Rustenburg – The 2025 Comrades Marathon brought more than just sweat and blisters — it brought honour to Rustenburg and the North West province!

Two incredible athletes from Run/Walk for Life Rustenburg crossed the finish line in Durban on Sunday, 8 June 2025, with times and medals that speak volumes of their dedication.

Phumlan Siwela delivered a powerful performance, clocking in at 6:59:10 to earn a coveted Silver Medal, a mark of elite athleticism in the 90km challenge dubbed The Ultimate Human Race. Not far behind, Lise Jacobs Vogt completed the course in 7:44:51, proudly claiming a Bill Rowan Medal for her outstanding effort and discipline.

Also flying the North West flag high, was Constable Jacob Masangani from Brits, who tackled his second Comrades with grit. He is stationed at the SAPS Bojanala Platinum Sub-District 2: Crime Combating Unit, Masangani.

Beyond local heroes, the North West Province once again proved its dominance in South African long-distance running. Half of the Top 10 male finishers hailed from NW!

- Tete Dijana (1st)
- Edward Mothibi (4th)
- Joseph Manyedi (5th)
- David Gatebe (7th)
- Gordon Lesetedi (9th)

Only one other South African male, Bongmusa Mthembu from KZN, made the Top 10 alongside four international athletes (Russia, Netherlands, UK).

The 2025 Comrades reminded us: when grit meets greatness, the North West leads the pack.

Rustenburg Car Thief Arrested

The stolen Toyota Cross and the 38-year-old suspect.

Rustenburg – A 38-year-old suspect was swiftly apprehended in the early hours of Saturday, 7 June 2025, after he was caught driving a suspected stolen vehicle on the N1 South near Polokwane. Between 23:00 on Friday night and 03:00 Saturday morning, members of the Limpopo Provincial Flying Squad sprang into action after receiving a tip-off about a white Toyota Cross reported stolen earlier this month in Rustenburg. Working in collaboration with Tshimollo Security and Tracker Company, officers managed to track and intercept the vehicle. Upon inspection, it was discovered that the car bore false registration plates. Verification confirmed it had indeed been stolen and was sought by the Rustenburg SAPS. The vehicle, driven by a single male, was recovered and the suspect was arrested on the scene.

The suspect was scheduled to appear before the Polokwane Magistrate's Court on Monday, 9 June 2025, facing a charge of possession of a suspected stolen motor vehicle.

Flames at Hyper Hoekie

Rustenburg – A sudden fire broke out at Hyper Hoekie, a popular local butchery in Protea Park, on Thursday, 5 June 2025. The fire, believed to have started above the shop's oil fryer, caused concern but fortunately resulted in no injuries.

Emergency services were swiftly contacted, and although the cause of the fire remains unknown, the prompt reaction helped contain the situation before it could spread further.

The Rustenburg Fire Brigade and Rustenburg Local Municipality have been approached for official comment, and their response is awaited at the time of publication.

The fire broke out above the Hyper Hoekie's oil fryer. Thanks to quick action, no injuries were reported.

The illegal hunting rifle seized from the suspected rhino poacher.

WEEKLY POLICE BUST YIELDS 851 ARRESTS

Rustenburg – A suspected rhino poacher was among 851 suspects arrested during the latest Operation Shanelo across the North West from 2 to 8 June 2025.

Mozambican national Sergio Django (40) was caught near Lindleyspoort after a tip-off led police and farmers to intercept his vehicle. He was found with a hunting rifle, five bullets, and three knives. He's due back in the Rustenburg Magistrate's Court on 17 June.

The weekly operations targeted serious crimes, resulting in arrests for murder, rape, armed robbery, drug possession, illegal mining, and more. The police also shut down 26 unlicensed shebeens and seized liquor, vehicles, and other contraband.

In Phokeng, a separate police sting led to the arrest of a 48-year-old man with a revolver and 48 rounds of ammunition. He was released on R1,000 bail.

R100m Printing Deal Sparks Outrage

SA – The Public Servants Association (PSA) has on 5 June 2025 strongly condemned the North West Department of Education for awarding a R100 million contract to print matric exam papers — nearly four times the previous cost of R27 million.

The PSA raised concerns about the lack of transparency and questioned why the secure, state-owned Government Printing Works was bypassed. At a time when rural learners walk long distances without transport and many schools face crumbling infrastructure and poor sanitation, the PSA believes this spend is both excessive and misplaced.

They are calling for a full forensic investigation into the deal, urging the department to redirect resources toward learner transport, school safety, and infrastructure upgrades. "Education funding must address real needs, not be wasted on questionable contracts," the PSA said.

Kanana's Golden Girl: Dineo Trials for Real Madrid

Kanana/ Rustenburg – At just 15 years old, Dineo Potso is already chasing a dream most only dare to imagine – earning a place in the ranks of one of the most iconic football clubs in the world. This determined young midfielder recently jetted off to Spain to attend 10-day trials with Real Madrid, carrying with her the hopes and pride of her family, her team, and her community.

Dineo is the only girl in her soccer team, Mogale City Football Club (FC), where she not only plays in the midfield but also captains a team of boys – proof of her undeniable skill, leadership, and spirit. "She's living the dream I could never reach," said her father, Kagiso Hlabathi. "I'm incredibly proud of her. I want to thank my family, especially my mother and sister, for helping raise such a disciplined young player. We're also deeply grateful to coach Matshediso Mogale for nurturing her talent and to the Kanana community and Royal Bafokeng for their support and belief in her."

Dineo's journey to Spain began at LaLiga trials held in Marang, Phokeng, where her talent caught the eye of scouts. If successful, she could soon wear the famous white jersey of Real Madrid.

Coach Matshediso Mogale, who has mentored Dineo since she joined the team, says: "I always tell my players, 'Rome wasn't built in a day.' Vision, passion, focus, commitment to training, and most of all, discipline, can take you where you never imagined."

Dineo grew up playing soccer with her cousin and drew inspiration from her father, who also played the sport. Now, her hard work is opening international doors.

With the full backing of her family, teammates, and the Kanana community, Dineo Potso's future is bright. Whether she signs with Real Madrid or not, she has already proven that passion and perseverance know no limits – especially not for a girl with a goal.

Dineo Potso (15) is the only girl in her team – and now, she's representing her town in Spain as she chases her football dream with trials at Real Madrid.
