Note from the editor

Many people are carrying genuine concerns about the direction of our country. Some are worried about jobs. Some are worried about crime. Some are worried about whether their children will have opportunities in the years ahead.

These concerns are not imaginary, and they should not be dismissed. The answer, however, is not panic or conflict. It is honest discussion, lawful action, strong communities, and the determination to build something better.

N4 Spiking Strikes Again

Platinum Weekly newspaper | Rustenburg
– Motorists are once again being warned to exercise caution when travelling at night as vehicle spiking incidents continue to plague South African roads.
On 19 June 2026, Bakwena Platinum Corridor Concessionaire issued a safety alert, noting a renewed increase in these incidents. Vehicle spiking, where sharp objects are placed on roads to puncture tyres and target motorists, has become a recurring problem in many parts of the country.
Bakwena said it is working closely with the SAPS, Metropolitan Police and Provincial Traffic Authorities to support investigations and help reduce the incidents.
Drivers are urged to remain vigilant, especially after dark, and to report suspicious activity to authorities.

'n Legende van Bergsig groet: Juffrou Miemie se nalatenskap leef voort

Platinum Weekly koerant | Rustenburg – Die Bergsig Akademie-gemeenskap treur oor die afsterwe van 'n geliefde opvoeder, mentor en vriendin, Juffrou Miemie Botha, wat vir drie dekades lank 'n onuitwisbare merk op die skool en sy mense gelaat het.

Vir 30 jaar was Juffrou Miemie veel meer as net 'n onderwyser. Sy was 'n bron van wysheid, aanmoediging en ondersteuning vir duisende leerders, kollegas en ouers wat die voorreg gehad het om haar pad te kruis. Volgens Bergsig Akademie sal haar passie vir onderwys, haar opregte liefde vir mense en haar onwrikbare toewyding aan die skool altyd onthou word. Deur die jare het sy nie net kennis oorgedra nie, maar ook waardes gevestig en lewens gevorm.

Hoewel haar heengaan 'n groot verlies is, vier die Bergsig-familie ook 'n lewe van diens, omgee en uitnemendheid. Haar nalatenskap leef voort in die harte van die mense wat sy aangeraak het en in die geskiedenis van die skool wat sy met soveel trots gedien het.

"'n Legende sterf nooit werklik nie; haar nalatenskap leef voort in die harte van dié wat sy aangeraak het."

Bergsig Akademie het hul innige meegevoel uitgespreek teenoor Juffrou Miemie se familie, vriende en almal wat haar geken het.

Rus sag, Juffrou Miemie Botha. U sal diep gemis word, maar nooit vergeet word nie. U sal vir altyd deel van die Bergsig-familie bly.

NEED SASSA HELP? 24/7 WhatsApp line launched

Platinum Publishers | SA – South African social grant beneficiaries now have an easier way to access important information, thanks to an enhanced WhatsApp service launched by the South African Social Security Agency (SASSA). The automated SASSA WhatsApp channel, available on 082 601 0111, went live on 4 May 2026 and is designed to improve accessibility, convenience and efficiency for beneficiaries and members of the public. According to SASSA North West acting regional executive manager, Mildred Sono, the initiative forms part of the agency's ongoing efforts to modernise service delivery and ensure that no beneficiary is left behind. Through the platform, users can check the status of grant applications, access payment date information, receive guidance on applying for social grants, obtain answers to frequently asked questions, and access general information about SASSA services.

The service is available 24 hours a day, seven days a week, helping to reduce the need for physical visits to SASSA offices and saving beneficiaries valuable time. SASSA reminded beneficiaries never to share their PINs or personal information with anyone who contacts them via phone calls or messages. For further assistance, members of the public can contact SASSA's toll-free helpline on 0800 60 10 11, visit the official website at www.sassa.gov.za, or use the online grant application portals.

ARGUMENT ENDS IN TRAGEDY

Tlhabane Woman Fatally Stabbed

Platinum Weekly newspaper | Rustenburg – A 35-year-old woman lost her life in a tragic incident in Tlhabane, allegedly at the hands of her boyfriend following a domestic dispute. According to police spokesperson constable Thuto Bobelo, the couple were at the woman's residence on the evening of Thursday, 18 June 2026, when an argument reportedly broke out between them. It is alleged that during the altercation, the 41-year-old boyfriend stabbed the woman multiple times. Emergency Medical Rescue Services (EMRS) personnel arrived at the scene and found the victim lying in a pool of blood. She was declared dead at the scene. Police reported that the suspect allegedly attempted to flee after the incident but was apprehended by community members, who allegedly assaulted him before police arrived. Officers responded to the scene and recovered two knives believed to be linked to the incident. The suspect, who sustained injuries during the alleged assault by residents, was taken to a local health facility for treatment before being discharged. He was subsequently arrested and charged with murder. The suspect was expected to appear in the Bafokeng Magistrates' Court on Monday, 22 June. The acting provincial commissioner of North West, major general Dr Ryno Naidoo, condemned the incident and reaffirmed the South African Police Service's commitment to combating gender-based violence. Police investigations continue.

Rugga nuus

Bokke-nuus

Die Springbok “A”-span met ‘n string youngsters baljaar en klop die Sabels van Zimbabwe 40-0 op die Nelson Mandela Bay Stadion. In die hoofwedstryd teken die Bokke tagtig punte aan in tagtig minute. Die Barbarians kon darem 31 punte aanteken. Hierdie was by verre een van die swakste Barbarian spanne nog... maar dit was ‘n lekker oefening vir die Bokke. Die Bokke se volgende game is 4 Julie teen Engeland in die Nation Cup.

Super Rugby Pacific 2026

Die Hurricanes verwoes die Chiefs in Wellington om met ‘n rekordtelling van 60-5 te triomfeer. Die Canes kon laas in 2016 die Super-kroon dra. Die nuut aangestelde coach van die All Blacks kan kies en keur met sterspelers wat op vorm is vir die toer in Augustus teen die Bokke op tuisbodem.

United Rugby Championship

En daar vreet die Bulle so wintiewaar weer van die vloer af ou grote! Leinster klop die Bulle 36-7 en is vir die tweede agtereenvolgende jaar die URC konings. Baie was van die Bulle verwag met ‘n gros Bok-spelers in die span maar dit kon net nie vlam vat nie. Die hoop is maar weer op Rassie en die Bokke om darem iets te wen vanjaar teen die vyand.

Nag ou grote...

New Trail, New Triumph

Platinum Weekly newspaper | Rustenburg – Age is no barrier when it comes to chasing new goals. Run/Walk For Life Rustenburg athlete André Smit recently proved exactly that when he finished an impressive fourth out of 18 runners in the Men's 60 (M60) category at the Interprovincial Cross Country Championships during his very first season of competitive cross-country running. Cross country is one of athletics' most challenging disciplines, with runners tackling varied terrain, hills and natural obstacles while testing both endurance and determination. André's achievement is a reminder that it is never too late to try something new and excel at it.

Building a cleaner, safer and stronger Rustenburg

Platinum Weekly newspaper | Rustenburg – From overgrown sidewalks and illegal dumping hotspots to unsafe open spaces, Our Ward Matters (OWM) continues making a visible impact across Wards 15, 16 and 17. Led by founder André van Dyk, together with Ward 17 councillor Tanya Rothman and supported by volunteers, residents and local businesses, OWM focuses on cleaner, safer and more welcoming neighbourhoods.

Community clean-ups tackle safety and fire risks

On 17 and 18 June 2026, OWM teams rolled up their sleeves to improve several areas in and around Ward 17. Work began in Helen Joseph Street near Waterberg, extending towards the Kgaswane side, where teams focused on cutting grass, clearing overgrown areas and removing litter. The following day, efforts shifted to Azalea Park and Selly Park, starting along Langeberg Avenue on the mountainside. Using brushcutters, the team reduced vegetation that could fuel veld fires – a challenge residents have faced in previous years. The clean-up continued into Kougaberg and Drakensberg Avenue, where sidewalks were cleared, rubbish collected and stormwater drains cleaned. Work was also carried out at the Adelaide Substation to improve access for electrical teams, reduce fire hazards and help protect critical infrastructure from vandalism, cable theft and break-ins.

OWM volunteers in action during community clean-up operations on 17 and 18 June, clearing overgrown areas, removing litter and helping to create safer neighbourhoods across Ward 17.

Young community heroes! Learners from Play-Way Learning Centre proudly received their superhero-themed rewards from Our Ward Matters for embracing the values of conservation, community service and responsible citizenship.

Play-Way Learners inspired to become community heroes

One of the highlights of the week was OWM's return visit to Play-Way Learning Centre in Rustenburg. Earlier this year, André van Dyk visited the Grade 3 learners to speak about conservation, caring for nature, keeping communities clean and the role each child can play in making a difference. During that visit, a promise was made to return and reward the top-performing learners. This week, that promise became a reality as learners received original Marvel superhero soft toys, carefully selected to represent important values such as courage, leadership, kindness and doing what is right. Two additional learners were also recognised with surprise gifts chosen by their teachers. Van Dyk encouraged the children to enjoy their childhood, dream big and remember that true heroes are those who make a positive difference in the lives of others. He praised the learners for their understanding of community service and said OWM looks forward to returning to the school for future projects.

New veld-clearing project underway

On 22 June, OWM launched a new project aimed at reducing veld-fire risks behind homes in the Palalarivier and Krokodilrivier areas. The team began by securing fuel supplies for the week before moving into open veld areas behind residential properties. Unlike routine roadside maintenance, the project focuses on cutting deeper into the veld to create safer firebreaks and reduce the likelihood of devastating fires such as those experienced in previous years, particularly near Little Margate. As the project continues, OWM is calling on residents and businesses to assist with donations of petrol, brushcutter line, oil, equipment maintenance and repairs, as well as support for wages and overtime costs.

HAVE YOUR SAY

Is success more about luck than hard work?

Some people believe success comes from being in the right place at the right time, while others argue that dedication, persistence and hard work are the real keys to achieving goals. What do you think plays the bigger role in success – luck, hard work, or a combination of both?

“Luck may open a door, but hard work is what gets you through it. Success comes from dedication, persistence and making the most of every opportunity.”

Ricardo Coelho,
