THE MAN WITH THE CROSS

South Africa bids farewell to Patrick Styles (64) — the man known far and wide as “the man with the cross.” For over a decade, Patrick walked thousands of kilometres across the country, carrying a wooden cross and spreading the message of God’s love, forgiveness, and hope.

From Rustenburg to Potchefstroom, Koster to Cape Town, and even Carletonville to Mossel Bay, Patrick’s steps inspired countless people to turn their hearts toward God. His walks raised awareness about farm murders and called the nation to prayer — always guided by faith, never fame.

Patrick passed away on 13 October 2025, leaving behind his devoted wife Desiré, three sons, seven grandchildren, and a legacy that will never fade.

Though his earthly journey has ended, Patrick’s message still rings true: “Take up your cross daily and follow Jesus Christ.”

Patrick walking to raise awareness on farm murders and reclaiming the land for Jesus in Velddrif.

Patrick Styles' steps may have stopped, but his message of faith continues.

Remembering Patrick Styles, South Africa's Man with the Cross

Rustenburg — South Africa mourns the passing of Patrick Styles (64), known across the nation as "the man with the cross" — a humble believer who carried a wooden cross along countless roads to share the message of God's love, forgiveness, and salvation.

Patrick's remarkable journey of faith began in 2010, when a powerful prophecy at his church changed the course of his life. Three years later, in 2013, he told his wife Desiré that he would build a cross and walk with it — not for show, but to call people back to God. His first journey took him from Rustenburg to Potchefstroom, marking the beginning of a decade-long mission that would see him walk through nearly every province of South Africa.

"God was with him every step of the way," recalls Desiré. "Patrick walked in obedience, praying for revival in our nation and for people to find hope again in Jesus."

Over the years, Patrick's cross became a symbol of faith, perseverance, and compassion. He walked through towns and farmlands — from Koster to Cape Town, Carletonville to Mossel Bay, the Karoo, Mpumalanga, the Free State, Pretoria, and even the Cape coast — raising awareness about farm murders, praying for both victims and perpetrators, and declaring that "this land belongs to Jesus."

Patrick's message was simple yet profound: "God said, go out and make disciples of all nations. We must return to Him. I pray for the farmers and even for the farm murderers — that God may fill their hearts and turn them away from their evil ways."

He relied solely on faith — often walking for weeks at a time, sustained by the kindness of strangers and the strength of his calling. His journey inspired thousands online, where he shared prayers and messages that reached far beyond the roads he walked.

Patrick passed away on 13 October 2025 and was laid to rest at the Huis van Gebedsbediening in De Wildt, Hartbeespoort, under Pastor Wally Rheefer. He leaves behind his wife of 27 years, three sons, and seven grandchildren — and a legacy of unwavering faith.

Though Patrick's earthly steps have stopped, his message continues to echo: "Take up your cross daily and follow Him."

Patrick and his brother, Michael Styles, building the fourth wooden cross together in 2023 — a symbol of their shared faith and devotion.

Owl Rescue Takes Flight from Northam to Safety

Northam/ Hartbeespoort – A heart-warming story of courage and compassion unfolded on Friday 8 August 2025, when a barn owl with a fractured wing was rescued in an extraordinary cross-province operation — complete with an airplane and a community united by care.

The call for help came from Mel, who discovered the injured owl near Mawala Lodge outside Northam. Recognising the urgency, Brendan Murray, co-founder of the Owl Rescue Centre (ORC), took to the skies from Kroon Airfield to ensure the bird received medical attention as quickly as possible. "The faster an animal gets the help it needs, the greater the chance of a successful rehabilitation and release," explained Danelle Murray, ORC's co-founder and director.

Mawala Lodge graciously granted Brendan permission to use their small airstrip — a gesture that turned what could have been a long, stressful road trip into a two-hour, life-saving mission. Upon landing, Mel met Brendan on the airstrip, carefully transferring the owl into a special soundproof carrier for the flight to ORC's Hartbeespoort facility. At the centre, veterinarians confirmed the owl's wing was fractured, likely from a collision with a fence or vehicle — a common risk for these nocturnal hunters. Thanks to prompt care, the owl is now healing well and expected to make a full recovery before being reintroduced to the wild through a gradual soft-release programme.

"We believe in the intrinsic value of every single life," says Danelle. "When an animal is in distress,

Runaway lion captured near Zeerust

The escaped lion was safely captured after a brief scare near Zeerust.

North West — The Department of Economic Development, Environment, Conservation and Tourism (DEDECT) has confirmed that a lion which escaped from a transport trailer earlier this week has been safely captured.

The incident occurred on Monday, 20 October 2025, along the R49 between Lichtenburg and Zeerust. The lion was en route from the Free State to Nietverdiend in the Ramotshere Moiloa area when it reportedly broke free from its trailer, sparking widespread concern on social media. Authorities quickly responded to the scene, and the lion was recaptured without incident — bringing great relief to nearby communities and road users.

While no injuries or damages have been reported,

DEDECT has launched a formal investigation into the matter. Early findings suggest there may have been an infringement of the transport permit's conditions. The probe will also examine whether the owner complied with South African National Standards (SANS) 1884-3, which detail legal requirements for the safe transport and handling of wild animals, including cage design, vehicle specifications, and animal welfare protocols.

In addition, investigators will check compliance with permit Condition 5, which requires public liability insurance to cover any potential damages caused by escaped animals. Game farmers and wildlife transporters are urged to ensure full compliance with all safety and permit regulations to prevent similar incidents in future.

RAIN OR SHINE

Our Ward Matters keeps Rustenburg clean!

21 October – The OWM team joined by local councilors during the Timbati Veld and Watervalrivier clean-up.

Rustenburg – From bush cutting to rubbish removal, Our Ward Matters (OWM) continues to show that true transformation begins with teamwork. Led by André van Dyk and Cllr Tanya Rothman, and supported by the dedicated EPWP team, OWM has once again brought visible change to Wards 16 and 17 – even with the recent rain trying to slow things down!

20 October – Still Hard at Work

Although the weather made grass cutting impossible, the OWM team refused to stay indoors. One crew started in Azaleapark/ Selly Park, cleaning toward Greystone, then along the R24 near BP Garage and Waterfall Mall. Another pair tackled Dachill Avenue, clearing dumped waste and working through Cuckoo Avenue and the Checkers area. Meanwhile, a third team cleaned around Mike's Kitchen, Total Garage, and Helen Joseph Drive, before heading down Waterberg, past KFC, Builders, and back along the R24.

A heartfelt thank you goes to Loelie from RE/MAX and her team for their efforts in Helen Joseph Drive — every helping hand truly matters!

21 October – Joining Forces

The next morning, the OWM family expanded! Cllr Jean Keyser, Cllr Martin Coetzee, and Cllr Tanya Rothman joined André van Dyk and Michael Rothman for another productive clean-up. The team focused on Timbati Veld, cutting grass and clearing litter before moving on to Watervalrivier, where they began cleaning along the water canal toward Krokodilrivier — to be continued the next day. All refuse bags from Timbati Veld were cleared and removed.

20 October – Rain couldn't stop the OWM team from cleaning Rustenburg's streets and open spaces.

Spotting fraud before it's too late

As we head into the last stretch of the year, many households are preparing for school holidays, family gatherings, travel plans, and the early stages of festive season shopping. In addition to an increase in day-to-day spending, this unfortunately also means more opportunities for fraudsters to target unsuspecting individuals.

"As we enter the final months of the year, it's important for individuals to remain alert to scams and fraudulent activity. Fraudsters know that this is a time when people are more relaxed, distracted, or busy with family plans, making them more vulnerable to scams. Protecting yourself comes down to awareness, caution, and using the secure tools your bank provides," says Dhashni Naidoo, Consumer Education Programme Manager at FNB.

Why this time of year matters

According to the South African Banking Risk Information Centre (SABRIC), digital banking fraud incidents more than doubled from 31,612 cases in 2023 to 64,000 in 2024, with financial losses exceeding R1.4 billion.

While it isn't December yet, transaction volumes are already on the rise as families prepare for Black Friday, holidays, school breaks, and upcoming events. Fraudsters know this, and they use the increased pace of life and our moments of distraction to their advantage.

Naidoo also stresses that education and awareness are your best defences. "The more you understand how scams work, the less likely you are to be caught off guard. It's about building simple but consistent habits that make it harder for fraudsters to succeed. Small, everyday habits like always verifying text messages, links, or calls through your bank's official channels can go a long way in keeping your finances safe."

How scammers use social engineering to sneak in FNB's Head of Card Transact, Industry and Fraud Detection Chris Boxall says fraud has become more than just card skimming or stolen details. It's about criminals inserting themselves into your daily life, through social engineering, especially when you're already juggling bigger financial commitments.

Social engineering refers to the act of psychologically manipulating victims into performing actions or divulging confidential information. And, when scammers use this strategy, the trickery often begins with something that feels normal: a routine-looking SMS, a WhatsApp alert, or even a phone call from someone claiming to be from your bank. Fraudsters use these otherwise ordinary platforms to manipulate unsuspecting members of the public into giving them unauthorised access to bank accounts, money, and other important assets. They often achieve this through tactics like:

Practical ways to protect yourself

FNB encourages consumers to combine vigilance, education and awareness, and smart banking habits with secure tools:

- Pause before you act: If a message or call feels rushed or suspicious, stop and think about your next move.
- Verify directly: Contact FNB through the official number which is 087 575 9444 or the FNB Banking App instead of responding to unsolicited requests.
- Protect sensitive data: Never share PINs, passwords, or OTPs, no matter who asks. And remember that legitimate FNB staff will never, under any circumstances, ever ask you for this information.
- Bank with extra layers of safety: The FNB Virtual Card offers added protection for online purchases because it has a dynamic CVV; it's temporary, merchant-specific, and can be locked immediately after use.
- Stay informed in real-time: Turn on Smart Alerts in the FNB Banking App so you can receive instant updates on your transactions.

- Phishing: emails disguised as communication from your bank or South African Revenue Service (SARS), often promising tax refunds

- Vishing: calls where imposters pose as bank staff and pressure you for sensitive information

- Smishing also known as Messaging scams: on WhatsApp or SMS that push urgent links or payment requests

- Quishing: scams using QR codes that redirect to fake websites

More than 63% of cases reported by SABRIC involved the stealing of personal information through emails, fake websites, social media or text messages (phishing), or through phone calls or voice messages (vishing), or other related scams.

"Scammers are becoming increasingly sophisticated in the ways in which they execute social engineering. From phishing and vishing to fake WhatsApp messages and suspicious texts, they exploit our trust, our busy schedules, and even our sense of urgency or panic," adds Boxall.

Boxall warns that tax season adds another risk. "Fraudsters know many South Africans are expecting communication from the South African Revenue Service (SARS) about returns or funds. They use this to send out convincing emails or SMSs with fake links. Always double check using official SARS or bank channels."

"Awareness is your first line of defence against fraud" says Boxall. "And, with a combination of vigilance and the right tools, you can keep yourself safe from fraudsters."

"The more informed you are about how scams work, the better equipped you are to stop them before they start. As a bank, we believe that helping our customers by empowering them with knowledge is just as important as providing secure banking tools. Yes, an FNB Virtual Card or our Smart Alerts can give you peace of mind. But the real difference comes when you make fraud awareness part of your everyday routine. That's especially important as we head toward the busy year-end period," he concludes.

SURPRISE NDLOVU BREAKS BARRIERS at the 45th Eskom Expo International Science Fair

Rustenburg's Surprise Ndlovu proudly represented Bojanala at the 45th Eskom Expo International Science Fair, earning a Bronze Medal and multiple Special Awards.

Rustenburg – Surprise Ndlovu, a Grade 12 learner from Boikagong Secondary School in Paardekraal, has made history as the first from his school to attend the Eskom Expo International Science Fair (ISF) — and he brought home a Bronze Medal and three Special Awards!

Representing Bojanala, North West, Ndlovu received:

- Babcock NextGen Engineering Bursary Award – a full bursary and high-end laptop
- South African Institute for Electrical Engineers Award – R8,000 cash prize
- Siemens PTY Ltd Award – tablet for innovation

"Winning at the ISF was life-changing. It motivated me to persevere and achieve more," he said. His love for science began young. "I never had toys, so I made my own from whatever I could find. That's where my creativity started," he shared.

Held at Emperors Palace from 6–10 October 2025, the ISF brought together learners from across South Africa and abroad. Ndlovu's story — from a township classroom to an international stage — is one of hope, resilience, and inspiration.

Now in its 14th year, the Royal Bafokeng Basketball programme continues to prove that the future of Bafokeng basketball is bright, bold, and unstoppable.

BUY A TICKET, WIN A LAMB, AND HELP KEVIN HEAL

Rustenburg – The spirit of compassion continues to shine in Rustenburg as locals rally once again to support Kevin Jansen van Vuuren, a young man whose story of resilience has touched countless hearts since a tragic car accident on the N4 in May 2023. Kevin, who sustained severe injuries in the crash that claimed one life, has been fighting an extraordinary battle towards recovery — with courage, determination, and the unwavering support of his family and community. After years of rehabilitation and therapy, he continues to make steady progress, showing daily improvements that inspire everyone around him. Now, a new fundraising initiative aims to keep his journey moving forward. Supporters can buy a raffle ticket for just R100 and stand a chance to win a whole lamb — with every cent going towards Kevin's therapy, home carer, and medical bills.

To enter, simply WhatsApp Aurelia (060 989 7090) or Esmay (082 459 0823).

The competition ends 25 October 2025, and a video of the draw will be shared when the winner is announced.

"Kevin is our warrior," says his mother, Aurelia. "He's working so hard every single day to regain what he lost. The support we've received from Rustenburg — from friends, family, and even strangers — has kept us strong. We are deeply grateful."

Kevin Jansen van Vuuren continues to inspire the Rustenburg community with his courage and determination to recover from a traumatic brain injury.

VASTRAP SKAAKSPELERS GEKIES VIR PROVINSIALE SPAN!

Rustenburg – Die bekende en gerespekteerde hoofafrigter van beide die Noordwes Skaakfederasie en die Rustenburg Skaakkub, Martin Nkuna, het met trots op 1 Oktober 2025 aangekondig dat tien spelers van Laerskool Vastrap gekies is om die Noordwes Provincie te verteenwoordig tydens die Mzansi Interprovinciale Skaakkampioenskap, wat van 15–20 Desember 2025 in Port Elizabeth sal plaasvind.

Hierdie merkwaardige mylpaal beteken dat hierdie jong talentvolle spelers provinsiale kleure sal ontvang vir hul uitstaande prestasie. Hulle sal meedien in beide die span- en individuele afdelings, elk volgens hul ouderdomsgruppe, in die Junior- en Senior afdelings. Afrigter Martin het sy trots en aanmoediging met die spelers gedeel: "Ek is ongelooflik trots op elkeen van julle wat julle plek in die Mzansi Kampioenskap 2025 verdien het. Gaan uit, speel met hart, en maak elke skuif tel. Ek glo in julle."

Die Pad na Susses

Om hierdie vlak van kompetisie te bereik verg baie meer as net talent. Dit is die resultaat van maande se oefening, vaardigheidsontwikkeling, en lang ure se toewyding. Spelers moet selfdissipline, deursettingsvermoë, en sportmanskap toon, elke tree van die pad. Skaak gaan nie net oor die stukke op die bord nie – dit vereis ook strategiese denke, en die veerkrachtigheid om onder druk te presteer.

Prestasies Langs die Weg

Die Vastrap Skaakspan het reeds 'n indrukwekkende jaar agter die rug. In Mei 2025 het hulle deelgeneem aan die Super 12-toernooi, waar hulle 'n plek in die Top 10 skole behaal het. Later, in Julie 2025, het verskeie spelers aan die Clash of Schools-toernooi deelgeneem, waar hulle die algemene trofee gewen het en ook individuele bordpryse en toekennings ingepalm het. Hierdie resultate is 'n bewys van beide hul individuele uitnemendheid en hul krag as 'n span. Die Noordwes Skaakfederasie bring hul opregte gelukwensinge aan hierdie spelers oor met hul besondere prestasie. Hulle reis dien as 'n inspirasie vir jong skaakliefhebbers regoor die provinsie.

Did you know?

In South Africa, owls face their greatest danger not from predators — but from people. Studies show that dozens of owls die every year on highways, especially along the N1 and N4 routes, struck by speeding vehicles as they swoop low to hunt. Others perish after eating poisoned rats, victims of human pest control. These silent hunters, symbols of wisdom, now fall victim to the world they silently protect. Each feather left on the tar is a reminder that our roads are claiming the night's guardians.

Under African Skies

Lebone II College's "Under African Skies" musical dazzled with song, dance, and the proud spirit of Africa.

Rustenburg/ Phokeng – On 8 October 2025, Lebone II College of the Royal Bafokeng hosted a spectacular Music Extravaganza: Under African Skies, bringing families, students, and staff together for a magical night beneath the stars.

Held in the scenic amphitheatre under the school's new roof, the show celebrated heritage and creativity through song, dance, and storytelling. "The production showcased the remarkable talent and teamwork of our students, teachers, and support staff," said lower school principal Petra Marais. Upper school principal Luciano Antonio added, "It was more than a musical — it was a celebration of family, culture, and unity. Together, we went far under African skies." Executive head Melvin King praised the evening as "a vibrant celebration of creativity and a perfect start to the final term." Parents called the performance "electric" and "beautiful."

The night ended on a high note with Vicky Sampson's 'My African Dream', a fitting finale to a performance that echoed the pride and heartbeat of Africa.

Bergsig's Bright New Leaders!

Bergsig Akademie's newly elected Head Boy and Head Girl for 2025/2026, Scott and Nina, proudly received their black Honorary Colours blazers during the school's prestigious Laurel Evening on 29 August 2025 — a proud tradition shared with their parents and school community.

Mother and Daughter Conquer Croatia

Rustenburg Cycling Club's Sharron O'Reilly and her daughter Megan O'Reilly proudly represented South Africa at the Playa Laguna Ironman 70.3 in Croatia — a once-in-a-lifetime mother-daughter adventure!

Rustenburg – Talk about a family that races together! On 19 October 2025, Rustenburg Cycling Club (RCC) member Sharron O'Reilly and her daughter Megan O'Reilly took their passion for endurance sports across the world — to the stunning Adriatic coast of Croatia — where they completed the Playa Laguna Ironman 70.3 Race.

The event, held in the picturesque town of Poreč on the Istrian peninsula, tested athletes with a challenging 1.9km swim, 90km cycle, and 21km run. For Sharron and Megan, it wasn't just a race — it was an unforgettable experience of teamwork, determination, and shared adventure. Known for its crystal-clear waters, rolling green hills, and medieval charm, Istria provided a breathtaking backdrop for the Ironman challenge. The duo described it as "the experience of a lifetime", combining sport and sightseeing in one of Europe's most scenic destinations.

Rustenburg's Louis Meintjes retires after 13-year pro career

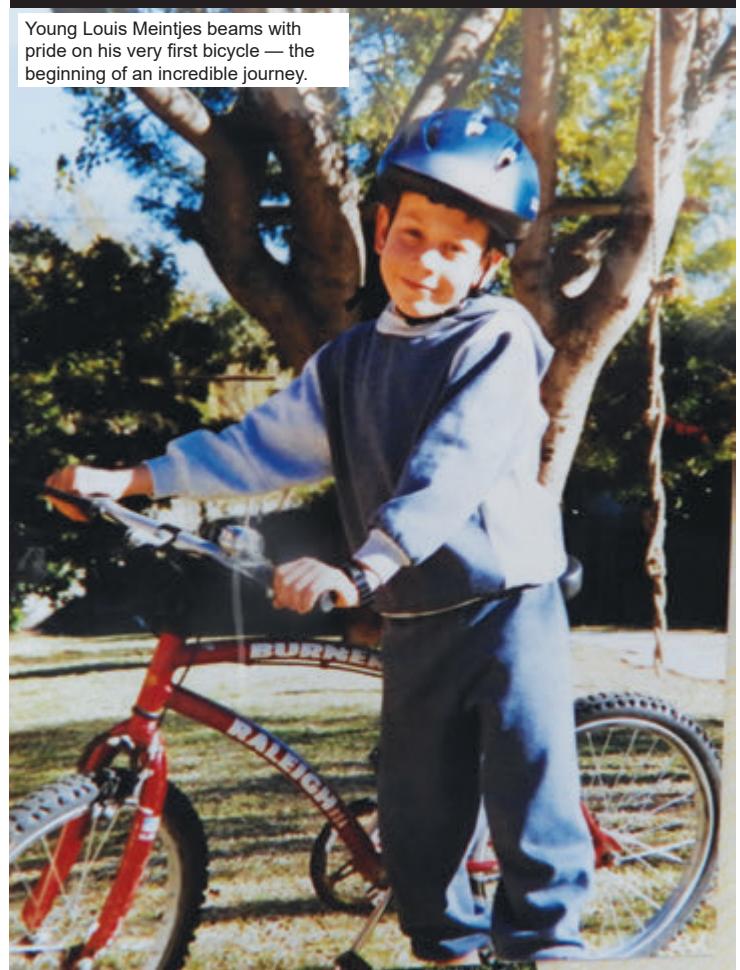

Rustenburg – After nearly 14 years of racing on the world's most prestigious cycling stages, Rustenburg's very own Louis du Buisson Meintjes (33) has officially stepped down from his professional cycling career. A true hometown hero, Louis's journey from local roads to international acclaim is one defined by passion, grit, and unshakable dedication.

Born and raised in Rustenburg, Louis found his stride not on a football field like his brother, but on a bicycle. "I wasn't good at other team sports," he recalls with a smile, "but I found cycling." That discovery changed everything.

Louis joined the Rustenburg Cycling Club (RCC) at 15, helping his parents buy his first bike — a Raleigh RC2000 — and quickly impressed fellow cyclists with his skill and endurance. Hennie Fourie, RCC co-founder, fondly remembers spotting his talent early on. "Louis had incredible balance and sheer determination on the climbs," Hennie said. "He showed heart from day one."

THE LONG RIDE HOME

Young Louis Meintjes beams with pride on his very first bicycle — the beginning of an incredible journey.

From Rustenburg to the World

After graduating from Bergsig Academy in 2010, Louis joined the Belgian team Crabbé in 2011, beginning an extraordinary journey that would take him to the summits of global cycling. His career highlights include:

- Three Top 8 finishes in the Tour de France (2016, 2017, and 2022)
- South African National Road Race Champion (2014)
- Podium finishes at African Road Championships and the UCI Under-23 World Championships
- Victories in Settimana Internazionale di Coppi e Bartali, Giro dell'Appennino, and stages in both the Vuelta a España and Tour of the Basque Country

Louis was also named Best African Rider of the Year (2013), receiving his award from cycling legend Bernard Hinault during the Tropicale Amissa Bongo in Gabon.

A Career Built on Humility and Heart

Throughout his journey, Louis never forgot his roots. "A big thanks to my supporters from Rustenburg — my family, my friends, and my coach Hennie Fourie," he said. "Cycling started as fun, but it became my job. I started with nothing and found my own way in the sport."

His father, Johannes Meintjes, shared his pride: "We are so proud of our son. He's focused, determined, and humble. Even when he's home, Louis always wants to hear how the family is before talking about his career. He's like a diesel engine — always steady, always pushing on."

Louis Meintjes joins the Rustenburg Cycling Club for a relaxed morning ride in 2016 — always loyal to his roots.

A New Chapter Begins

On 13 October 2025, Louis officially announced his retirement, closing one chapter and opening another — fatherhood. His wife, Laura, is eight months pregnant with twin boys, and Louis says he is ready to trade race routes for baby routes.

"I'm incredibly proud to have had a thirteen-year career as a professional cyclist," he reflected. "As a kid, all I dreamed about was riding in the pro peloton — and I made that dream come true. Racing for the last time at Il Lombardia was surreal. For now, I'm focusing on family life and enjoying sport in new ways."

Louis Meintjes in peak form during the 2014 South African National Road Race Championships.
