUSPECTS NABBED

John Siphiwe Mahlangu, one of the suspects, being taken into custody by authorities.

Mogwase – John Siphiwe Mahlangu (44) and Emily Dube (39) appeared in the Mogwase Magistrates' Court on Friday 2 August 2024, facing charges of dealing in drugs, possession of drugs, and 250 counts of money laundering amounting to R4.6 million.

The pair was arrested on Thursday 1 August 2024 in Ledig following intensive investigations on drugs and drug trafficking activities around Ledig and Sun City. Mahlangu was charged with five cases of drugs and drug trafficking following crime intelligence-driven operations. He also faces a money laundering charge under the Prevention of Organised Crime Act 121 of 1998.

Dube was only charged with money laundering after the investigation revealed that large amounts of money were transferred from Mahlangu's bank account into her bank account between 2019 and 2020. The accused made a brief court appearance and were remanded in custody. Their matter was postponed to 13 August 2024 for a formal bail application.

North West Hawks head, major general Patrick Mbotho, and the director of public prosecutions in the North West, Dr. Rachel Makhari, have welcomed the arrest and commended the investigation team for working tirelessly to ensure that the accused are brought to book.

16-YEAR SENTENCE FOR FREEDOM PARK RAPIST

Rustenburg – Warrant officer Issac Mosweu secured a conviction in a rape case after a lengthy court battle that began in 2016.

On Thursday 1 August 2024, the Bafokeng Regional Court in Tlhabane sentenced Kealeboga James Maleho to sixteen years of direct imprisonment for raping an eleven-year-old victim at Freedom Park. Maleho was 23 years old at the time of the crime. The court heard that the victim was visiting her aunt's family during school holidays when Maleho entered her bedroom while she was asleep and committed the heinous act.

Sergeant Ofentse Mokgadi, speaking on the case, emphasised the significance of this conviction in the ongoing battle against gender-based violence. The Acting Bojanala Platinum Sub-District 2 Commissioner, brigadier Mamotsamai Ntoagae, condemned the incident in the strongest terms and applauded warrant officer Mosweu.

Warrant officer Issac Mosweu of the Family, Child Protection, and Sexual Offenses Unit.

MOB JUSTICE LEADS TO KIDNAPPING AND MURDER

Rustenburg/ Tlhabane – Provincial police commissioner, lieutenant general Sello Kwena, has warned that police will not tolerate vigilantism. This follows the court appearance of Gregory Phatshwane (43), Kagiso Mokwalase (32), Tshepo Thipe (33), and Mosimanegape Sekhomba (43) on charges of kidnapping and murder.

Brigadier Sabata Mokgwabone said the four men appeared in Bafokeng Magistrates' Court on 31 July 2024 and were remanded in custody until 6 August 2024. They were arrested on 29 July 2024. The accused allegedly kidnapped Ponono Sekgopi (43) from a tavern in Phokeng on 28 July 2024, accusing him of burglary. They took him to Kotokoto Dam, where he was assaulted. Sekgopi's body was discovered the next day by a passer-by, leading to police involvement. A Nissan Almera with blood stains and the suspects' blood-stained clothes were found, resulting in their arrest.

DOUBLE LIFE SENTENCE FOR SERIAL RAPIST

North West – The High Court of South Africa sitting in Klerksdorp sentenced Kabelo Anderson Tserema (43) to life imprisonment on 31 July 2024.

He received a double life sentence on two counts of rape, and additional sentences for multiple other crimes: eight counts of rape (ten years each), twelve counts of robbery (fifteen years each), eleven counts of kidnapping (five years each), and four counts of assault (six months each). All sentences will run concurrently with the life sentence imposed on count one.

Tserema faced charges on eleven dockets, encompassing a total of 45 counts of crimes including rape, robbery with aggravating circumstances, assault with intent to do grievous bodily harm, kidnapping, and pointing a firearm. Ten of these cases were registered in Mogwase and one in Phokeng between May 2013 and February 2016. Following a thorough investigation, Tserema was identified through forensic leads and was arrested on 11 February 2020. He has remained in custody since then. The court heard that Tserema would target women walking alone in the evening, attacking and dragging them to nearby bushes or graveyards. He assaulted, raped, and robbed his victims, who ranged in age from sixteen to thirty-eight, of their cash and cell phones. Most incidents occurred in the Lerome and Welgeval villages near Moruleng.

In advocating for a severe sentence, prosecutor advocate Nangamso Goloda stated, "It is an egregious state of affairs that more than two decades after the advent of our constitution which guarantees the rights to privacy, rights to bodily integrity, and right to freedom of movement, there are people like Tserema who make it their business to violate such rights against women in our society." He emphasised the necessity of removing Tserema from society for life to protect women in the country.

Delivering the judgment, judge Pieterse remarked that the accused emotionally and physically destroyed his victims. Lieutenant general Kwena and Dr. Rachel Makhari commended investigating officer warrant officer Ernest Modise, prosecutor Nangamso Goloda, and other role players including forensic investigators for their diligent efforts leading to the conviction.

TWO SENTENCED FOR LEBONE STREET ROBBERY

Rustenburg – Thulane Sishange (31) and Kamogelo Molefi (23) were sentenced by the Bafokeng Regional Court in Tlhabane on Friday 2 August 2024, for an armed robbery that occurred in July 2023 in Lebone Street, Tlhabane.

Sergeant Ofentse Mokgadi detailed the incident, explaining that on the fateful night, two friends were pushing their vehicle to a workshop after it broke down. Sishange and Molefi, initially pretending to help, were joined by three more suspects. The group overpowered the victims and robbed them at gunpoint.

A patrolling police vehicle happened upon the scene, prompting the suspects to flee.

Sishange was sentenced to ten years of direct imprisonment for robbery with aggravating circumstances, while Molefi received seven years on the same charge. The duo is believed to be part of a group of five involved in a spree of armed robberies around Lebone Street, the railway line crossing towards Zinniaville, and Rustenburg North.

The acting Bojanala Platinum Sub-District 2 commissioner, brigadier Mamotsamai Ntoagae, praised warrant officer Khomotjo Matlala for his outstanding investigative work and extended her gratitude to all stakeholders involved in the case.

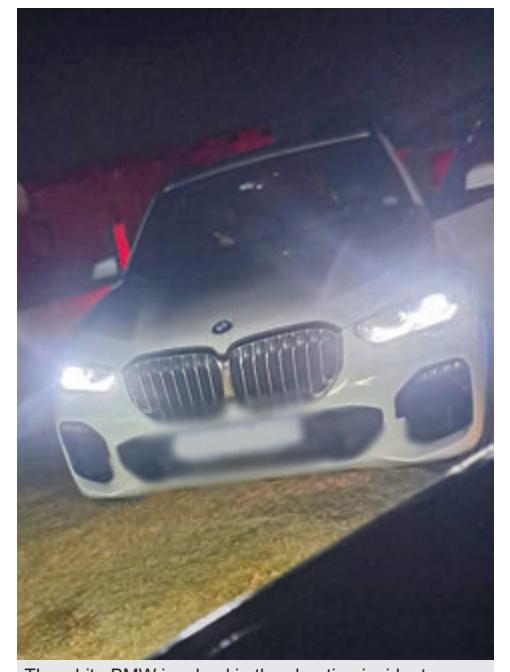

FAMILY ESCAPES GUNFIRE IN SHOOTING

Rustenburg – A family outing turned into a night of terror on Saturday 3 August 2024, when five adults, a three-year-old girl, and a three-month-old baby came under gunfire while traveling on Dr. Moroka Drive near the Rustenburg Kloof.

The incident occurred between 21:00 and 23:00 as the family was driving their Jeep Compass back from Hartbeespoort Dam on the N4 highway. Suddenly, a white double cab Ford Ranger and a white BMW, both with Gauteng number plates, began pursuing them.

The driver of the Jeep described the frightening encounter: "Just before the Mooi Nooit off-ramp, the Ranger flashed its lights at us. We moved into the left lane, and out of nowhere, they started shooting at us. There were four shots initially. We exited at the Mooi Nooit off-ramp, crossed over the bridge, and they drove past us. As we approached the Dr. Moroka off-ramp on our way home, they were waiting behind the traffic lights. They got out of their cars and started shooting at us again. We sped away, and thankfully, no one was hurt."

A woman in the Jeep recounted the terrifying ordeal, stating that six shots were fired during the second attack, shattering the Jeep's rear windshield.

WORDS ON THE WALL: Rustenburg's "FTC" Graffiti Sparks Debate

Rustenburg – The Platinum Weekly newspaper previously ran an article on 11 January 2024, featuring a letter to the editor from a concerned resident about the graffiti appearing all over town. The signs, with phrases like "Fk the Corrupt" or "FTC," have been spray-painted in various locations in Rustenburg, sparking public outrage and concern. We have documented these signs in multiple spots around town, including next to Bergsig Academy's substation, the Kameelboom substation, near the Helen Joseph Bridge, in Landdroos Street across from Danie Meyer Pharmacy, and on an electrical box at the corner of Beyers Naude and Brink Street in front of Deltec Batteries... to mention but a few! The graffiti also mars the Helen Joseph Bridge and the bridge on Wildevy Avenue. Marlise Lubbe, manager at Deltec Energy Solutions, expressed her concerns: "It really does not look good for our business. Such acts not only deface our community but also create a negative impression for visitors and customers. While I understand the frustration behind the message, vandalism is not the answer."

In an attempt to address the issue, Platinum Weekly reached out to the local South African Police Service (SAPS), but they redirected us to the municipality. We have since contacted the Rustenburg Local Municipality for a statement on the actions being taken to curb this vandalism, but are still awaiting their response.

HAWKS NAB FOUR EX-MUNICIPALITY EMPLOYEES AND ACCOMPLICES IN R4.4 M FRAUD CASE

Rustenburg – Four individuals, Thabo Molefe (39), Sello Molefe (42), Mmabatho Modiba-Molefe (43), and Sibusiso Mogale (44), appeared in the Rustenburg Magistrates' Court on Monday, 29 July 2024, facing allegations of fraud and money laundering. The suspects were apprehended by the Hawks' Serious Corruption Investigation unit in collaboration with the Cash-in-Transit Task Team on 27 and 28 July 2024 in Rustenburg, Vereeniging, and Pretoria.

The Bojanala Platinum District Municipality initiated the fraud case in July 2022, following an internal audit that unveiled irregularities with payments to a mobile network provider. Initially, the audit revealed a loss of R1.7 million incurred between 2017 and 2020. However, further investigation by the Hawks' Serious Corruption Investigation unit discovered that the municipality had actually suffered a loss of over R3.8 million, which was transferred to a fraudulent account under Matsempe Holdings (Pty) Ltd. Sello Molefe, a former employee of the municipality and the sole director of Matsempe Holdings, was implicated.

The investigation also exposed that over R1.4 million was transferred from Matsempe Holdings to Remoikantse Trading and Projects (Pty) Ltd, directed by Sibusiso Mogale, another former municipality employee from the information technology (IT) department. Additionally, the municipality was allegedly billed over R675,000 by Remoikantse Trading and Projects.

Further scrutiny revealed that Sello Molefe funnelled money from his company's bank account into the accounts of his relatives, Thabo Molefe and Mmabatho Modiba-Molefe. The municipality's total financial loss amounted to R4.4 million. Following these findings, arrest warrants were issued and executed.

The quartet has been charged with fraud and money laundering. They were released on bail: Sello Molefe and Sibusiso Mogale were granted R20,000 each, while Mmabatho Modiba-Molefe and Thabo Molefe were granted R10,000 each. The case has been postponed to 15 August 2024. Major general Patrick Mbotho, North West provincial head of the directorate for priority crime investigation, and Dr Rachel Makhari, director of public prosecutions in the North West, have both welcomed the arrests and court appearances.

Have your say / Sê jou sê

Is the quality of education your children are getting at school adequate?

We want to hear from you! Share your thoughts on whether your children are receiving the education they deserve. Join the conversation and make your voice heard!

"No, I have two children, one is 22 and the other 15. The quality of education was much higher five years ago. Back then, learners could complete their Senior Certificate in a normal school without extra help. Today, parents must seek additional educational assistance because schools aren't providing enough resources, especially in subjects like mathematics.

Despite paying high school fees, we now see inexperienced teachers as young as 22 in high schools. Schools should stop blaming Covid-19 for educational gaps and rethink their approach." Brigette Groenewald, Rustenburg

"Yes, my children are receiving a quality education. The importance of education cannot be overstated, as it can help break the cycle of intergenerational poverty. We need standards to measure educational effectiveness, ensuring that students are set up for lifelong success." Lebogang Shuping, Rustenburg

SOULFOOD

ISAIAH 33

A Prayer in Deep Distress

33 Woe to you who plunder, though you have not been plundered;

And you who deal treacherously, though they have not dealt treacherously with you!

When you cease plundering,

You will be plundered;

When you make an end of dealing treacherously,

They will deal treacherously with you.

2 O Lord, be gracious to us;

We have waited for You.

Be [a]their arm every morning,

Our salvation also in the time of trouble.

3 At the noise of the tumult the people shall flee;

When You lift Yourself up, the nations shall be scattered;

4 And Your plunder

shall be gathered

Like the gathering of the caterpillar;

As the running to and fro of locusts,

He shall run upon them.

Did you know?

Discovered in a shipwreck in 1901, the Antikythera mechanism is a 2,000-year-old device hailed as the world's first computer. This hand-powered marvel tracked the Sun, Moon, and planets, and even predicted eclipses with astonishing precision. Consisting of 30 intricate bronze gearwheels, this ancient Greek computer remained unmatched in complexity for a millennium. Recent studies using 3D modelling have unveiled its genius, showcasing ancient Greek engineering expertise. This fascinating relic continues to baffle and inspire scientists today.

Donate books to the Rustenburg SPCA

Rustenburg – The Rustenburg Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals (SPCA) is calling on the community to donate books for their upcoming book sale. Marisa Kruger, the inspector and manager of the Rustenburg SPCA, encourages residents to participate. "We urge everyone to donate books they no longer need," she said. "Each book donated goes a long way in supporting the welfare of the animals in our care."

This ongoing book collection is a perfect opportunity for community members to declutter their shelves and support a worthy cause. Whether you have a few novels, children's books, or non-fiction volumes to spare, your donation can make a significant impact.

For more info or in case of emergency, please contact the Rustenburg SPCA office at 014 592 3181 or inspector Marisa Kruger at 084 885 5173.
