RUSTENBURG SAYS FAREWELL TO MARCHANT JACOBS

Rustenburg – We are bidding a heartfelt farewell to one of its most dedicated public servants, Marchant Jacobs, who has embarked on a new chapter as the Operations Manager for the Northern Cape at Emer-G-Med. Known for his unwavering commitment to serving the community, Marchant has been a familiar face during both everyday duties and critical emergencies. From long hours in the field to moments of camaraderie with fellow emergency service members, he has left a mark on Rustenburg that will not easily fade. Reflecting on his years here, Marchant said, "Without a doubt, I'll miss the people the most — the friendly faces, the trust, the laughter we shared, and even the tough moments we overcame together. Rustenburg isn't just a place to me; it's a family I'll carry with me wherever I go." While the Northern Cape now gains his leadership and passion, Rustenburg holds on to the legacy he leaves behind — one of resilience, teamwork, and genuine care for others. As Marchant starts this exciting new role, the Platinum Weekly team, along with the entire community, wishes him nothing but success. This isn't goodbye — just the start of a new shift in a different place.

Blessed to be alive after Substation Blast

Rustenburg – What started out as a quiet Monday morning on 11 August 2025 quickly turned into chaos and concern when a substation exploded.

After a power outage, at around 09:00, locals noticed smoke coming from the substation. An 80-year-old resident went to investigate, opening the substation door — and at that moment, it erupted in a powerful blast. The explosion was so loud that many thought it to be an ATM bombing.

The elderly man sustained severe burns, with much of his clothing incinerated and even melted into his skin. By the time he was pulled to safety, he was left in only his underwear — a heartbreaking image that unfortunately became the subject of insensitive social media posts. Some Facebook users shared the photo, laughing at his state, not realising the pain and trauma behind it. "This is such bad taste," a reader told Platinum Weekly, alerting us to the circulating image.

The man was rushed to hospital in a serious condition. By God's grace, Oom Manie Haasbroek was able to handle the shock caused by the burn wounds to his body. "Our Omie never gives up. He's a miracle," a person staying at the same complex as Oom Manie, said. From the injuries sustained it is clear that there is going to be a long and difficult road to healing ahead. We join the community in praying for his recovery.

Fake Municipal Payment Scam

Rustenburg – The Rustenburg Local Municipality is warning residents about a scam involving fake payment notices. Fraudsters are sending letters claiming municipal accounts have been handed over to a "special credit control process" and demanding R15,000.77. These threats – including removing installations – are not from the municipality. Residents are urged to verify any outstanding accounts directly at municipal offices and to report scammers to the police immediately.

Stay Alert: Hijacking Hotspots

Police warn motorists after spike in targeted attacks

Bojanala Platinum District – The South African Police Service (SAPS) in the North West is urging motorists to be on high alert after a sharp rise in car and truck hijackings, with Toyota and Volkswagen models among the main targets.

SAPS spokesperson captain Mpho Manyoba said recent cases include a truck driver in Brits, attacked on 12 June 2025, tied up, and left in the bushes while suspects fled with his vehicle; and a 54-year-old man in Hebron, targeted on 1 August 2025, whose Mahindra bakkie was taken at gunpoint.

Most incidents occur at night – especially Fridays and Saturdays – on the N4, including Brits/ Johannesburg Road, Randburg off-ramp, Zandfontein off-ramp, Majakaneng off-ramp, and Rustenburg to Marikana before the off-ramp.

STAY SAFE

- Watch for vehicles following you; head to a police station if suspicious.
- Stay alert when arriving home.
- Keep escape space between you and the car ahead.
- Avoid stopping for strangers or in dark, quiet areas.

Report suspicious activity to your nearest police station or SAPS Crime Stop on 08600 10111.

Our Ward Matters Cleans, Cares, and Inspires

13 August: Clearing open spaces on Cycad and Santolina with the help of a skip from RLM Waste Department.

12 August: Kopper and Koorsboom Clean-Up – grass cut, rubbish removed, and area left neat and welcoming.

Monday 11 August: Overgrown veld cleared in Witstinkhout to open up safe pathways for joggers and residents.

at Agapé Gemeente, OWM received a printer/ fax/ copier/ scanner. When OWM team member William Sibanda asked if he could use it to start a small business from home, the answer was yes – and within a week, he was up and running, earning extra income. Thank you!

12 August – Two big clean-ups in one day! The team tackled Pendoring Spruitjie, cutting grass, clearing rubbish and reeds to improve visibility for pedestrians. They then moved on to Kopper and Koorsboom, cutting grass around the substation and along Kopper Street, picking up litter, and using a blower for a perfect finish.

13 August – Corner of Cycad and Santolina Brushcutters buzzed, rubbish bags filled, and a skip – arranged by Cllr Tanya Rothman from the RLM Waste Department – made quick work of the clean-up. Another open space made safe and tidy.

Majakaneng: AK-47 cache found hidden in vehicle

Rustenburg – In a dramatic pre-dawn raid on Wednesday, 6 August 2025, SAPS uncovered a deadly secret in Majakaneng – two AK-47 automatic rifles, 160 rounds of ammunition, and four magazines hidden in a secret vehicle compartment.

The find was made during an intelligence-led Cordon and Search operation involving over 200 officers from multiple SAPS units, ESKOM, Immigration, private security, and community volunteers. The crackdown targeted Majakaneng, identified as a serious crime hotspot.

Police arrested the driver on the spot. Investigations quickly linked him – and the firearms – to a violent business robbery in Marikana the previous night, where 10 heavily armed suspects blew open a wholesale store safe and two ATMs, and even fired on patrolling officers.

Fully automatic rifles like AK-47s are prohibited for civilian use in South Africa, making the discovery a clear sign of serious organised crime.

Thursday 7 Aug: Clearing overgrown veld in Krokodilrivier to prevent veld fires and improve safety.

NERSA sets gas price cap – here's what it means

SA – In a press release on 12 August 2025, the National Energy Regulator of South Africa (NERSA) announced that it has set a maximum price for Egoli Gas customers for the period 1 March 2025 to 28 February 2026. The cap is R151.14 per gigajoule (GJ) for end-users and R143.58 per GJ for resellers, excluding VAT. This means Egoli Gas cannot charge more than these amounts, though they may charge less. Prices will be reviewed quarterly and may change slightly based on supplier costs.

NERSA says the cap helps protect customers in a market with little competition, keeping prices closer to what they would be in a fair, competitive market.

Koster Hospital Crisis

Koster – Dangerous, deteriorating conditions at Koster Hospital have reached a breaking point, with both patients and healthcare workers facing serious safety risks. The Public Servants Association (PSA) has sounded the alarm on 5 August 2025, calling on the North West MEC for Health to intervene immediately.

Falling ceilings, a leaking roof, and dangerously outdated electrical wiring have rendered parts of the hospital unusable, forcing patients to travel up to 70 km to Rustenburg for treatment. This not only delays urgent care but adds financial and emotional strain on already vulnerable patients.

The North West Department of Health has blamed stalled refurbishment on a "lack of community buy-in" — an explanation the PSA dismisses as unacceptable. "The Department has a legal and moral duty to provide safe, habitable facilities. This neglect is reckless and dangerous," the PSA said.

The union is demanding a personal inspection by the MEC, the closure of unsafe areas, and the release of emergency repair funds without bureaucratic delays. The PSA also wants urgent inspections by both the Department's OHS Unit and the Department of Employment and Labour.

PSA press release extracts

Fighting Fire with Futures

Rustenburg – In the quiet valleys of Buffelspoort, a spark of opportunity recently lit the way for 30 unemployed students. Under the guidance of the North West Umbrella Fire Protection Association (NWUFPA), a practical fire safety and environmental management training programme was completed — and it proved to be more than just a skills course. It was a lifeline.

The students, based at Oppiberg just outside Rustenburg, tackled one of the region's most pressing natural hazards: veldfires. Their hands-on training involved reducing fuel loads and strategically de-bushing high-risk wildfire zones along the Magaliesberg escarpment — a terrain notorious for fires that are difficult to contain and devastating to farmland and natural ecosystems alike.

This initiative was made possible through partnerships with FP&MSSETA and NWUFPA, which funded the labour, training, and equipment. Local landowner Werner Odendaal also stepped forward, generously providing accommodation for the group at Oppiberg.

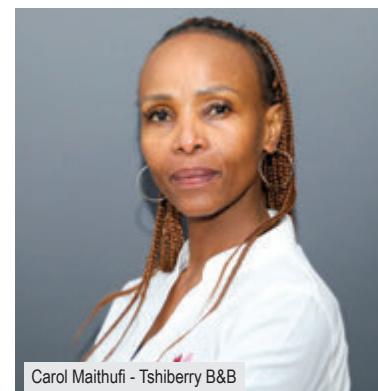

However, the next phase of this crucial work now hangs in the balance. NWUFPA is urgently seeking sponsors to help cover the material costs of creating firebreaks and supporting the basic needs of trainees and trainers. Items needed include Learners cut grass next to the fence as a fire prevention measure, ensuring the area would be safer should a fire approach.

From Humble Beginnings to High-End Hospitality

The Rise of Tshiberry B&B

Rustenburg – Nestled in Phokeng near Rustenburg, Tshiberry Bed & Breakfast has grown from a modest family-run guesthouse into a sought-after luxury stay — thanks to the vision of founder Carol Maithufi and the support of the RBH Kgolo Enterprise and Supplier Development Programme.

Established in 2016 with just eight rooms and two staff members, Tshiberry now boasts 12 rooms, a custom dining area, conferencing facilities, and a full-time team of 14. Its success highlights the power of small businesses when paired with the right support.

Maithufi's journey took a major leap when she joined the RBH Kgolo ESD Programme, led by the Royal Bafokeng Nation and implemented by Edge Growth. With access to funding, mentorship, and market opportunities, the guesthouse expanded its offerings and tapped into new markets, including events and conferencing.

"The expansion changed the game," says Maithufi. "We grew in size, confidence, and capability."

Today, Tshiberry B&B stands as a beacon of local enterprise success, offering authentic hospitality while driving job creation and tourism growth in the North West.

Edge Growth's ESD Fund, established in 2011, plays a vital role in helping businesses like Tshiberry thrive — by connecting entrepreneurs with funding, skills, and scalable growth strategies.

HELP LIGHTHOUSE THIS WINTER

Rustenburg – The Lighthouse Child and Youth Care Centre is reaching out to the community for support. Their message is simple but urgent: Please help us keep the lights on.

Located at the heart of care and compassion, Lighthouse Child and Youth Care Centre provides shelter and support to vulnerable children and youth. This June, they are in need of essential supplies — from fresh fruit and vegetables to everyday health items like cough syrup, fever medication, vitamins, and more. The centre has also appealed for help with utility bills, and encourages anyone willing to assist to make a contribution.

HAVE YOUR SAY

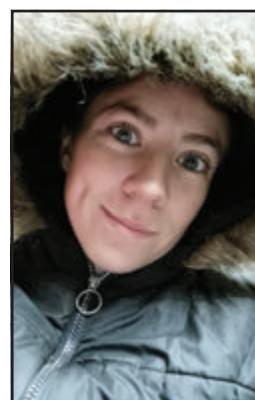

Do you know what it means when someone says: 'It's my time to eat'?

In South Africa, this saying often refers to corruption — when officials or insiders justify looting or bribery by claiming it's their "turn" to benefit from public resources. What do you think? Let us know!

Yes. It means "It's my turn to succeed or benefit" — for example, landing a big opportunity, making money, or finally enjoying rewards after hard work. Unfortunately, in the context of law enforcement and politics, it's often used negatively to justify corruption and taking bribes.

Bassie Mooketsi,
Rustenburg

In my opinion, yes. In South Africa, everyone seems to want a piece of the pie, which means it's not always the same people involved in corruption or bribery — it shifts from one person to the next.

Charné Botha,

RCC conquers the Trans Baviaans 2025

Rustenburg — They call it the toughest and most rewarding mountain bike race in South Africa — and for good reason. The Trans Baviaans is more than just a ride; it's a 230km, three-day test of grit, determination, and camaraderie through one of the country's most breathtaking yet unforgiving landscapes.

On Saturday 9 August 2025, members of the Rustenburg Cycling Club (RCC) took on this epic challenge, starting in Willowmore and finishing in Jeffrey's Bay on 11 August. Known for its steep climbs, rugged dirt tracks, and long stretches through the wild beauty of the Baviaanskloof, the race pushes riders to their physical and mental limits.

This year's event was made even more special by the shared spirit among riders. As RCC's participants battled fatigue, navigated treacherous terrain, and soaked in the scenery, the bond of the cycling community shone through — proving once again that the Trans Baviaans is as much about heart as it is about endurance.
